Colorado, a History of the Centennial State Carl Abbott,Stephen J. Leonard,David G. McComb,1982

The History of the Death Penalty in Colorado Michael Radelet,2017-01-15 In The History of the Death Penalty in Colorado noted death penalty scholar Michael Radelet chronicles the details of each capital punishment trial and execution that has taken place in Colorado since 1859 The book describes the debates and struggles that Coloradans have had over the use of the death penalty placing the cases of the 103 men whose sentences were carried out and 100 more who were never executed into the context of a gradual worldwide trend away from this form of punishment For more than 150 years Coloradans have been deeply divided about the death penalty with regular questions about whether it should be expanded restricted or eliminated It has twice been abolished but both times state lawmakers reinstated the contentious punitive measure Prison administrators have contributed to this debate with some refusing to participate in executions and some lending their voices to abolition efforts Colorado has also had a rich history of experimenting with execution methods first hanging prisoners in public and then starting in 1890 using the twitch up gallows for four decades In 1933 Colorado began using a gas chamber and eventually moved to lethal injection in the 1990s Based on meticulous archival research in official state archives library records and multimedia sources The History of the Death Penalty in Colorado will inform the conversation on both sides of the issue anywhere the future of the death penalty is under debate

The Ballantines John Peel,2022-09-14 Seventy years ago an Ivy League educated lawyer his wife from a prominent Midwestern media family and their four children moved to a small town in Southwestern Colorado They bought two struggling newspapers melded them into one and started building a legacy one issue at a time Arthur and Morley Ballantine not only made Durango their home they helped mobilize their fellow business owners and neighbors to transform that sleepy little community into a thriving center of education culture enterprise and philanthropy The Durango Herald quickly became known as an award winning publication staffed with hard working industrious journalists who wouldn't shy from an important story no matter who might want it quashed This is the story of a community minded family with deep connections in the highest levels of government and education It is the story of how their newspaper has kept its subscribers informed of important issues and news stories big and small It is a reminder of local newspapers unique role as the glue that binds and enlightens the people of their towns The Ballantines Building Community Issue by Issue not only traces the history of a remarkable family but also reminds us of the vital role that quality journalism plays as the underpinning of a community
