Rocky Iii:

The Boxing Filmography Frederick V. Romano, 2004-09-10 The love affair between boxing and Hollywood began with the dawn of film As early as the days of Chaplin the boxing film had assumed its place as a subgenre and over the decades it has taken the forms of biographies dramas romances comedies and even musicals and westerns Such well known pictures as The Champ Body and Soul Don King Only in America Girl Fight The Irish in Us The Kid from Brooklyn Somebody Up There Likes Me Raging Bull each of the Rocky movies and When We Were Kings are just a few examples of the feature films included in this filmography Thoroughly researched this work examines 98 boxing films from the 1920s through 2003 Each entry provides basic filmographic data the film s studio its genre its length cast and credits a detailed synopsis of the film illuminating commentary on the boxing sequences and excerpts from contemporary reviews Most entries also summarize the making of the film with particular attention to the training of the actors for the boxing scenes The filmography also includes information on studio publicity releases and advertisements press books and exhibitor campaign materials for each film

The Ultimate Stallone Reader Chris Holmlund, 2014-04-14 Sylvester Stallone has been a defining part of American film for nearly four decades He has made an impact on world entertainment in a surprisingly diverse range of capacities as actor writer producer and director all while maintaining a monolithic presence With The Ultimate Stallone Reader this icon finally receives concerted academic attention Eleven original essays by internationally known scholars examine Stallone s contributions to mainstream cinema independent film and television This volume also offers innovative approaches to star gender and celebrity studies performance analysis genre criticism industry and reception inquiry and the question of what it means to be an auteur Ultimately The Ultimate Stallone Reader investigates the place that Sylvester Stallone occupies within an industry and a culture that have both undergone much evolution and how his work has reflected and even driven these changes

National Pastimes Katharina Bonzel, 2020-01-01 Sports have long fascinated filmmakers from Hollywood and beyond from Bend It Like Beckham to Chariots of Fire to Rocky Though sports films are diverse in their approach style and storytelling modes National Pastimes discloses the common emotional and visual cues that belie each sports film s underlying nationalistic impulses Katharina Bonzel unravels the delicate matrix of national identity sports and emotion through the lens of popular sports films in comparative national contexts demonstrating in the process how popular culture provides a powerful vehicle for the development and maintenance of identities of place across a range of national cinemas As films reflect the ways in which myths of nation and national belonging change over time they are implicated in important historical moments from Cold War America to the class dynamics of 1980s Thatcherite Britain to the fragmented sense of nation in post unification Germany Bonzel shows how sports films provide a means for renegotiating the boundaries of national identity in an accessible engaging form National Pastimes opens up new ways of understanding how films appeal to the emotions using myth like constructions of the past to cultivate spectators engagement with historical events
