Rodin En Buenos Aires:

Rodin en Buenos Aires, 2001 Art Museums of Latin America Michele Greet, Gina McDaniel Tarver, 2018-03-08

Since the late nineteenth century art museums have played crucial social political and economic roles throughout Latin America because of the ways that they structure representation By means of their architecture collections exhibitions and curatorial practices Latin American art museums have crafted representations of communities including nation states and promoted particular group ideologies This collection of essays arranged in thematic sections will examine the varying and complex functions of art museums in Latin America as nation building institutions and instruments of state cultural politics as foci for the promotion of Latin American modernities and modernisms as sites of mediation between local and international private and public interests as organizations that negotiate cultural construction within the Latin American diaspora and shape constructs of Latin America and its nations and as venues for the contestation of elitist and Eurocentric notions of culture and the realization of cultural diversity rooted in multiethnic environments La France Claude Rivière, 1920
