Design and Politics Katarina Serulus, 2018-10-08 The unique position of design in the political context of postwar Belgium In the postwar era design became important as a marker of modernity and progress at world fairs and international exhibitions and in the global markets The Belgian state took a special interest in this vanguard phenomenon of industrial design as a vital political and economic strategic tool in the context of the Cold War and the creation of the European community This book describes the unique position that design occupied in the political context of postwar Belgium as it analyses the public promotion of design between 1950 and 1986 It traces this process from the first government backed manifestations and institutions in the 1950s through the 1960s and 1970s until design lost its privileged position as a state backed institution a process which culminated in the closure of the Brussels Design Centre in 1986 in the midst of the Belgian federalisation process A key figure in this history is the policymaker Josine des Cressonnières who played a leading role in the national and international design community and succeeded in connecting very different political worlds through the medium of design

Roger Tallon, 1970 1000 Masterpieces of Decorative Art Victoria Charles, 2014-11-24 From ancient Sumerian pottery to Tiffany stained glass decorative art has been a fundamental part of the human experience for generations While fine art is confined to galleries and museums decorative art is the art of the every day combining beauty with functionality in objects ranging from the prosaic to the fantastical In this work Albert Jacquemart celebrates the beauty and artistic potential behind even the most quotidian object Readers will walk away from this text with a newfound appreciation for the subtle artistry of the manufactured world
