Writing the Modern Family Roberta Garrett, 2021-01-29 Although a large body of work has emerged which addresses neoliberal representations of the family in other cultural forms such as parenting advice programmes little has been written specifically on the family and contemporary literature This book examines the growing body of autobiographical and fictional writing on family and parenting issues in Anglo American culture from the late 1990s to the present day The book looks closely at six distinct genres which have arisen during this time frame the misery memoir the mum s lit popular novel the maternal confessional dads lit the dysfunctional domestic novel and the family noir Writing the Modern Family will examine the way these burgeoning areas of British and American writing respond to a neoliberal public discourse in which a parenting deficit rather than economic and structural disadvantage is responsible for increasing inequality in child welfare and achievement In evaluating these forms and their relationship to neoliberal culture the book will also consider the complex interrelationship between these genres Blue

Dreams Lauren Slater, 2025-05-01 The explosive story of the discovery and development of psychiatric medications as well as the science and the people behind their invention told by a riveting writer and psychologist who shares her own experience with the highs and lows of psychiatric drugs Although one in five Americans now takes at least one psychotropic drug the fact remains that nearly seventy years after doctors first began prescribing them not even their creators understand exactly how or why these drugs work or don t work on what ails our brains Lauren Slater s revelatory account charts psychiatry s journey from its earliest drugs Thorazine and lithium up through Prozac and other major antidepressants of the present Blue Dreams also chronicles experimental treatments involving Ecstasy magic mushrooms the most cutting edge memory drugs placebos and even neural implants In her thorough analysis of each treatment Slater asks three fundamental questions how was the drug born how does it work or fail to work and what does it reveal about the ailments it is meant to treat Fearlessly weaving her own intimate experiences into comprehensive and wide ranging research Slater narrates a personal history of psychiatry itself In the process her powerful and groundbreaking exploration casts modern psychiatry s ubiquitous wonder drugs in a new light revealing their ability to heal us or hurt us and proving an indispensable resource not only for those with a psychotropic prescription but for anyone who hopes to understand the limits of what we know about the human brain and the possibilities for future treatments Rachel Cusk Roberta Garrett, Liam Harrison, 2024-07-25 Rachel

Cusk is one of the most critically acclaimed and controversial contemporary British authors Her diverse body of work offers a striking portrait of trends in 21st century literature and the history of Cusk s literary output is one of experimentation and a desire to push against established cultural models Rachel Cusk Contemporary Critical Perspectives is the first critical guide to Cusk s work spanning novels including Saving Agnes A Country Life and Second Place her autofictional Outline trilogy and her nonfiction A Life s Work The Last Supper Aftermath and the Coventry essays Rigorous and wide ranging this book provides an accessible and lucid introduction to Cusk s work exploring themes of gender relations class dynamics maternal identity and creative freedom The collection concludes with an in depth interview with Cusk conducted by Merve Emre reflecting on her influences writing and experiences Mapping the formal and stylistic shift across her career and locating them within their specific contexts this collection provides a crucial analysis of Cusk's influences politics and literary techniques that speak to many of the most pressing issues in contemporary literature

Personal and Cultural Shadows of Late Motherhood Maryann Barone-Chapman, 2019-11-28 Personal and Cultural Shadows of Late Motherhood explores the topic of delayed motherhood from a Jungian psychoanalytic perspective using both quantitative and qualitative research methods including interview transcripts diaries dreams and Jung's world renowned Word Association Experiment It provides a unique contribution to our understanding of the pressures faced by women today on the topic of delayed motherhood We may consider an affect to be in place when a woman allows her relationship to her body and its procreative capacity to slip away from consciousness only to awaken at a point when redeeming her past choices becomes a hunger This book delves into personal cultural and collective spheres of influence that have been split off waiting for the right moment to reintegrate Working with Interpretive Phenomenological Analysis and Jung's Word Association Experiment the author identifies aspects of the psyche arousing late procreative desire and considers the differing accounts of maternal and paternal parents within affective experience of growing up female beside a male sibling The book examines women's procreative identity in midlife identifies complexes of a personal cultural and collective nature and considers how the role of mother is psychosocially performed taking in feminist psychoanalytical thinking as well as Queer theory to explore new meanings for late motherhood This book will be of great interest to clinicians researchers academics postgraduate students of Jungian psychoanalysis gender theory psychosocial studies and those travelling alongside a woman's journey into later motherhood

Love Works Like This Lauren Slater, 2003 In this remarkable book the author of Welcome to My Country and Prozac Diary writes about how people discover what love truly is and make the decision to open their life to a child

Childhood, Literature and Science Jutta Ahlbeck, Päivi Lappalainen, Kati Launis, Kirsi Tuohela, 2017-11-13 How do we understand imagine and remember childhood In what ways do cultural representations and scientific discourses meet in their ways of portraying children Childhood Literature and Science aims to answer these questions by tracing how images of childhood's and children in Western modernity are entangled with notions of innocence and fragility but also with sin and evilness Indeed this interdisciplinary collection investigates how different child figures emerge or disappear in imaginative and social representations in the memories of adult selves and in expert knowledge Questions about childhood in Western modernity culture and science are also addressed through insightful analysis of a variety of materials from the Enlightenment age to the present day such as fiction life narratives visual images scientific texts and public writings Analysing childhood as a discursive construction Childhood Literature and Science will appeal to scholars as well as undergraduate and postgraduate students interested in fields such as Childhood Studies History Gender Studies Cultural Studies Literature and Sociology of the Family
