

SHORT LOVE STORY

Once a guy said to a girl: "Love is like a rainbow, it's colourful and makes people smile.

Love is like an ocean, it's deep and beautiful.

Love is like the sun, it shines and it's warm.
Love is like rain, it's calm and refreshing.
Will you let me show you that love?"

The girl shook her head while smiling:
"No"

The guy looked down sadly and then he heard her saying these words: "I want you to show me YOUR love..."

The Literature Lover's Book of Lists Judie L. H. Strouf,1999-09-15 Wonderful for browsing and invaluable for finding specific information Literature Lovers Book of Lists is a compendium of useful and sometimes whimsical information for anyone who loves books and loves to read at any age or reading level It is organized into nine sections and provides nearly 200 lists relating to genres authors characters and settings awards literary terms with their definitions and much more There are even lists of books of prose and poetry available on audiocassettes If it has to do with literature this book has the answers What book has had the longest run on The New York Times best seller list Who is the only four time winner of the Pulitzer Prize for drama What is the complete list of Shakespeare s plays and poems Who are some of the most notable African American authors What are the three main variations of the sonnet What famous writers belonged to The Bloomsbury Group Literature Lovers Book of Lists is both exciting and informative at the same time Cabins in Modern Norwegian Literature Ellen Rees, 2014-03-06 This book examines the significance of cabins and other temporary seasonal dwellings as important symbols in modern Norwegian cultural and literary history The author uses Michel Foucault s notion of the heterotopia an actual place that also functions imaginatively as a kind of real world utopia to examine how cabins have signified differently during successive periods from an Enlightenment trope of simplicity and moderation through the rise of tourism into a period of increasing individualism and alienation from nature For each period discussed the author relates a widely recognized real world cabin to a cluster of thematically related literary texts from a wide variety of genres Cabins in Modern Norwegian Literature considers both central canonical works such as Camilla Collett s The District Governor s Daughters Bjørnstjerne Bjørnson s Synnøve Solbakken Henrik Ibsen s When We Dead Awaken and Knut Hamsun s The Growth of the Soil as well as less widely known literary works and texts from marginal genres such as hunting narratives and crime fiction In addition the book contains analyses of a few key films from the contemporary period that also activate the cabin as a motif The central argument is that while Norwegians today tend to think of cabin culture as essentially unchanging over a long span of time it has in fact changed dramatically over the past two hundred years and that it is an extremely rich and complex cultural phenomenon deeply imbedded in the construction of national identity
