of the New Wave's relationship with the older arts. Traversing the fields of literature, theatre, painting, architecture and photography and drawing on Andre Bazin alongside recent theories of intermediality, it investigates the impure intermedial aesthetics of New Wave cinema. Filmmakers under discussion include critics turned directors Francois Truffaut, Eric Rohmer, Jean Luc Godard, Jacques Rivette and Claude Chabrol; members of the Left Bank Group Alain Resnais, Agnes Varda and Chris Marker; but also lesser known directors, notably the secret child of the New Wave, Guy Gilles. This wide ranging book offers an original reading of the complex, often ambivalent ways in which the New Wave engages the other arts in both its discursive construction and filmic practice.

Key Features: A wide ranging study which explores the complex, often ambiguous ways in which the New Wave engages with the other arts in both its discursive construction and cinematic practice. Affords a new prism for understanding New Wave filmmaking and its legacy through comprehensive analysis of the ways in which the New Wave aesthetic was shaped through intermedial dialogue and medium rivalry. Reassesses one of the most acclaimed movements in film history, drawing on cutting edge theory in the prominent field of intermediality studies. Offers an inclusive, heterogeneous view of the New Wave through inclusion of lesser known directors such as Guy Gilles, Jean Daniel Pollet and Jacques Demy alongside renowned Nouvelle Vague filmmakers.

A Fisherman's Son Edencio Abalos Fernandez, 2005-08

A Fisherman's Son: A Lifetime Dream To Remember is a collection of paintings, poems and journals created and composed by the author who never had an interest in arts and poetry before 1997 and when he was in school. The book is a product of pure gifts and inspirations handed down to the author whose education, profession and career are completely unrelated to arts, poetry and creative writing. The impressionistic style of painting presented in the book is remarkable and the poems and journals were not professionally crafted but more like voices heard from above that are meant to be shared with every soul. The book presents paintings of scenes mostly in Georgetown, Washington D.C., Northern Virginia, Japan, New Zealand and the Philippines. Moreover, the chapter 'Imagining' contains some expressionistic creations by the author. The poems and journals reflect the author's thoughts and feelings on the subject of love, affection, existence, war and peace, and technology and his impressions on his surroundings and life activities, inspirations, dreams, adventures and fiction stories.

Mongoose Anthony Haas, 2008-02

It was a conscious decision while reading Henry Miller's somewhat obscure book called The Time Of The Assassins and then getting into Rimbaud's Illuminations it was a decision to write from my unconscious and Hermitically as well. It was a difficult time when I first started on these writings but I'm glad I wrote it down because the past vanishes practically into the vast blue nowhere; time is such a sneaky weasel. It's been a heck of a ride. Gradually though I become less introverted and the poems I think their content and form become more and more public, almost a kind of journalism away from the freaky, trapped, scared and half nutshell crazed. Also around the time I started writing these poems I was catching my first real and protracted study of philosophy in particular Nietzsche's The Birth of Tragedy. And technically as well as the ideas astounded me really and it really felt great to be able to read and then write, hoping to run parallel with philosophy and whatnot This then these precarious poems where walking the plank is for real is my attempt to climb out of my self the ole mind cage of lonesome fears the shadowland and enter in into the now of the implacable hub of no perspective but that of now If there is a message to these poems its probably just in the inherent fact that one exists lives delves under and to the very heart where mind and soul dance that eternity dance of one any how way and who Dancing Tango Kathy Davis,2015-01-02 Argentinean tango is a global phenomenon Through interviews and ethnographical research in Amsterdam and Buenos Aires Kathy Davis shows why a dance from another era and another place appeals to men and women from different parts of the world and how they become caught up in the tango salon culture
