Fielding and Faulkner to the Postmodernists Jennie Wang proposes a new narrative theory in the study of the novel which deconstructs the mimesis of love stories and reconstructs their historicity Wang claims that in the Platonic tradition the construction of love stories is often a dramatization of the author's historical vision philosophical speculations cultural criticism or political ideology Novelistic love functions as a literary medium a power of free speech that enables the novelist to speak unspeakable truths and include excluded subjects Wang's work will be of interest to both philosophers and scholars of American literature and postmodernism Let Love Be-friend You Tanmayyii Arora,2023-03-20 20 Master Plots Ronald B. Tobias,2012-01-12 Give your story a solid foundation a plot that engages readers from start to finish The best stories linger in the hearts and minds of readers for decades These tales gain their power through plots that connect with the audience on both an emotional and intellectual level Inside Ronald B Tobias details these 20 time tested plots Each is discussed and analyzed illustrating how a successful plot integrates all the elements of a story Tobias then shows you how to use these plots effectively in your own work Tobias then goes to the next level showing you how to choose and develop plot in fiction He shows you how to craft plot for any subject matter so that you develop your work evenly and effectively As a result your fiction will be more cohesive and convincing making your story unforgettable for readers everywhere Plot isn't an accessory that conveniently organizes your material according to some ritualistic magic You don't just plug in plot like a household appliance and expect it to do its job Plot is organic It takes hold of the writer and the work from the beginning Ronald Tobias Hong Kong Film, Hollywood and New Global Cinema Gina Marchetti,Tan See Kam,2007-01-24 Giving fresh and fascinating insights into the vibrant area of Hong Kong this exciting book links Hong Kong with world film culture both within and beyond the commercial Hollywood paradigm Pastoral Drama in Early Modern Italy Lisa Sampson,2017-12-02 Emerging in Italy in the mid sixteenth century pastoral drama is one of the most characteristic genres of its time Sampson traces its uneven development into the following century by exploring masterpieces by Tasso and Guarini and many lesser known works some by women writers She examines the treatment of key themes of love the Golden Age and Nature and Art against the background of the textual and stage production of the plays An investigation of critical writings associated with the genre further reveals its significance to the contemporary literary scene by stimulating modernizing attitudes towards the canon as well as new enquiries into the function and possibilities of art When True Love Came to China Lynn Pan,2015-11-01 The Guardian's Best Books of 2015 Most people suppose that the whole world knows what it is to love that romantic love is universal quintessentially human Such a supposition has to be able to meet three challenges It has to justify its underlying assumption that all cultures mean the same thing by the word love regardless of language It has to engage with the scholarly debate on whether or not romantic love was invented in Europe and is uniquely Western And it must be able to explain why early twentieth century Chinese writers claimed that they had never known true love or love by modern Western standards By addressing these three challenges through a literary historical philosophical biographical and above all comparative approach this highly original work shows how love's profile in China shifted with the rejection of arranged marriages and concubinage in favour of free individual choice monogamy and a Western model of romantic love This book Lynn Pan's best to date adds a wonderful new angle by encouraging us via comparison to better appreciate how unusual even in some ways exotic a part of the Western past we take for granted as though it were natural actually is While the reader will learn a great deal about Chinese literary and cultural traditions from this book if read with an open mind the Western reader may end up rethinking things about his or her tradition just as deeply Jeffrey N Wasserstrom Chancellor's Professor of History University of California at Irvine Nobody writes about China quite as brilliantly as Lynn Pan who in this new illuminating work on love showcases her trademark erudition entwined with a novelist's sensibility Pan's rare skill makes the book a treat from start to finish a sumptuous deft and moving analysis of China's relationship with love Mishi Saran author of Chasing the Monk's Shadow A Journey in the Footsteps of Xuanzang and The Other Side of Light
