Postcards Brian Abbs, 2003 Welcome to Postcards now in its second edition the popular American English program for teenagers
Tooth for a Tooth T F Muir, 2012-09-06 What secrets from the past was he about to uncover When a woman's skeleton is discovered in a shallow grave DCI Andy Gilchrist is tasked with finding her murderer But a psychic's warnings and markings on a rusted cigarette lighter found among the rotted remains set Gilchrist off on a trail that will take him back 35 years back to his past and on course to find his brother's killer in a fatal hit and run accident When dental records from an extracted tooth force Gilchrist to confront the unthinkable that his brother was her killer he keeps his fears to himself only to be suspended on suspicion of destroying evidence But Gilchrist battles on in his quest for answers Who was the woman Why was she murdered And was the fatal hit and run really an accident Praise for T F Muir Everything I look for in a crime novel Louise Welsh Rebus did it for Edinburgh Laidlaw did it for Glasgow Gilchrist might just be the bloke to put St Andrews on the crime fiction map Daily Record A bright new recruit to the swelling army of Scots crime writers Quintin Jardine

Postcards from the '80s Stephanie Bennett, Amy Hall, 1999 The recent hit movie The Wedding Singer CDs collecting 80s chartbusters All request 80s weekends on the radio You Know You're a Child of the 80s e-mails In case you haven't noticed the 80s are back Postcards from the 80s will be comprised of 80 lists and photos that will evoke and encapsulate the totally awesome decade that was the 80s Anyone whose life intersected with this decade will welcome this breezy and fun romp through all things 80s Enterprising Images John Vincent Jezierski, 2000 The story of the most prolific African American photographers in North America From its beginnings in York Pennsylvania in 1847 until the death of Wallace L Goodridge in Saginaw Michigan in 1922 the Goodridge Brothers Studio was the most significant and enduring African American photographic establishment in North America In Enterprising Images John Vincent Jezierski tells the story of one of America's first families of photography documenting the history of the Goodridge studio for three quarters of a century The existence of more than one thousand Goodridge photographs in all formats and the family's professional and personal activism enrich the portrait that emerges of this extraordinary family Weaving photographic and regional history with the narrative of a family whose lives paralleled the social and political happenings of the country Jezierski provides the reader with a complex family biography for those interested in regional and African American as well as photographic history

Necromance Leilah Wendell, 2003 Death has many faces but very rarely is Life's most faithful muse exposed for It's seductiveness compassion and contemplative nature Most mortals still tend to view Death as the King of Terrors Perhaps it's simply that artists can tap into a deeper well of understanding or that as their muse Death can impart a more gentle mien allowing the artist to share with brush pen and stone what he or she sees with the world at large This brand new volume aims to showcase over 115 evocative portraits of Death by several artists sculptors and photographers Some may be familiar others have never been published prior to this project and many were created especially for the Westgate Museum Collection Herein we see Death not just as consoler and confidant but also as friend and even lover to those willing to see with the same eyes as those He has inspired Hardcover Signed First Edition 60 full colour plates 54 black and white

Propaganda and Empire John M. MacKenzie, 2017-03-01 It has been said that the British Empire on which the sun never set meant little to the man in the street Apart from the jingoist eruptions at the death of Gordon or the relief of Mafeking he remained stonily indifferent to the imperial destiny that beckoned his rulers so alluringly Strange then that for three quarters of a century it was scarcely possible to buy a bar of soap or a tin of biscuits without being reminded of the idea of Empire Packaging postcards music hall cinema boy s stories and school books exhibitions and parades all conveyed the message that Empire was an adventure and an ennobling responsibility Army and navy were a sure shield for the mother country and the subject peoples alike Boys brigades and Scouts stiffened the backbone of youth who flocked to join In this illuminating study John M Mackenzie explores the manifestations of the imperial idea from the trappings of royalty through writers like G A Henty to the humble cigarette card He shows that it was so powerful and pervasive that it outlived the passing of Empire itself and as events such as the Falklands adventure showed the embers continue to smoulder

Postcards from the Nursery Dawn Cope, Peter Cope, 2000 A tribute to legions of unsung children s illustrators

Falling in Love with Nature Amanda J. Baugh, 2024-11-19 Explores the contours of Latinx Catholic environmentalism Home based conservationist measures such as cultivating backyard gardens avoiding consumerism and limiting waste are widespread among Spanish speaking Catholics across the United States Yet these home based conservationist practices are seldom recognized as environmental because they are enacted by working class immigrant communities and do not conform to the expectations of mainstream environmentalism In Falling in Love with Nature Amanda J Baugh tells the story of American environmentalism through a focus on Spanish speaking Catholics shedding light on environmental actors who have been hidden in plain sight While dominant narratives about environmental activism include minorities primarily in the realm of environmental racism and injustice Baugh demonstrates that minority communities are not merely victims of environmental problems They can be active agents who express love for nature based on inherited family traditions and close relationships with the land Baugh shows that Spanish speaking Catholics have values that have been overlooked in global discourses grassroots movements and the highest echelons of the US Catholic Church By drawing attention to the environmental knowledge that is already abundant within Spanish speaking Catholic communities Falling in Love with Nature challenges readers to rethink their assumptions about who can be an environmental leader and what counts as environmentalism

The Vimy Trap Ian McKay, Jamie Swift, 2017-03-16 The story of the bloody 1917 Battle of Vimy Ridge is according to many of today's tellings a heroic founding moment for Canada This noble birth of a nation narrative is regularly applied to the Great War in general Yet this mythical tale is rather new Vimyism today's official story of glorious martial patriotism contrasts sharply with the complex ways in which veterans artists clerics and even politicians who had supported the war interpreted its meaning over the decades Was the Great War a futile imperial debacle A proud nation building milestone Contending Great War memories have helped to shape how later wars were imagined The Vimy Trap provides a powerful probe of commemoration cultures This subtle fast paced work of public history combining scholarly insight with sharp eyed journalism and based on primary sources and school textbooks battlefield visits and war art explains both how and why peace and war remain contested terrain in ever changing landscapes of Canadian memory

Off Broadway Musicals, 1910-2007 Dan Dietz, 2010-03-10 Despite an often unfair reputation as being less popular less successful or less refined than their bona fide Broadway counterparts Off Broadway musicals deserve their share of critical acclaim and study A number of shows originally staged Off Broadway have gone on to their own successful Broadway runs from the ever popular A Chorus Line and Rent to more off beat productions like Avenue Q and Little Shop of Horrors And while it remains to be seen if other popular Off Broadway shows like Stomp Blue Man Group and Altar Boyz will make it to the larger Broadway theaters their Off Broadway runs have been enormously successful in their own right This book discusses more than 1 800 Off Broadway Off Off Broadway showcase and workshop musical productions It includes detailed descriptions of Off Broadway musicals that closed in previews or in rehearsal selected musicals that opened in Brooklyn and in New Jersey and American operas that opened in New York along with general overviews of Off Broadway institutions such as the Light Opera of Manhattan The typical entry includes the name of the host theater or theaters the opening date and number of performances the production's cast and creative team a list of songs a brief plot synopsis and general comments and reviews from the New York critics Besides the individual entries the book also includes a preface a bibliography and 21 appendices including a discography filmography a list of published scripts and lists of musicals categorized by topic and composer The Fence and the River Claire F.

Fox,1999 Offers an illustrated study that asks how the art produced about the U S Mexico border reflects political and economic transformations occurring world wide Reading Young Adult Literature: A Critical Introduction Carrie Hintz, Eric L. Tribunella, 2024-10-23 Reading Young Adult Literature is the most current comprehensive and accessible guide to this burgeoning genre tracing its history and reception with nuance and respect Unlike any other book on the market it synthesizes current thinking on key issues in the field and presents new research and original analyses of the history of adolescence the genealogy of YA literature key genres and modes of writing for young adults and ways to put YA in dialogue with canonical texts from the high school classroom Reading Young Adult Literature speaks to the core concerns of contemporary English studies with its attention to literary history literary form and theoretical approaches to YA Ideal for education courses on Young Adult Literature it offers prolonged attention to YA literature in the secondary classroom and cutting edge approaches to critical visual and multimodal literacy The book is also highly appealing for library science courses offering an illuminating history of YA Librarianship and a practical overview of the YA field Across Colonial Lines Devyani Gupta, Purba Hossain, 2023-02-09 Across Colonial Lines takes a multi perspective approach to the study of empire and commodities and encourages readers to look at commodity histories in alternative spatial and temporal contexts It offers a comparative understanding of commodities in the Venetian Portuguese Dutch French and British Empires Highlighting the interwoven character of multiple commodity networks this book situates commodities like gold coffee tea and indigo to name a few within pre existing networks of labour consumption and knowledge production It explores the nexus between the local and the global and highlights the role played by individual producers petty traders sailors and even consumers in creating regional circulations within a global political economy In this volume commodity networks are not just sites of production and trade but also of political control social organisation and consumption choices They provide the impetus for globalisation from as early as the thirteenth century Each chapter takes an individual commodity to illustrate the history of commodity transmission within imperial contexts From early modern Venetian commerce to the trade networks of the Eurasian world from the trading ambitions of British sailors to Portuguese global imperial ambitions from the cross imperial knowledge networks of indigo to the assertion of indigenous agency in Angola and from the commodification of labour to the experience of tourism in the Caribbean and Indian Ocean World Across Colonial Lines uses commodity networks as a lens to study empire building across varied yet connected geographies and chronologies Pedagogies of Public Memory Jane Greer, Laurie Grobman, 2015-06-12 Pedagogies of Public Memory explores opportunities for writing and rhetorical education at museums archives and memorials Readers will follow students working and writing at well known sites of international interest e g the Flight 93 National Memorial in Shanksville Pennsylvania and the U S Holocaust Memorial Museum at local sites e g vernacular memorials in and around Muncie Indiana and the Central Pennsylvania African American Museum in Reading Pennsylvania and in digital spaces e g Florida State University s Postcard Archive and The Women s Archive Project at the University of Nebraska Omaha From composing and delivering museum tours to designing online memorials that challenge traditional practices of public grief to producing and publishing a magazine containing the photographs and stories of individuals who lived through historic moments in the Freedom Struggle to expanding and creating new public archives the pedagogical projects described in this volume create richly textured learning opportunities for students at all levels from first year writers to graduate students The students and faculty whose work is represented in this volume undertake to reposition the past in the present and to imagine possible new futures for themselves and their communities By exploring the production of public memory this volume raises important new questions about the intersection of rhetoric and remembrance

The Children of 1965 Min Hyung Song, 2013-04-15 Since the 1990s a new cohort of Asian American writers has garnered critical and popular attention Many of its members are the children of Asians who came to the United States after the Immigration and Nationality Act of 1965 lifted long standing restrictions on immigration This new generation encompasses writers as diverse as the graphic novelists Adrian Tomine and Gene Luen Yang the short story writer Nam Le and the poet Cathy Park Hong Having scrutinized more than one hundred works by emerging Asian American authors and having interviewed several of these writers Min Hyung Song argues that collectively these works push against existing ways of thinking about race even as they demonstrate how race can facilitate creativity Some of the writers eschew their identification as ethnic writers while others embrace it as a means of tackling the uncertainty that many people feel about the near future In the literature that they create a number of the writers that Song discusses take on pressing contemporary matters such as demographic change environmental catastrophe and the widespread sense that the United States is in national decline
