Interdisciplinarity and the Art of Human Connection Sharon Woodill, 2025-08-07 This book examines interdisciplinarity through the lens of complexity theory arguing for an understanding of interdisciplinarity that embraces the wisdom of complexity and not just the idea Sharon Woodill critiques current interdisciplinary practices as often falling short of truly embracing complexity instead grafting complexity theory onto existing reductionist frameworks that lead to disconnection Drawing on principles of self organization and emergence this book re imagines the interdisciplinary process and integration that results It advocates for an epistemology of connection that prioritizes human relationships diverse perspectives and engagement with ambiguity in knowledge practices It examines the concept of diversity as an example of interdisciplinarity grounded in a fully fledged complexity Throughout the book advocates for a shift from capture and control approaches to knowledge towards an understanding of knowing as a participatory emergent process It emphasizes the facilitation of new insights through deep engagement with the complexity of each other and the worlds we inhabit Readings in Ecology and Feminist Theology Mary Heather MacKinnon, Moni McIntyre, 1995 To find more information about Rowman and Littlefield titles please visit www.rowmanlittlefield.com Partaking of God Denis Edwards, 2014-04-07 The natural world around us is in crisis We know it has a dynamic evolutionary character How might we understand this world in relationship to God Partaking of God builds on the foundations of the dynamic trinitarian theology of Athanasius It develops into a theology of the Word as the divine Attractor and the Spirit as the Energy of Love in evolutionary emergence Then it explores God's suffering with creatures the humility of God in creation church teaching on the human soul in relation to neuroscience and grace and original sin in relationship to evolution It culminates in a Christian theology of ecological conversion Melville's Anatomies Samuel Otter, 1999-03-05 What Otter has done better than most contemporary readers of Melville is to bring Melville's obsession with rhetoric and with authorship into alignment with those political issues and to capture fully the context of Melville's concerns Priscilla Wald author of Constituting Americans Personified Body Parts in Cinema, Literature, and Visual Culture Gilad Padva, Yair Koren-Maimon, 2025-04-17 Personified Body Parts in Cinema Literature and Visual Culture investigates the power of personifying body parts in cinema television visual culture literature erotica folklore and mystique Culturally socially and poetically exposing hidden aspects and subtleties of human existentialism this book vigorously questions and problematizes numerous artistic aesthetic technological naïve and macabre manipulations of body parts for various purposes A diverse team of authors explore how scribing human traits to limbs eyes brains genitalia hearts and other inner organs is grotesque and aesthetic repealing and appealing intimidating and intimate rude and enjoyable material and spiritual surprising and mundane Personified organs are interrelated with bodily integrity visceral aesthetics distorted nature social anxiety and acceptability cultural classifications and hierarchies and dissident innovativeness and radicalism This interdisciplinary volume involves body studies cinema television and media studies literature studies cultural intercultural and countercultural studies mythology and folklore studies gender sexuality trans and queer studies ethnicities and postcolonialism and art history What About Me, God? Barbara Hinder, 2019-08-23 Feeling abandoned by God and others occurs in our life Let's learn how to see that abandonment does not occur for the Christian just more intimacy with God even when painful Addresses to the Young Alexander Fletcher, 1851 Addresses to the Young.

Immanuel: Christ's Names, Titles and Excellencies Alexander Fletcher (D.D., Presbyterian Divine.),1851 Handbook of Attachment Interventions Terry M. Levy,1999-11-24 The emotional attachment of a child to caregivers and the attachment of the caregivers to the child is of vital importance to the child's socioemotional development Proper attachment can affect one's ability to feel and express love moral development motivation to achieve and sense of identity Modern industrial societies have seen a recent surge in attachment problems yet there has been little information on clinical interventions for attachment disorders The Handbook of Attachment Interventions meets this need by providing information on diverse patient populations across different therapeutic philosophies while providing specific techniques for treating attachment disordered children and their families The book begins with a discussion of how attachment disorders relate to subsequent antisocial behavior patterns and other disorders as well as general issues parents may encounter with an attachment disordered child Subsequent chapters discuss special patient populations the adopted child military families etc and techniques for intervention Practitioners in clinical private practice managed care and hospital settings social workers developmental psychologists and interested parents find the Handbook of Attachment Interventions a valuable reference God of Wonders David A. Steen,2012 Explore the wonders of God's creation with biologist David A Steen and discover the intricacies of things we usually take for granted taste gravity skin bacteria trees DNA stars cellular reproduction and many more Are you ready to experience an overwhelming sense of awe God's creative genius is simply breathtaking A Concordance to the Poems of Robert Herrick , Reproductive Genetics, Gender and the Body Elizabeth Ettorre,2013-04-15 This book is all about reproductive genetics a sociological concept developed to define the use of DNA based technologies in the medical management and supervision of reproduction and pregnant women In a searching analysis Elizabeth Ettorre uncovers the hidden social processes involved in the development of these technologies Focussing on prenatal screening she explores how the key concepts of gender and the body are intertwined with the process of building genetic knowledge and some of the unintended consequences for women These include the injection of biology into social relationships and the development of a gendered discourse of shame and stigmatisation in which the perfect body becomes idealised and new conceptions of disability are shaped It becomes clear that the modernist tradition of scientific disinterestedness is being replaced by a new ethic the making of moral judgements by scientists Reproductive Genetics Gender and the Body draws on interviews with European medical legal and nursing professionals and raises important issues around the gendered female body the site of genetic capital It challenges professional and scholar alike to grapple with and think through their responsibilities in this complex field where the competing issues have yet to be resolved Environmental Ethics, Ecological Theology, and Natural Selection Lisa Sideris,2003-07-16 In the last few decades religious and secular thinkers have tackled the world's escalating environmental crisis by attempting to develop an ecological ethic that is both scientifically accurate and free of human centered preconceptions This groundbreaking study shows that many of these environmental ethicists continue to model their positions on romantic pre Darwinian concepts that disregard the predatory and cruelly competitive realities of the natural world Examining the work of such influential thinkers as James Gustafson Sallie McFague Rosemary Radford Ruether John Cobb Peter Singer and Holmes Rolston Sideris proposes a more realistic ethic that combines evolutionary theory with theological insight advocates a minimally interventionist stance toward nature and values the processes over the products of the natural world The Natural World and God Denis Edwards,2017-12-31

How are we to think about the natural world around us in relation to the God of Jesus Astronomers cosmologists and evolutionary biologists have opened wonderfully new ways of seeing the community of life on Earth and its place in the universe At the same time we are facing an extreme crisis of life on our planet Both of these realities demand that we rethink our theology of animals plants ecosystems as well as galaxies and stars In this book Denis Edwards collects together a series of explorations into this kind of theology Moving Meditations Callie Drozinski,2024-07-02 While loving the Lord with all our hearts souls minds and strength we can be drawn into a deeper relationship with Him by moving our bodies to experience the presence of the Holy Spirit while becoming less self focused and more Christ focused Through scriptures devotions breath exercises and movements demonstrated with clear images registered yoga instructor Callie Drozinski shares inspiring tools that invite believers to relieve stress calm their busy minds and find relief from physical pain in order to love God themselves and others more like Jesus did Through her instructions participants will practice specific exercises and stretches focus their minds and pray the scripture as they move and breathe in each posture to open the heart and soul worship God and ultimately find healing Moving Meditations shares scriptures movements and devotions that encourage believers to exercise stretch and pray with Christ at the center to find healing for the heart soul mind and strength

Witnessing Kelly Oliver,2001-01-01 Challenging the fundamental tenet of the multicultural movement that social struggles turning upon race gender and sexuality are struggles for recognition this work offers a powerful critique of current conceptions of identity and subjectivity based on Hegelian notions of recognition The author s critical engagement with major texts of contemporary philosophy prepares the way for a highly original conception of ethics based on witnessing Central to this project is Oliver s contention that the demand for recognition is a symptom of the pathology of oppression that perpetuates subject object and same different hierarchies While theorists across the disciplines of the humanities and social sciences focus their research on multiculturalism around the struggle for recognition Oliver argues that the actual texts and survivors accounts from the aftermath of the Holocaust and slavery are testimonials to a pathos that is beyond recognition Oliver traces many of the problems with the recognition model of subjective identity to a particular notion of vision presupposed in theories of recognition and misrecognition Contesting the idea of an objectifying gaze she reformulates vision as a loving look that facilitates connection rather than necessitates alienation As an alternative Oliver develops a theory of witnessing subjectivity She suggests that the notion of witnessing with its double meaning as either eyewitness or bearing witness to the unseen is more promising than recognition for describing the onset and sustenance of subjectivity Subjectivity is born out of and sustained by the process of witnessing the possibility of address and response which puts ethical obligations at its heart
