Valle Inclán: the Lights of Bohemia John E. Lyon, 1993-05 Written in the early 1920s Lights of Bohemia is set in the twilight phase of Madrid's bohemian artistic life against the turbulent social and political background of events between 1900 and 1920 The play's protagonist the poet Max Estrella confronts the dilemma between art and social commitment and the problem of salvaging some sort of authenticity and identity in a context which converts him into an anachronism This is the first play in a series of esperpentos or grotesques in which Valle Inclán tries to convey the tragic grotesque contradictions of his contemporary surroundings by the use of similarly contrasting registers in his theatre

Luces de Bohemia Ramón del Valle-Inclán, 1970 Teaching Translation from Spanish to English Allison Beeby Lonsdale, Allison Beeby, 1996 While many professional translators believe the ability to translate is a gift that one either has or does not have Allison Beeby Lonsdale questions this view In her innovative book Beeby Lonsdale demonstrates how teachers can guide their students by showing them how insights from communication theory discourse analysis pragmatics and semiotics can illuminate the translation process Using Spanish to English translation as her example she presents the basic principles of translation through 29 teaching units which are prefaced by objectives tasks and commentaries for the teacher and through 48 task sheets which show how to present the material to students Published in English
