Susan Sydney-Smith, 2002-05-24 In 1955 a brand new television series Dixon of Dock Green came to Britain's screens whose eponymous hero had featured in The Blue Lamp 1950 Although it has traditionally been assumed that the uniform police series begins with the Ealing film this book based on original archive research challenges this assumption proposing that in fact these series were shaped by changes in television's social role from the relaying of news to the replaying of stories Susan Sydney Smith demonstrates how the development of the British television police drama and indeed British television in general was more complex than accepted accounts allow She traces numerous lineages from inter war public service films live studio crime reconstructions and story documentaries such as 1942's Target for Tonight through to the mix of public service and entertainment values embodied by the BBC Television Light Entertainment's Dixon of Dock Green Showing how the genre mapped new social and regional geographies from Dixon's metropolitan policeman to the gritty northern realism of Jacks and Knaves and Z Cars with its irascible Barlow the author follows the increasing commercialization of television in the sixties investigating how the BBC set about restoring the values of southern England in the 1966 Z Cars spin off Softly Softly with its more palatable protagonist The book also offers insights not only into the relationship between early British television and its cinematic forebears but also early radio Earth Angel Realms Doreen Virtue, 2014 Revised edition of the author's Earth angels

A. Hailey, 2024-09-28 DEATHLESSNESS the magnet for evil No one is as impetuous and as spontaneously inventive as Esmeralda when it comes to looking after her human family in times of crisis So just as she broke barriers and laws to intervene in the human world when her sister was being murdered her recklessness again comes to the surface when her human birth mother is hit by a car What she does is so extraordinary that it actually leads to the discovery of how the boundary between virtual and physical worlds can be erased That knowledge in itself is not dangerous at all if contained within the virtual world of Screenside Sadly some humans get to know and it is soon revealed that the virtual world holds the key to human immortality That starts off a very clever game plan to cheat the virtuals using their desperation to end human pain The virtual side begins immersing itself into the remarkably easy and rewarding job of helping and curing humans suffering from motor and mental issues while scarcely bothering with precautions being confident that the physical world cannot misuse the virtual one But there are many seekers of The Holy Grail ETERNAL LIFE and they will always be wealthy powerful and evil and able to arrange things that otherwise seem impossible Double Feature Creature Attack Tom Weaver,2003-02-19 This whopping big McFarland Classic brings together 43 interviews with horror and science fiction movie writers producers directors and the men and women who saved the planet from aliens behemoths robots zombies and other sinister stumbling threats in the movies at least The interviewees reminisce about some of their great and not so great films and tell their stories This classic volume represents the union of two previous volumes 1994 s Attack of the Monster Movie Makers anecdotes are frank and revealing Video Watchdog and 1995 s They Fought in the Creature Features a fun book for all SF film enthusiasts Interzone Together at last this combined collection of interviews offers a candid and delightful perspective on the movies that still make audiences howl and squeal though fear has long been replaced with sweet nostalgia The Wizard of Lies Diana B.
