Author James E. Perone spotlights how Etheridge's songs defy traditional gender roles and stereotypes and appeal to general audiences with their universal themes yet serve those in the lesbian community because of the specific applicability of her words to the members of this minority group. The book supplies expert critical and easy-to-understand analysis of all of the songs of Melissa Etheridge's studio albums from the 1980s through to her autobiographical and reflective album 4th Street Feeling released in 2012. The Genealogical Magazine

Book-prices Current, 1899 Super Searchers Go to School Joyce Kasman Valenza, 2005 Using an expert interview approach to K-12 research, this book shares ideas from professional researchers on the improvement of teacher awareness of critical information skills and the importance of information fluency. How educators and librarians can intrude respectfully when research becomes a largely self-serving pursuit, what the developmental issues are in teaching searching and what a best practice looks like are discussed. Other topics covered include motivating learners to care about improving their searching skills, selecting high-quality resources and how to engage an entire community including classroom teachers, administrators and parents. English Topography Frank Alexander Milne, 1902 Trickster Makes This World Lewis Hyde, 2010-08-17 In Trickster Makes This World Lewis Hyde brings to life the playful and disruptive side of human imagination as it is embodied in trickster mythology. He first visits the old stories: Hermes in Greece, Eshu in West Africa, Krishna in India, Coyote in North America, among others, and then holds them up against the lives and work of more recent creators: Picasso, Duchamp, Ginsberg, John Cage and Frederick Douglass. Twelve years after its first publication, Trickster Makes This World authoritative in its scholarship, loose-limbed in its style, has taken its place among the great works of modern cultural criticism. This new edition includes an introduction by Michael Chabon. Gentleman's Magazine

Library: Worcestershire. Yorkshire, 1902 The Amazing Adventures of Bob Brown Craig Saper, 2016-05-12

Contemporary publishing, e-media and writing owe much to an unsung hero who worked in the trenches of the culture industry for pulp magazines, Hollywood films and advertising and caroused and collaborated with the avant-garde throughout the first half of the twentieth century. Robert Carlton Brown, 1886-1959, turned up in the midst of virtually every significant American literary, artistic, political and popular or countercultural movement of his time, from Chicago's Cliff Dwellers' Club to Greenwich Village's bohemians and the Imagist poets, from the American vanguard expatriate groups in Europe to the Beats. Bob Brown churned out pulp fiction and populist cookbooks, created the first movie tie-ins and invented a surreal reading machine more than seventy five years ahead of e books He was a real life Zelig of modern culture With The Amazing Adventures of Bob Brown Craig Saper disentangles for the first time the many lives and careers of the intriguing figure behind so much of twentieth century culture Saper s lively and engaging yet erudite and subtly experimental style offers a bold new approach to biography that perfectly complements his multidimensional subject Readers are brought along on a spirited journey with Bob and the Brown clan Cora his mother Rose his wife and Bob a creative team who sometimes went by the name of CoRoBo through globetrotting fortune making and fortune spending culture creating and culture exploring adventures Along the way readers meet many of the most important cultural figures and movements of the era and are witness to the astonishingly prescient vision Brown held of the future of American cultural life in the digital age Although Brown traveled and lived all around the world he took Manhattan with him and his New York City had boroughs around the world

Judie Newman,2007-12-04 The Internet has had a huge impact on channels of communication and information reaching across time and space to connect the world through globalisation In this Internet led world story links to story windows open on new stories and no overall authority establishes priority This sense of globalisation has raised many questions for contemporary American Novelists primarily the usefulness or redundancy of narrative and its potentially adaptive function What are the right stories for such a broadband world How do contemporary American novelists respond to issues such as the influence of the multinational corporation and its predecessors human rights Imperialism the literary work as a marketable commodity translation as betrayal data overload and the implosion of the virtual into the biosphere Is globalisation inevitable or is it a fiction which fiction turns into reality Fictions of America explores these questions and looks at the ways in which India China and Africa can be said to have underwritten American culture how literature has been marketed globally and how novelists have answered back to power with resistant fictions Judie Newman examines a wide range of fiction from the mid nineteenth to the twenty first century including the transnational adoption narrative short story historical novel slave narrative international bestseller and Western to illustrate her argument Looking closely at authors such as Bharati Mukherjee John Updike Emily Prager Hannah Crafts Zora Neale Hurston David Bradley Peter Heg and Cormac McCarthy Fictions of America provides a bold response to the crucial questions raised by globalisation

The Legal Realism of Jerome N. Frank Julius Paul, 2012-12-06 Between the Levite at the gate and the judicial systems of our day is a long journey in courthouse government but its basic structure remains the same law judge and process Of the three process is the most unstable procedure and facts Of the two facts are the most intractable While most of the law in books may seem to center about abstract theories doctrines principles and rules the truth is that most of it is designed in some way to escape the painful examination of the facts which bring parties in a particular case to court Frequently the emphasis is on the rule of law as it is with respect to the negotiable instrument which forbids inquiry behind its face sometimes the emphasis is on men as in the case of the wide discretion given a judge or administrator sometimes on the process as in pleading to a refined issue summary judgment pre trial conference or jury trial designed to impose the dirty work of fact finding on laymen The minds of the men of law never cease to labor at improving process in the hope that some less painful more trustworthy and if possible automatic method can be found to lay open or force litigants to disclose what lies inside their quarrel so that law can be administered with dispatch and decisiveness in the hope that truth and justice will be served
