Art Theory for a Global Pluralistic Age Steven Félix-Jäger,2019-12-02 This book extends a theory of art that addresses the present era s shift towards global pluralism By focusing on extrinsic rather than intrinsic qualities of art this book helps viewers evaluate art across cultural boundaries Art can be universally classified by an evaluation of its guiding narrative and can be understood and judged through hermeneutical methods Since artists engage culture through various local transnational and emerging global narratives it is difficult to decipher what standards are used for evaluation and which authoritative body evaluates the work. This book implements a narrative hermeneutical approach to properly classify an artwork and establish its meaning and value.

Art in Consumer Culture Grace McQuilten, 2017-07-05 Written with beautiful clarity Art in Consumer Culture Mis Design asks the contemporary art world to be honest about the pervasive effects of commodification and the difficulty of staging critique. The book examines the collusion of art and design in contemporary artistic practices in order to find avenues of critique in a commercially driven cultural landscape. Grace McQuilten focuses on the work of Takashi Murakami Andrea Zittel Adam Kalkin and Vito Acconci four contemporary artists who claim to be working in the field of design rather than the traditional art world. McQuilten argues that Zittel Acconci and Kalkin engage with design only to reactivate the critical practice of art in a more direct engagement with capital and conceives of and affirms a future for art outside of the art world as a parasite in the complex beast of late capitalism. This book is an important and timely provocation to a cynical and apathetic consumer culture and a call to arms for creative freedom and critical thought.
