Tucker,2007-01-31 Most of the bright and talented actresses who made America laugh in the 1950s are off the air today but their pioneering Hollywood careers irrevocably changed the face of television comedy These smart and sassy women successfully negotiated the hazards of the male dominated workplace with class and humor and the work they did in the 1950s is inventive still by today s standards Unable to fall back on strong language shock value or racial and sexual epithets the female sitcom stars of the 1950s entertained with pure talent and screen savvy As they did so they helped to lay the foundation for the development of television comedy This book pays tribute to 10 prominent television actresses who played lead roles in popular comedy shows of the 1950s Each chapter covers the works and personalities of one actress Lucille Ball I Love Lucy Gracie Allen The George Burns and Gracie Allen Show Eve Arden Our Miss Brooks Spring Byington December Bride Joan Davis I Married Joan Anne Jeffreys Topper Donna Reed The Donna Reed Show Ann Sothorn Private Secretary and The Ann Sothorn Show Gale Storm My Little Margie and The Gale Storm Show Oh Susanna and Betty White Life with Elizabeth For each star a career sketch is provided concentrating primarily on her television work but also noting achievements in other areas Appendices offer cast and crew lists a chronology and an additional biographical sketch of 10 less familiar actresses who deserve recognition Film TV Daily Yearbook of Motion Pictures and Television ,1920 TV Guide: TV on DVD 2006 TV Guide,2005-10 From the foremost authority on TV viewing comes a complete guide to television shows on DVD Literacy Playshop Karen E. Wohlwend, 2015-04-25 Building on her award winning research featured in Playing Their Way into Literacies which emphasizes that play is an early literacy Wohlwend has developed a curricular framework for children ages 3 to 8 The Literacy Playshop curriculum engages children in creating their own multimedia productions positioning them as media makers rather than passive recipients of media messages The goal is to teach young children to critically interpret the daily messages they receive in popular entertainment that increasingly blur toys stories and advertising The first half of this practical resource features case studies that show how six early childhood teachers working together in teacher study groups developed and implemented play based literacy learning and media production The second half of the book provides a Literacy Playshop framework with professional development and classroom activities discussion questions and technology try it sections This user friendly book will inspire and support teachers in designing their own Literacy Playshops TV (The Book) Alan Sepinwall, Matt Zoller Seitz, 2024-09-24 Is The Wire better than Breaking Bad Is Cheers better than Seinfeld What's the best high school show ever made Why did Moonlighting really fall apart Was the Arrested Development Netflix season brilliant or terrible For twenty years since they shared a TV column at Tony Soprano's hometown newspaper critics Alan Sepinwall and Matt Zoller Seitz have been debating these questions and many more but it all ultimately boils down to this What's the greatest TV show ever That debate reaches an epic conclusion in TV THE BOOK Sepinwall and Seitz have identified and ranked the 100 greatest scripted shows in American TV history Using a complex obsessively all encompassing scoring system they've created a Pantheon of top TV shows each accompanied by essays delving into what made these shows great From vintage classics like The Twilight Zone and I Love Lucy to modern masterpieces like Mad Men and Friday Night Lights from huge hits like All in the Family and ER to short lived favorites like Firefly and Freaky and Geeks TV THE BOOK will bring the triumphs of the small screen together in one amazing compendium Sepinwall and Seitz's argument has ended Now it's time for yours to begin Radio & TV News, 1921 Some issues Aug 1943 Apr 1954 are called Radio electronic engineering ed called in 1943 Radionics ed which include a separately paged section Radio electronic engineering varies v 1 no 2 v 22 no 7 issued separately Aug 1954 May 1955 TV Shows and Nonplace Alexander Gutzmer, 2023-08-30 This book scrutinizes the relationship between contemporary TV shows and space focusing on the ways in which these shows use and narrate specific spatial structures namely spaces far away from traditional metropolises Beginning with the observation that many shows are set in specific spatial settings referred to in the book as nonplace territories e.g. North Jersey New Mexico or rural and suburban Western Germany the author argues that the link between such nonplace territories and shows such as The Sopranos Breaking Bad or Dark is so intense because the narrative structure functions similarly to these territories flat decentralized without any sense of structure or stable hierarchy The book takes three different perspectives first it looks at the rationale for combining TV shows and nonplace territories from the viewpoint of narrative strategy It then thinks through what these strategies mean for practicing architects Finally it approaches the arguments made before from a user perspective what does this narrative mirroring of social spatial reality in places such as Albuquerque or Jersey City mean for people living in these places This new approach to architecture and space on screen will interest scholars and students of television studies screen architecture media and architectural theory and popular culture Wastewater Collection System Maintenance Michael J. Parcher,1997-10-23 FROM THE PREFACE Wastewater collection systems are dynamic not static There is no single maintenance method equipment or technique that works best Keeping an open mind trying new techniques and technologies benefits sewer system operators No two collection systems are alike Maintenance staffing skill levels equipment budgets age and complexity of the system make each agency unique However collection systems do have many traits and problems in common Based on inventory and analysis problems are identified Defects may then be prioritized and corrective maintenance operations put into effect Preventive maintenance techniques can be applied to all collection systems Preventive maintenance is cost effective it strives to prevent problems from occurring rather than reacting to difficult situations and putting out fires This book examines problems shared by all agencies roots grease deterioration hydraulic inefficiencies and structural defects New solutions to age old problems are applied TV inspection and video interpretation rehabilitation analysis and trenchless technologies Computerized maintenance management and GIS softwares are discussed Jetting line cleaning and exciting developments in nozzle technology are included Roots and chemical root control foam wastewater control and grease are major topics as well Wastewater Collection System Maintenance shares insights drawn from operator experience trial and error successes and failures in the field interviews and years of research and studies A user friendly rating and evaluation system is explained and applied to field conditions Equipment operation and maintenance and tricks of the trade are also discussed As cities grow new systems are extended upstream from older sewers Many of these core drainage basins are now under capacity and in need of capital improvement projects There are approximately 600 000 miles of sanitary sewers in the country Nationwide there exists a huge backlog of sewer pipes that need rehabilitation Replacement would cost many billions of dollars Maintenance operators are entrusted with the care and feeding of an aging sewer infrastructure
