Midnight Moods Morning Metaphors:

Midnight Moods, Morning Metaphors Louis Alexander Hemans, 2001-01-01 Voices in the Twilight Louis Alexander Hemans, 2016-09-12 Author Louis Alexander Hemans writes not only as a linguist poet and philosopher but also as a man socialized in the Jamaican subset of the African diaspora His work reflects a confluence of a variety of forces Black consciousness Spanish references Jamaican dialect folkways flora fauna and the universal expression of love and sexuality In Voices in the Twilight Hemans's second collection of work he presents poems literary letters and short stories His verses explore a variety of topics including politics philosophy of life ancestral history death and the afterlife the slave trade and reparation the Jamaican peasantry education nature and romantic love both requited and unrequited Also included are three literary letters with one addressed to Hemans's uncle David who immigrated to Cuba and never returned to his native Jamaica The collection's short stories are mostly set in the Anchoy area of Jamaica near Montego Bay This literary collection featuring poetry letters and short fiction considers a wide range of topics from politics to romance to philosophy The Future of Capitalism and Democracy Peter Baofu, 2002-12-17 Contrary to the thinking of many contemporaries both capitalism and democracy will not last and are to be superseded one day by post capitalism and post democracy The short lived triumph of market capitalism and liberal democracy in the post Cold War era does not imply the coming end of systematic ideology of structural oppression or of violent conflict at the rational endpoint of history Unfortunately violence does not disappear but only takes a different form of hegemony as it has throughout history The difference is each age has its own form to adjust to so we believe in ours and those before us believed in theirs just as those after us will in theirs In The Future of Capitalism and Democracy Peter Baofu evaluates how and why capitalism and democracy have failed at the institutional organizational structural cultural systemic cosmological and bio psychological levels in order to synthesize the often conflicting ideals of freedom equality and fraternity broadly defined to include all dimensions of life so much cherished by many minds since the modern era And this is so even if democracy and capitalism have different meanings in different cultures and societies In the end Baofu shows that capitalism and democracy hegemonic as they are in the post Cold War era are just experiments in history and will not last just as feudalism and aristocracy before them could not Good Morning Midnight Chip Brown, 2004 This is the story of one man's attempt to find refuge from his demons in nature and his ultimate surrender to it Good Morning Midnight is an existential adventure story thrillingly reported brilliantly composed provocative and incisive Midnight Burning Karissa Laurel, 2015-07-07 Solina Mundy lives a quiet life running the family bakery in her small North Carolina hometown But one night she suffers a vivid nightmare in which a wolfish beast is devouring her twin brother who lives in Alaska The next morning police notify her that Mani is dead Driven to learn the truth Solina heads for the Land of the Midnight Sun Once there she begins to suspect Mani's friends know more about his death than they've let on Skylar an ex Marine is the only one willing to help her As Solina and Skylar delve into the mystery surrounding Mani's death

Solina is stunned to learn that her own life is tied to Mani's friends, his death and the fate of the entire world. If she can't learn to control her newfound gifts and keep her friends safe, a long lost dominion over mortals will rise again and everything she knows will fall into darkness.

Fundamentals of Play Directing Alexander Dean, Lawrence Carra, 2009-08-21 This landmark work has influenced generations of stage directors and is considered the most influential treatment of the art of directing. Both theoretical and practical, Fundamentals of Play Directing offers content and information on the major technical and visual issues of stage directing that beginning directors will find invaluable. Following introductory chapters, readers are introduced to the basics: play analysis, basic technique for the actor and the director, media. These chapters form an essential preparation for an in-depth examination of the five fundamentals of play directing that make up the core of the text: composition, picturization, movement, rhythm, and pantomimic dramatization.

Music at Midnight John Drury, 2020-03-04 This powerfully absorbing biography of 17th century Welsh poet George Herbert brings essential personal and social context to his immortal poetry. Financial Times: Though he never published any of his English poems during his lifetime, George Herbert has been celebrated for centuries as one of the greatest religious poets in the language. In this richly perceptive biography, author and theologian John Drury integrates Herbert's poems fully into his life, enriching our understanding of both the poet's mind and his work. As Drury writes in his preface, Herbert lived a quiet life with a crisis in the middle of it. Beginning with his early academic success, Drury chronicles the life of a man who abandons the path to a career at court and chooses to devote himself to the restoration of a church in Huntingdonshire and lives out his life as a country parson. Because Herbert's work was only published posthumously, it has always been difficult to know when or in what context he wrote his poems. But Drury skillfully places readings of the poems into his narrative, allowing us to appreciate not only Herbert's frame of mind while writing but also the society that produced it. He reveals the occasions of sorrow, happiness, regret, and hope that Herbert captured in his poetry and that led T. S. Eliot to write, "What we can confidently believe is that every poem is true to the poet's experience." It is hard to imagine a better book for anyone, general reader or seventeenth-century aficionado or teacher or student newly embarking on Herbert.

Motion Picture and Video Lighting Blain Brown, 2023-12-20 This fully revised and updated fourth edition of Motion Picture and Video Lighting explores the technical, aesthetic, and practical aspects of lighting for film and video. It covers not only how to light but also why. The process of lighting is emphasized, as well as practical techniques and visual storytelling with light. Written by experienced filmmaker, film school teacher, and author Blain Brown, this book emphasizes how the image, the mood, and the visual impact of a film are to a great extent determined by the skill and sensitivity of the director of photography in using lighting. It provides an indispensable, highly illustrated, and comprehensive guide to making every scene look its best. This new edition has been expanded to provide further guidance at the introductory level for students, those just starting their careers, and people already working in the business who want to move up. Topics include: Lighting Sources, LEDs, The Lighting Process, Lighting
