More Tales from Mauritius Ramesh Dutt Ramdoyal, 2009 More Stories From The Arabian Nights Vernon Castaway and Other Tales from Mauritius Ramesh Ramdoyal, 2016-04-21 In this book Ramesh Ramdoyal the author of the locally best selling trilogy Tales From Mauritius More Tales From Mauritius and Further Tales From Mauritius once again delights us with nine original stories each more captivating than the other This time the author does not restrict himself to the island of Mauritius He goes further afield In Castaway the action takes place in the remote island archipelago of Saint Brandon with its unique flora and fauna This is the place where a fugitive is hiding not only from justice but also from the demons that have followed him in his solitary confinement In Fishy Stories he makes us discover the underwater wonderland around the island and shares with us a dramatic spear fishing experience and a quaint story about a fisherman his wife and an octopus Monarch of the Forest is a beautiful story of a hunter who loves hunting and hates killing Just as the author's fishy stories usher you into the exciting world of a Mauritian fisherman Monarch of the Forest ushers you into the heart of the Mauritian forest land and makes you share the thrills and heartaches of a passionate hunter In Letter to My Beloved we follow a youth to Oxford in a world that is both fascinating and alienating where he discovers with a shock that love can have many different forms The Struggle Is Never Over is the authentic story of one of the greatest freedom fighters of Mauritius against which the evolution of the island can be understood The Minister And The Artist is the hilarious story of a well meaning politician who has to reckon with the inefficiency of his own staff to salvage his political career Jonah is the real story of a sensitive teenager who comes into his own after he is sent down from a 5 star college In Dancing in the Rain we share the tribulations of an ageing couple in a fast paced environment outside their comfort zone whilst A New Beginning follows a group of survivors to a mysterious planet that holds out the promise of a better world The stories are interesting in their own right but when taken together they reveal the soul of an island which is unique and fascinating Ramesh Ramdoyal confirms once again his standing as one of the best story tellers of Mauritius Jatak Tales ,2002

South Indian Folk Tales Rupa Gupta,1999 THE STORY OF THE FISHERMAN plus 4 more tales from the Arabian Nights Anon E. Mouse,2016-12-22 ISSN 2397 9607 Issue 231 In this 231st issue of the Baba Indaba s Children s Stories series Baba Indaba narrates the Arabian Nights tale of The Story of the Fisherman Plus four more Tales from the Arabian Nights Also included in this bumper edition are the story of king yoon n and the sage doob n the story of the husband and the parrot the story of the envious wezeer and the prince and the ghooleh and lastly the story of the young king of the black islands In The Story of the Fisherman Baba tells how a poor fisherman unexpectedly hauls in the carcass of an ass in his nets Even though his catch was worthless he gave praise to God for his ability to work and catch fish He brought the carcass ashore and laid it out to dry thinking the skin may be of value and returned to his fishing On the second cast of his nets he found them to be even heavier than the first Still he dragged them ashore On examining the nets he found in it only a large jar full of sand and mud On seeing this his heart was troubled as he wondered what he and his family were to eat that night He put the jar aside and a third time cast the net and waited till it had sunk and was motionless he then drew it out and found in it a quantity of broken jars and pots Upon seeing this he raised his head towards heaven and said O God Thou knowest that I cast not my net more than four times and I have now cast it three times Then exclaiming In the name of God he cast the net again into the sea and waited till it was still when he attempted to draw it up but could not for it clung to the bottom He worked away at the nets and found in it a bottle of brass filled with something and having its mouth closed with a stopper of lead bearing the impression of the seal of our lord Suleym n At the sight of this the fisherman was rejoiced and said This I will sell in the copper market for it is worth ten pieces of gold He then shook it and found it to be heavy and said I must open it and see what is in it and store it in my bag and then I will sell the bottle in the coppermarket So he took out a knife and picked at the lead until he extracted it from the bottle He then laid the bottle on the ground and shook it that its contents might pour out but there came forth from it nothing but smoke which ascended towards the sky and spread over the face of the earth at which he wondered excessively After a little while the smoke collected together and was condensed and then became agitated and was converted into an Efreet a Genie whose head was in the clouds while his feet rested upon the ground his head was like a dome his hands were like winnowing forks and his legs like masts his mouth resembled a cavern his teeth were like stones his nostrils like trumpets and his eyes like lamps And so begins the story of the fisherman and the genie which takes many twists and turns along the way with altogether surprising results And just what are they you ask And what of the other stories you ask Well you ll just have to download and read the full story to find out what they re about and how they relate to The Story of the Fisherman 33% of the profit from the sale of this book will be donated to charities INCLUDES LINKS TO DOWNLOAD 8 FREE STORIES Each issue also has a WHERE IN THE WORLD LOOK IT UP section where young readers are challenged to look up a place on a map somewhere in the world The place town or city is relevant to the story HINT use Google maps Baba Indaba is a fictitious Zulu storyteller who narrates children's stories from around the world Baba Indaba translates as Father of Stories South Asian Goddesses and the Natural Environment Marika Vicziany, Jayant Bhalchandra Bapat, 2024-02-08 This multidisciplinary collection presents 11 essays ranging from the pre Vedic to the modern era and incorporating research on Hindu Buddhist and tribal cultures Authors ask whether the worship of goddesses strongly linked to fertility rituals might have mitigated the ecological decline of South Asia in the pre British and post colonial eras Creolization as Cultural Creativity Robert Baron, Ana C. Cara, 2011-10-11 Global in scope and multidisciplinary in approach Creolization as Cultural Creativity explores the expressive forms and performances that come into being when cultures encounter one another Creolization is presented as a powerful marker of identity in the postcolonial creole societies of Latin America the Caribbean and the southwest Indian Ocean region as well as a universal process that can occur anywhere cultures come into contact An extraordinary number of cultures from Haiti Martinique Guadeloupe the southern United States Trinidad and Tobago Madagascar Mauritius Seychelles R union Puerto Rico Argentina Suriname Jamaica and Sierra Leone are discussed in these essays Drawing from the disciplines of folklore anthropology ethnomusicology literary studies history and material culture studies essayists address theoretical dimensions of creolization and present in depth field studies Topics include adaptations of the Gombe drum over the course of its migration from Jamaica to West Africa uses of ritual piracy involved in the appropriation of Catholic symbols by Puerto Rican brujos the subversion of official culture and authority through playful and combative use of creole talk in Argentine literature and verbal arts the mislabeling and trivialization toy blindness of objects appropriated by African Americans in the American South the strategic use of creole techniques among storytellers within the islands of the Indian Ocean and the creolized character of New Orleans and its music In the introductory essay the editors address both local and universal dimensions of creolization and argue for the centrality of its expressive manifestations for creolization scholarship Girmitiva Culture and Memory Priyanka Chaudhary, Neha Singh, 2024-09-06 This book explores the multifaceted dimensions of the Girmitya diaspora and post memory The intersections of dis re location and memory have always been a focus of scholarly interest and the volume envisages the roots of migration and culture life stories narratives and personal anecdotes It further accentuates Girmitiya struggles politics of displacement relationships with the homeland and host land oral traditions repercussions and retention of the archival sites The cross examination of memories helps in building a framework to study the varied experiences of the Girmitiya community In this volume through a blend of historical and scholarly discourse we embark on a journey to unearth the layers of meaning embedded within the Girmitya experience The tales of Girmitya migration amplifies marginalized voices and illuminates the enduring resilience By chronicling the experiences of the indentured migration we pay homage to the pioneers recognize the intricacy of their toils and commemorate the continuing legacy Ten More Tales of the Great Lakes Skip Gillham, 1989 Folktales and Fairy Tales Anne E. Duggan Ph.D., Donald Haase Ph.D., Helen J. Callow, 2016-02-12 Encyclopedic in its coverage this one of a kind reference is ideal for students scholars and others who need reliable up to date information on folk and fairy tales past and present Folktales and fairy tales have long played an important role in cultures around the world They pass customs and lore from generation to generation provide insights into the peoples who created them and offer inspiration to creative artists working in media that now include television film manga photography and computer games This second expanded edition of an award winning reference will help students and teachers as well as storytellers writers and creative artists delve into this enchanting world and keep pace with its past and its many new facets Alphabetically organized and global in scope the work is the only multivolume reference in English to offer encyclopedic coverage of this subject matter The four volume collection covers national cultural regional and linguistic traditions from around the world as well as motifs themes characters and tale types Writers and illustrators are included as are filmmakers and composers and of course the tales themselves The expert entries within volumes 1 through 3 are based on the latest research and developments while the contents of volume 4 comprises tales and texts While most books either present readers with tales from certain countries or cultures or with thematic entries this encyclopedia stands alone in that it does both making it a truly unique one stop resource The Encyclopedia of the Indian Diaspora Brij V. Lal, Peter Reeves, 2006 The Encyclopedia of the Indian Diaspora is the first comprehensive survey of Indian communities around the world Over 30 contextual features show the initiatives taken by these communities and the contributions they have made both internationally and to their host societies in areas as diverse as literature cuisine popular culture sports and political life The greater part of the book consists of 44 country region profiles covering all parts of the world Written by over 60 scholars from across the globe most of whom are from the diaspora the encyclopedia provides insights into the experiences of a people about whom much is often assumed but little is actually known The recent expansion of the Indian diaspora now some 20 million strong and growing is a social transformation of global significance Many members of the diaspora have reached the highest levels of global commerce and trade international public service and diplomacy the professionals and academia In addition the creative literature from and about the diaspora holds a distinctive and distinguished place in the world's literary Indian Ocean Folktales Lee Haring, 2002 Catalog of the Library of the National Museum of African imagination Art Branch of the Smithsonian Institution Libraries Smithsonian Institution.
