More Than Enough April Halprin Wayland,2022-02-22 A family s Passover celebration is equal parts warmth and charm in this cozy picture book with the traditional seder song Dayenu as the grateful refrain In this story told in spare lyrical prose a Jewish family prepares for their Passover seder visiting the farmer s market for walnuts lilacs and honey and adopting a kitten along the way then chopping apples for the charoset and getting dressed up before walking to Nana's house. The refrain throughout is Dayenu, a mind-set of thankfulness, a reminder to be aware of the blessings in each moment. At Nana's, there's matzo ball soup, chicken, coconut macaroons, and of course the hidden afikomen. After opening the door for Elijah and singing the verses of Chad Gadya, Nana tucks the children in for a special Passover sleepover. This warm, affectionate story embraces Passover in the spirit of dayenu and offers a comprehensive glossary; it's a perfect read for the entire family in anticipation and celebration of the holiday.

More Than Enough Joel L. Meredith, 2001-01-18 THE DATE
January 26, 1955. It was my twentieth birthday. THE PLACE A train on its way from Salt Lake City, Utah, to Sacramento, California. I sat looking out a train window at the scenery speeding by. MY THOUGHTS A jumble of emotions. I was on my way overseas to Korea to serve a tour of duty with the United States Air Force. But first I would stop at McClellan Air Force Base AFB near Sacramento for overseas processing. I was bitter about my overseas assignment, but I was glad that the Korean armistice had finally been signed. At least nobody would be shooting at me, and I wouldn't have to kill someone else in the name of war. Just a couple of weeks earlier, my girl friend had rejected my proposal of marriage. I had asked and asked God to give that girl to me for my wife. God had said no, and I was mad at Him. MORE TRAVEL By train to Travis AFB, California, and an overnight stay by plane to Hickam AFB, Hawaii, for a short two-hour stopover, and by plane to Tokyo, Japan, for three days. THE STORY BEGINS The stopover in Tokyo, Japan, for three days was for special orientation, no pun intended. In that short time, I sampled Tokyo's night life, had sex with a Japanese girl in a back alley, and spent the night in a hotel room with a young Japanese prostitute. It wasn't my usual style, but then I was mad at God. I decided to hurt Him, the only way I knew how. SIN SIN SIN Soon I was in Korea, starting my twelve-month tour of duty. Being in Korea was not my idea of fun, but there were certain diversions to take my mind off my misery. I drank a bit, partied a bit, and enjoyed the services of several Korean prostitutes a lot. Finally, I got tired of partying and settled for shacking up with a Korean girl named Peggy. We rented a room in a village not far from the Air Force compound where I was stationed. This village hideaway gave me some respite from being on call 24 hours a day. In spite of all this, I continued my lifelong habit of praying every night before going to sleep. Then there came a time that my nightly prayers stopped. I couldn't continue to ask God to forgive me for fornication when I had no real intention of stopping, let alone marrying Peggy. Immersed in guilt, I started seriously considering suicide. My dislike for service life and the poor living conditions in Korea helped to deepen my depression. It seemed as though others also had similar wishes for me when one of my fellow airmen said to me in an angry tone, Meredith, if I were you, I'd kill myself. And then a few days later, Peggy, in reference to some situation, said, If I was in a fix like that, I'd kill myself. One morning, after spending the night in the village with Peggy, the two of us were walking in the rain along the bank of a small river which was swollen and quite swift due to the heavy seasonal rains. Normally, it would have been a simple matter to cross the river further upstream near the village where Peggy lived, but the water there was now about chest-deep. We were therefore walking downstream to a bridge that crossed the river At that point the highway to Seoul also crossed the river Peggy was going to catch a bus to Seoul and I was headed back to the Air Force compound As we rounded a bend in the river a commotion in the river caught our attention It was an elderly Korean farmer being swept downstream by the raging current He was on his back and unable to right himself because of a heavy wooden plow strapped to his back I quickly emptied my pockets kicked off my rubber Korean shoes and jumped into the water My Boy Scout training was about to pay off I quickly reached the old man pulled him loose from the plow and got him safely to shore Then I rescued his plow The old man was cut and bleeding from the pounding he had taken from being swept against the large boulders in the river but his wounds did not appear serious enough for emergency first aid

More Than Enough Martha Westwater SC,2017-11-14 What is it that makes most of us resist change In this book Martha Westwater takes her readers through the tumultuous times after Vatican II when centuries old assumptions about what constituted holiness were challenged The church's call for renewal invited women religious to discover again the roots of their call and the urgency of the needs of that time Martha shares how she and the sisters with whom she lives seek to move into the future with integrity and passion Perhaps in every life there is a single moment of insight that defines the soul's journey more than any other For Martha it occurred on October 9 1997 The twist of fate that allowed Martha to survive a horrific car crash while her two companions died gnawed at her as she wrestled with every survivor's question Why me Why did I live You will discover that the answer is something only the one who asks the question can articulate
