More Than Words Liza Kirwin,2005-10-27 Words speak volumes but as every letter writer knows there are times when they simply won't do. When the author happens to be a visual artist he has an added advantage one that transforms ordinary stationery into a canvas. This book chronicles those occasions when words were not enough and some of America's most revered artists turned their talents to illustrating their most intimate thoughts and feelings. Writing to wives, lovers, friends, patrons, clients, and confidants, premiere artists such as Frederick Edwin Church, Thomas Eakins, Winslow Homer, Andrew Wyeth, Rockwell Kent, Lyonel Feininger, John Sloan, Alfred Frueh, Man Ray, Alexander Calder, Dorothea Tanning, Gio Ponti, Andy Warhol, and Frida Kahlo picture the world around them in charming vignettes, caricatures, portraits, and landscapes. Together, the words and images of these autobiographical works of art created for private consumption reveal the joys and successes, loves and longings, triumphs and frustrations of their distinguished authors' personal lives and professional careers. The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture Judith H. Bonner, Estill Curtis Pennington, Charles Reagan Wilson, 2013-01-14 From the Potomac to the Gulf, artists were creating in the South even before it was recognized as a region. The South has contributed to America's cultural heritage with works as diverse as Benjamin Henry Latrobe's architectural plans for the nation's Capitol, the wares of the Newcomb Pottery, and Richard Clague's tonalist Louisiana bayou scenes. This comprehensive volume shows how, through the decades and centuries, the art of the South expanded from mimetic portraiture to sophisticated responses to national and international movements. The essays treat historic and current trends in the visual arts and architecture, major collections and institutions, and biographies of artists themselves. As leading experts on the region's artists and their work, editors Judith H. Bonner and Estill Curtis Pennington frame the volume's contributions with insightful overview essays on the visual arts and architecture in the American South. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on Dept. of the Interior and Related Agencies, 1982 A Southern Collection ,1993-02-01 A Southern Collection presents select masterworks from the permanent collection of the Morris Museum of Art on the occasion of the institution's inaugural exhibition. Drawn from a comprehensive survey collection of painting in the South from the late eighteenth century to the present day, the museum's opening exhibit explores an artistic terrain as rich and diverse as the South itself, arranged in categories that reflect critical chronological developments in the art world. A survey of painting activity in the South begins with the travels of itinerant portrait artists working prior to the Civil War At the same time landscape painting encompasses a sensitive response to the swamps bayous and fertile fields of the South Late in the nineteenth century strong and vivid genre painting competes with the nostalgic effects realized by Southern impressionists whose shimmering liquid images are invested with an elusive spirit of place In this century those strains of realism and naturalism that characterize the classic body of Southern writing appear in the representational art of painters who defied the modern abstract dictum And finally the exciting compelling works of a current generation of both self taught artists and sophisticated contemporary painters complete this fascinating though sometimes neglected chapter in American art history
