Gift of Language Alexander García Düttmann, 2000-01-01 This text focuses on the relevance of the proper name in the conceptions of language and history that inform the thought of Adorno Benjamin Heidegger and Rosenzweig Their interest in the proper name is because it does not simply operate as a conventional linguistic sign A specific experience of the Jewish religious tradition Adorno Benjamin Rosenzweig and a vision of poetry resulting from the reading of Hölderlin Heidegger

lead to the idea of an absolute singularity it is a singularity that resists all conceptual identification and the proper name expresses this singularity in language In this analysis history is conceived as a movement that both betrays and tends towards the absolute singularity that manifests itself in the unsayable i e in the name of God or in poetical language questions of gesture translation and melancholia and the moment of apparition in the work of art are comprehensible within Dr Duttmann's discussion which should be of interest to students of language philosophy and theology The Anatomy of Melancholy, what it Is, with All the Kinds, Causes, Symptoms, Prognostics, and Several Cures of It, in Three Partitions Robert Burton, 1847

Zionism and Melancholy Nitzan Lebovic, 2019-04-24 Lebovic reveals a great deal about the work of Zarchi and the melancholic mindset of an entire generation of contemporary Israelis Highly recommended Choice Nitzan Lebovic claims that political melancholy is the defining trait of a generation of Israelis born between the 1960s and 1990s This cohort came of age during wars occupation and intifada cultural conflict and the failure of the Oslo Accords The atmosphere of militarism and conservative state politics left little room for democratic opposition or dissent Lebovic and others depict the failure to respond not only as a result of institutional pressure but as the effect of a long lasting left wing melancholy In order to understand its grip on Israeli society Lebovic turns to the novels and short stories of Israel Zarchi For him Zarchi aptly describes the gap between the utopian hope present in Zionism since its early days and the melancholic reality of the present Through personal engagement with Zarchi Lebovic develops a philosophy of melancholy and shows how it pervades Israeli society

California and the Melancholic American Identity in Joan Didion's Novels Katarzyna Nowak McNeice,2018-12-07 California and the Melancholic American Identity in Joan Didion's Novels Exiled from Eden focuses on the concept of Californian identity in the fiction of Joan Didion This identity is understood as melancholic in the sense that the critics following the tradition of both Sigmund Freud and Walter Benjamin use the word The book traces the progress of the way Californian identity is portrayed in Joan Didion's novels starting with the first two in which California plays the central role Run River and Play It As It Lays through A Book of Common Prayer to Democracy and The Last Thing He Wanted where California functions only as a distant point of reference receding to the background of Didion's interests Curiously enough Didion presents Californian history as a history of white settlement disregarding whole chapters of the history of the region in which the Californios and Native Americans among other groups played a crucial role it is this reticence that the monograph sees as the main problem of Didion's fiction and presents it as the silent center of gravity in Didion's oeuvre The monograph proposes to see the melancholy expressed by Didion's fiction organized into four losses of Nature History Ethics and Language around which the main analytical chapters are constructed What remains unrepresented and silenced comes back to haunt Didion's fiction and it results in a melancholic portrayal of California and its identity which is the central theme this monograph addresses The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license
