Everyday Sabbath Paul D. Patton, Robert H. Woods, 2021-08-04 The authors writing as scholars of communication and media demonstrate how God's great gifts of media and technology can rob us of everyday Sabbath and impede spiritual growth if not faithfully stewarded through a process described as mindful media attachment Mindful media attachment helps to promote the holy habits of sacred intentionality sacred interiority and sacred identity These three sacreds which arise from a proper understanding of the grammar and language of media and technology ultimately allow us to avoid treating media and technology as ends in and of themselves and to avoid divided affections that drain energy purpose and kingdom service

Prophetically Incorrect Robert H. Jr. Woods, Paul D. Patton, 2010-08-01 The Bible includes prophetic speech and at times the church and its representatives are called to speak prophetically But in our media saturated age when many claim to speak for God how can we evaluate the avalanche of supposedly prophetic speech What does it mean to truly be prophetic And when Christians should speak prophetically how can they do so in a biblical and effective way Using vivid examples this book offers clear guidelines for creating critiquing and consuming popular media as well as practical suggestions for faithful communication It also helps readers think critically about communication technology The book includes a foreword by Quentin Schultze and a preface by Clifford Christians

Speaking the Truth in Love Daniel R. Berger, 2007-01-01 Approaching public communication from a liberal arts point of view Speaking the Truth in Love provides a distinctly Christian perspective of rhetoric Written and oral rhetoric are interwoven throughout the text Two foundational ideas control the majority of the text The first is from Plato's Phaedrus as stated by Paul in Ephesians 4:15 speaking the truth in love The second is from the Apostle Peter in 1 Peter 4:11 if anyone speaks he should do it as one speaking the very words of God The spiritual responsibility of communicating truth in accordance with the nature of God especially the virtue of love is an awesome privilege and opportunity Sound content spoken or written eloquently with charisma will enable words to have a maximum impact The text is designed to be a culminating learning experience for undergraduate communication programs or as an introductory text for graduate programs involving public communication Beginning with a philosophy of language meaning and interaction argument is built against secular deconstructive thought where everyone has a different truth based on language Alongside philosophy we explore ethics and theology from an evangelical perspective Following this a brief history outlines rhetorical thought from pre testament classics to today Based upon these ideas we take a closer look at communication theory as it relates to public communication Finally the text addresses the practice of both written and oral communication

Holy Murder Larry Powell, William R. Self, 2007 This volume examines one of the most controversial stories in the Bible the akedah or sacrifice of Isaac recounted in the 22nd chapter of Genesis Today more than three thousand years later the story continues to evoke controversy It has had an impact on Judaism Christianity and Islam each clinging to different interpretations Even among adherents of a common faith interpretations of the passage differ to such extremes that it can be used to justify unthinkable behavior ranging from infanticide mass murder and suicide bombings Abraham's actions have generated a sacrificial rhetoric that continues to exert a powerful influence on modern society The rhetoric of sacrifice was born when the first person used the story of akedah to inspire another to sacrifice willingly on their behalf Since then a multitude of religious leaders and religious imposters have used the rhetoric of sacrifice to do their bidding The akedah has proven itself as a tool that placed in the wrong hands can be used to commit unthinkable acts
