More Things Wise Wonderful:

James Herriot Michael Rossi,1997-01-28 This study examines James Herriot's five major books as carefully crafted volumes of autobiography based on the building block of the short story. In each of these works Herriot explores the fundamental choice of values underlying a happy and successful life. In his vision the bonds of affection and mutual dependence between all creatures human and animal form an enduring theme that lies at the heart of the choices he makes in his personal and professional life. This study will help the reader to understand the relationship between Herriot's stories and each book as a whole and to appreciate Herriot's work in the context of twentieth century anxieties about identity and meaning. Following a biographical chapter that describes the relationship between Herriot's life and literary work, Rossi discusses the genre of autobiography, the relationship between truth and fiction in modern autobiography, and Herriot's use of the genre. A separate chapter is then devoted to each of Herriot's works in turn: All Creatures Great and Small, All Things Bright and Beautiful, All Things Wise and Wonderful, The Lord God Made Them All, and Every Living Thing. The discussion of each work includes sections on plot development and narrative structure, character development, thematic issues, and alternative critical approaches that may be fruitfully applied to the book. Helpful appendices contain identifications of minor characters in the works, a complete bibliography of all of James Herriot's works, critical sources, and a listing of reviews of all of his works. Because of the popularity of Herriot's work among adults and young adults, this companion will be a key purchase for school and public libraries.

The King's Daughter Workbook

Diana Hagee,2005-04-17 This 13 week interactive study looks at issues many women face today and reminds them of their inherent value as daughters of the one true King. Mordecai's challenge to Esther, "Were you not born for such a time as this," is repeated for all women throughout the ages, says Diana Hagee. Every woman has a divine destiny. But women cannot fulfill that goal unless they understand His biblical guidelines. In this interactive workbook, Diana leads women through a self-examination of their lives and their goals from God's perspective, not the secular society's. Topics such as self-esteem, diligence, attitude, goal setting, and stewardship encourage women to establish a strong foundation for growth while learning to see themselves in a new light. Through scripture, thought-provoking questions and answers, prayers, practical advice, and devotional ideas, women learn how valuable they are to God and how they can have an intimate relationship with Him while evaluating the standards that make them a daughter of the King.

Conversations on Consciousness Susan Blackmore,2006-01-01 In Conversations on Consciousness, Susan Blackmore interviews some of the great minds of our time, a who's who of eminent thinkers, all of whom have devoted much of their lives to understanding the concept of consciousness. The interviewees, ranging from major philosophers to renowned scientists, talk candidly with Blackmore about some of the key philosophical issues confronting us in a series of conversations that are revealing, insightful, and stimulating. They ruminate on the nature of consciousness: is it something apart from the brain, and discuss if it is even possible to understand the human mind. Some of these thinkers say no but most believe that we will pierce the mystery surrounding consciousness and that neuroscience will provide the key Blackmore goes beyond the issue of consciousness to ask other intriguing questions Is there free will A question which yields many conflicted replies with most saying yes and no If not how does this effect the way you live your life and more broadly how has your work changed the way you live Paired with an introduction and extensive glossary that provide helpful background information these provocative conversations illuminate how some of the greatest minds tackle some of the most difficult questions about human nature Sermons on the most important doctrines of the gospel John Thornton,1815
