Team Development Games for Trainers Roderick R. Stuart, 2017-07-05 If you're involved in designing or delivering interpersonal skills training you will know that there are two perennial problems. The first is finding material that matches your objectives. The second is finding material that will be unfamiliar to the participants. The 59 games in Roderick Stuart's collection have not appeared in print before. Based on the author's experience with a wide range of organizations and participants they cover the entire gamut of skills associated with team development including assertiveness communication creativity decision making influencing listening planning problem solving and time management. Each game is presented in a standard format with an indication of objectives timing and group size detailed step by step guidance for the trainer or team leader and ready to copy masters for all participants material. An index of objectives makes it easy to select the most suitable items for your training needs and to compile complete workshops or more extensive programmes. In addition the author provides a four stage model that relates learning to the requirements of the workplace and a set of checklists for facilitating the learning process.
