McGlasson,2017-05-25 The present volume is the fourth in a five volume study of church doctrine The multivolume set covers the major parts of church doctrine Canon God Creation Reconciliation and Redemption The first volume begins with an introduction to the entire project on why doctrine matters which stresses the ecumenical global and above all biblical horizons of church doctrine as a primary expression of Christian witness The purpose of this fourth volume is to celebrate the gospel of Jesus Christ as the treasure of the church and the power of God for the reconciliation of the world The gospel bears witness to the life death and resurrection of Jesus Christ and calls for faith in him as the free gift of forgiveness and new life The gospel is constantly in motion tearing down every barrier of human bigotry and prejudice not only forming a new society but reforming the church itself Church doctrine is not a luxury but a necessity for the living community of faith by which its witness in word and deed is tested against the one true measure of Christ the risen Lord Early Journals and Letters of

Fanny Burney, Volume 4 Frances Burney, Betty Rizzo, 2003-05-21 Volume IV of The Early Journals and Letters of Fanny Burney covering the years 1780-1781 will be of particular interest to students of Burney as it marks the young author's introduction into the world following the astonishing success of her novel Evelina 1778 and includes her visits to Streatham and her encounters with Hester and Henry Thrale and Dr Johnson It was an exciting period in her life which she managed to enjoy despite struggling to repeat her first success while avoiding the often unwelcome attention it brought But it was also a difficult period in her family life as she dealt with jealous interference by her stepmother the courtship of her sister Susan by a man she considered untrustworthy and the misbehaviour of her brothers Burney's enthusiasm makes the most of her experiences and she describes characters and scenes with all the genius displayed in her novels Her descriptions contain the four great attributes that distinguish her novels brilliant handling of detail total and full recall of conversations characteristic of the speaker sensibility and empathy for others and great relish for the ridiculous wherever it occurred The Friend

, 1876 From the Material to the Mystical in Late Medieval Piety Racha Kirakosian, 2021-09-30 The German mystic Gertrude the Great of Helfta c 1256-1301 is a globally venerated saint who is still central to the Sacred Heart Devotion Her visions were first recorded in Latin and they inspired generations of readers in processes of creative rewriting The vernacular copies of these redactions challenge the long standing idea that translations do not bear the same literary or historical weight as the originals upon which they are based In this study Racha Kirakosian argues that manuscript transmission reveals how redactors serve as cultural agents Examining the late medieval vernacular copies of Gertrude's visions she demonstrates how redactors recast textual materials reflected changes in piety and generated new forms of devotional practices She also shows how these texts served as a bridge between material culture in the form of textiles and book illumination and mysticism Kirakosian's multi-faceted study is an important contribution to current debates on medieval manuscript culture authorship and translation as objects of study in their own right
