Morne Paysan Peasant Village In Martinique:

Morne-Paysan, Peasant Village in Martinique Michael M. Horowitz (culturele anthropologie), 1967 Morne-Paysan Morne-Paysan Ludwig Wittgenstein, 1967 Martha Brae's Two Histories Jean Michael M. Horowitz, 1967 Besson, 2002 Based on historical research and more than thirty years of anthropological fieldwork this wide ranging study underlines the importance of Caribbean cultures for anthropology which has generally marginalized Europe's oldest colonial Domestic Food Production and Food Security in the Caribbean C. Beckford, D. Campbell, 2015-12-11 With the exception of Haiti the sensationalized issues of hunger reported in certain parts of the developing world are largely unknown in the Caribbean Despite this there are growing concerns about the state of food security in the region as declining domestic production and increased dependence on imported food create vulnerability. This study examines some of the contemporary issues impacting food production and food and nutrition security in the CARICOM region of the Caribbean The authors focus on enhancing domestic food production as the most appropriate way to improve food security and discuss strategies for building capacity in local food production systems. The book is the product of over ten years of research by the authors It will be of interest to scholars and students of Caribbean geography cultural geography food and agricultural Anthropology, 1986 The Forest Farms of Kandy D.J. McConnell, K.A.E. geography and food security Dharmapala, S.R. Attanayake, 2017-03-02 Throughout the tropical world especially in South and Southeast Asia tropical America Africa and Oceania there exists a range of forest garden farming systems These are small low input but productive and sustainable family units of highly diversified trees palms bushes and vines with few conventional field crops or livestock Providing a survey of these systems around the world and an in depth analysis of the farms around Kandy Sri Lanka this book offers an economic and ecological description and evaluation of this ancient agroforestry system and its relationship to a wide range of global agro development and environmental problems Guided by a table that lists some 30 socio economic and social criteria by which all farming systems can and should be evaluated the book presents persuasive evidence supported by comprehensive references It also examines historical and archaeological findings in order to assess the role these tropical forests played in the general adoption of agricultural farming The Parish Behind God's Back Sharon Bohn Gmelch, George Gmelch, 2012-04-06 For this latest edition the authors returned to Barbados to update the changing face of life in St Lucy the parish behind Gods backthe islands most rural district After discussing Barbadoss colonial history as a plantation society based on slavery and the economys recent conversion from sugar to tourism they turn to everyday life in St Lucy patterns of work gender relations religion and the meaning of community The book concludes by examining the global forces and mediatelevision tourism travel and the Internetthat connect villagers to the outside and most directly affect their lives Written with students in mind this highly readable illustrated and thought provoking account is ideal for courses in cultural anthropology and Caribbean studies An appendix describes the changes North American students experienced as a result of participating in the anthropology field schools the authors ran in Barbados over a twenty year period Caribbean Land and Development Revisited J. Besson, J. Momsen, 2007-06-25 The book is an interdisciplinary collection of fifteen essays with an editorial introduction on a range of territories in the Commonwealth Francophone and Hispanic Caribbean The authors focus on land and development providing fresh perspectives through a collection of international contributing Introduction to the Pan-Caribbean Tracey Skelton, 2014-05-01 With its diverse histories of slavery plantations colonialism and independence the Caribbean is richly layered highly complex and a wonderful example of people s resistance The pan Caribbean region also provides an excellent geography through which to understand and analyse the complex processes of globalisation development migration tourism and social and cultural relations While the sea sun and sand representation is a true one some of the most beautiful places on earth are found in the Caribbean the pan Caribbean is much more intricate and fascinating than that Where else in the world do French Spanish Dutch and English speaking worlds co exist alongside indigenous peoples and cultures Where else have cultures of carnival music and dance become so integrated into national and regional identities The Caribbean is a crucible of diversity and semblance and a space that is both contradictory and harmonious Introduction to the Pan Caribbean has been written by people who are either from the region or have spent much of their working lives there It is an excellent introduction and is your map through one of the most extraordinary and remarkable parts of the world Historic Cities of the Americas David F. Marley, 2005-09-12 With rare maps prints and photographs this unique volume explores the dramatic history of the Americas through the birth and development of the hemisphere's great cities Written by award winning author David F Marley Historic Cities of the Americas covers the hard to find information of these cities earliest years including the unique aspects of each region s economy and demography such as the growth of local mining trade or industry. The chronological layout aided by the numerous maps and photographs reveals the exceptional changes relocations destruction and transformations these cities endured to become the metropolises they are today Historic Cities of the Americas provides over 70 extensively detailed entries covering the foundation and evolution of the most significant urban areas in the western hemisphere Critically researched this work offers a rare look into the times prior to Christopher Columbus arrival in 1492 and explores the common difficulties overcome by these European conquered or founded cities as they flourished into some of the most In Search of a National Identity: Creole and Politics in Guadeloupe Ellen M. influential locations in the world Schnepel,2025-05-15 Guadeloupe geh rt zu den franz sischen Altkolonien die nicht in die Unabh ngigkeit entlassen wurden sondern seit 1946 als D partements d outre mer ein Teil des Mutterlandes geworden sind Die Departementalisierung sollte nach der Vorstellung ihrer Verfechter darunter Aim C saire in eine sprachliche und kulturelle Assimilation an Frankreich einm nden Die Aufgabe der antillischen Identit t und der kreolischen Sprache fand jedoch keineswegs einhellige Zustimmung Nicht zuletzt bestimmt durch die ausbleibenden wirtschaftlichen und politischen Erfolge der Departementalisierung bildeten
