

A serene landscape photograph of a sunrise over a mountain range. The sun is a bright yellow orb on the horizon, casting long, soft rays across the sky and the silhouetted peaks of the mountains. The sky transitions from a deep blue at the top to a warm orange and red near the horizon. The mountains in the foreground are dark and layered, creating a sense of depth.

sexually abused by a neighbor and for 19 years she didn't divulge her experience because she feared that she would be blamed. In the first edition of Joy Comes in the Morning she shared her battle to regain her self-confidence and self-esteem by running into the arms of the One who can heal. God Through poems she expresses emotions such as confusion, pain, fear, betrayal, guilt, regret, approval, self-pity, mistrust, and forgiveness that she had to work through. In this revised edition of Joy Comes in the Morning, Hopolang recounts how she overcame not only the trauma of being sexually abused but also other challenges such as working through relationships and climbing Mount Kilimanjaro, something that she never imagined she could accomplish. As she narrates her experiences, her hope is that the lessons she learned will motivate and inspire her readers. No matter how difficult the circumstances are that we encounter in our lives, we can triumph and joy always comes in the morning. As she walked the paths of recovery from sexual abuse, Hopolang Phororo longed to read stories she could relate to of those who had suffered abuse and overcame it. Because such stories were not available, she decided to share her story to reach out and inspire other women with the message that there is hope. Her passion to see young women realize their fullest potential has led her to set up the Daughters of Destiny DoD Ministry, mentoring young women in countries where she has lived.

Listen... God Speaks Hope! : A Collection of Divine Thoughts and Prayers for Life's Journey Rev. Dr. Lorraine Ruff Castain, 2021-05-07 Have you ever had a time when you needed to hear a word of encouragement from a loved one or a friend? Perhaps there have been times when just a few words from someone of trust would give you that extra push you needed to forge ahead in spite of your circumstances. Family and friends may sincerely love us, but there is no love like the love of God. People will not always be available, but the presence of God is never ending. He will speak to your spirit at the most unexpected times. Many of these messages spoke comfort to my heart more than twenty-five years ago when I was enduring great struggles and trudging through challenging times. There are other messages that gave me divine direction during more current situations. During the seasons when I took on caring for elderly family members, God spoke strength to my weariness. When finances were challenged, God spoke peace to my soul. In times of fear and when doubts plagued my own God-given abilities, God spoke courage to my heart. When I felt lost, confused, disappointed, at an energy deficit or just desperately needed to smile, God provided the words of assurance and hope that helped me to press onward. The power, grace, and love of God spoken in His words of hope are timeless. I am so grateful for His patience with me because I am finally heeding the call to share these messages with you. It is my prayer that you will also find hope, healing, and great grace in these words from God. Let Him speak to you. Pass a message on to someone longing to be blessed. Allow God to encourage you. Let Him put a smile on your face. Trust Him to guide you. I promise you He will carry you through every situation. Listen, God has Messages of Hope.
