Works Nathaniel Hawthorne,1883 Five Forks Robert Alexander,2003-04-30 The Battle of Five Forks was one of the the last battles of the American Civil War A week later Lee surrendered Two weeks later Lincoln was dead In this meditation on that battle Alexander juxtaposes the story of the battle which he tells through narrative letters and journal entries with his own impressions viewing the South through Northern eyes In addition he views contemporary American society through the story of the Civil War and specifically through the story of Five Forks If it is true that we meet our past coming to us out of the future then Alexander posits America is still grappling with issues unresolved by the Civil War Those issues are not just the obvious ones of race and class or of North vs South but also the more ephemeral issues surrounding the mythos Americans live by Alexander is not a historian and this is much more a literary work than a battle story However the immediacy with which Alexander tells his tale leads the reader to experience Five Forks the land the smells the cries as if present there in 1865 Thus he does not just describe a battle he captures the spirit of all battles all wars A Christmas Kiss Elizabeth Mansfield,2016-10-04 During the holiday season a governess loses her heart to an earl with no intention of
