Morning Yet on Creation Day : Essays C. Achebe, 1975

Things Fall Apart Chinua Achebe, 1996 Achebe's masterpiece tells the story of Okonkwo strongman of an Ibo village in Nigeria as he witnesses the destruction of his culture and the loss of his own place within it Copyright Libri GmbH All rights reserved

The English Book and Its Marginalia ￼￼￼￼, 2000 This book is about books that recount the story of encountering another book There are various versions of the story told and retold from the heyday of imperialism up to the present day Homi Bhabha calls it the trope of the discovery of the English book by considering each of these versions carefully we may also give an alternative account of twentieth century English literature as the site of an intercultural discourse This project is very much inspired by debate on postcolonial theory namely the debate between Said and Bhabha Part I is devoted to the discussion of Conrad especially of Heart of Darkness and investigates how the novella has continually been reproduced to the extent that it represents the English Book of colonial postcolonial literatures The chapter on Hugh Clifford Ch 3 is virtually the first intensive critique of his novels such as Saleh 1908 with a particular focus on their intertextual relations with Conrad's texts Part II examines how the story of the English Book is repeated and revised in the texts of the following authors Joyce Cary Isak Dinesen V S Naipaul Kaiko Takeshi and Ng g wa Thiong o Decolonising the Mind Ngũgĩ wa Thiong'o, 1986 Ngugi wrote his first novels and plays in English but was determined even before his detention without trial in 1978 to move to writing in Gikuyu

The Oxford History of the Novel in English Simon

Gikandi, 2016-09-05 Why did the novel take such a long time to emerge in the colonial world And what cultural work did it come to perform in societies where subjects were not free and modes of social organization diverged from the European cultural centers where the novel gained its form and audience Answering these questions and more Volume 11 The Novel in Africa and the Caribbean since 1950 explores the institutions of cultural production that exerted influence in late colonialism from missionary schools and metropolitan publishers to universities and small presses How these structures provoke and respond to the literary trends and social peculiarities of Africa and the Caribbean impacts not only the writing and reading of novels in those regions but also has a transformative effect on the novel as a global phenomenon Together the volume's 32 contributing experts tell a story about the close relationship between the novel and the project of decolonization and explore the multiple ways in which novels enable readers to imagine communities beyond their own and thus made this form of literature a compelling catalyst for cultural transformation The authors show that even as the novel grows in Africa and the Caribbean as a mark of the elites mastery of European form it becomes the essential instrument for critiquing colonialism and for articulating the new horizons of cultural nationalism Within this historical context the volume examines works by authors such as Chinua Achebe Nadine Gordimer George Lamming Jamaica Kincaid V S Naipaul Zoe Wicomb J M Coetzee and many others

'My Mother was the Earth, My Father was the Sky' Nadia Majid, 2010 This study brings together three closely related aspects of Maori literature myth memory and identity It examines selected novels by Witi Ihimaera and Patricia Grace in order to trace an ever developing Maori identity that has changed considerably over three decades of the Maori novel This book demonstrates that an investigation of the construction of identity in literature benefits from a close look at the importance of Maori mythology as well as associated cultural and individual memories Indicating that Maori fiction has become what Homi Bhabha terms a third space this book verifies the links between novel myth and memory with the help of existing research in these areas in order to assess their importance for the reinterpretation of identity The Maori novels that depict situations reflecting current issues are viewed as an experimental playground in which authors can explore a variety of solutions to tribal societal and political issues This study establishes the early novels as reinterpretations of the past and guides to the future and characterises the more recent novels as representing a move towards empowerment and pioneering that has not yet come to a conclusion

Emerging Perspectives on Chinua Achebe Ernest Emenyonu, Iniobong I. Uko, 2004 Chinua Achebe's influence on contemporary African literature is as much in evidence in his art of the novel as his theory of African literature and literary criticism ISINKA Igbo term for artistic purpose establishes Achebe's legacy as a literary theorist and critic In these essays scholars from around the globe assess and establish how much Achebe's extra-fictional ideas about African literature and literature in general are justified in his own creative works

CHINUA ACHEBE Rose Ure Mezu, 2006-06-15 Achebe The Man and His Works uses the critical essay format to assess Chinua Achebe as a person a writer and the inaugurator of the literary tradition of cultural nationalism It progressively and thematically analyses his novels and works comparing them with those of African literary and cultural groundbreakers in the Diaspora including the pioneering works of Olaudah Equiano and Zora Neale Hurston The book is a unique and fresh addition to the body of writings on Africa's most respected novelist widely acclaimed as the father of modern African literature and generally believed to be one of the 100 most important writers of the 20th and 21st centuries A must read

Communicating in the Third Space Karin Ika, Gerhard Wagner, 2008-10-05 Communicating in the Third Space aims to clarify Homi K Bhabha's theory of the third space of enunciation by reconstructing its philosophical sociological geographical and political meaning with attention to the special advantages and ambiguities that arise as it is applied in practical as well as theoretical contexts The idea of third space conceives the encounter of two distinct and unequal social groups as taking place in a special third space of enunciation where culture is disseminated and displaced from the interacting groups making way for the invention of a hybrid identity whereby these two groups conceive themselves to partake in a common identity relating to shared space and common dialogue The essays collected in Communicating in the Third Space including a preface by Bhabha himself brilliantly introduce readers to this exciting topic in Cultural and Post Colonial theory and offers insightful elaboration and critique of the meaning and relevance of life in the third space With a preface by Homi K Bhabha

Ogude,2015-12-01 Chinua Achebe's novels and essays have always drawn our attention to issues of memory the story history and our own obligation to history as Africans Achebe constantly goes back to the authority of narrative the story and as the subsequent generations of African writers like Chimamanda Adichie keep returning to to celebrate Africa's many stories its moments of failure and triumph Achebe more than any other writer on this continent has inspired many and hopefully the African story tellers of the coming centuries irrespective of their location will continue to be inspired by him This collection of essays is an enduring tribute to this rich legacy of Achebe The Language, Ethnicity and Race Reader Roxy Harris, Ben Rampton, 2003 This Reader collects in one volume the key readings on language ethnicity and race Using linguistic and cultural analysis it explores changing ideas of race and the ways in which these ideas shape human communication Cycle of Doom: Selected Essays in Discourse and Society Dubem Okafor, 2005-09-01 These essays are essays indeed in the etymological sense of the word in that they try out my ideas on different topics and different texts As they are developed they build up to a climactic crescendo of futility which may be explained in part not by the darkening vision of a wizened and aging man but by the gathering storms which have tended to becloud the nation state of Nigeria The milieu from which my essays emerge has not been conducive to any optimistic or celebratory readings of texts and contexts Beginning at the End Robert Stilling, 2018-06-11 Robert Stilling shows how aestheticism's decadence became a key idea in postcolonial thought describing the failures of revolutionary nationalism and asserting cosmopolitanism in poetry and art Breaking down the boundaries around decadent literature he takes it outside Europe and emphasizes the global reach of its imaginative transgressions Africa Writes Back James Currey, 2022-10-31 June 17 2008 is the fiftieth anniversary of the publication of Chinua Achebe's Things Fall Apart by Heinemann This publication provided the impetus for the foundation of the African Writers Series in 1962 with Chinua Achebe as the editorial adviser Africa Writes Back The African Writers Series and the Launch of African Literature captures the energy of literary publishing in a new and undefined field Portraits of the leading characters and the many consultants and readers providing reports and advice to new and established writers make Africa Writes Back a stand out book James Currey's voice and insights are an added bonus CONTENTS Publishing and selling the African Writers Series The African Writers Series Portfolio George Hallett's covers Main dates for the African Writers Series INTRODUCTION The establishment of African Literature Publishing Chinua Achebe 1 WRITERS FROM WEST AFRICA Nigeria The country where so much started Negritude from Senegal to Cameroun Magic realism from Ghana The Gambia Sierra Leone 2 WRITERS FROM EASTERN AFRICA Towards the oral the popular in Kenya Uganda Tanzania Publishing Ngugi 3 WRITERS FROM THE HORN NORTH EASTERN AFRICA Emperors in Ethiopia Publishing Nuruddin Farah Arab authors in Egypt Sudan 4 WRITERS FROM SOUTH AFRICA Resistance in South Africa Publishing Alex la Guma Publishing Dennis Brutus Publishing Bessie Head Publishing Masizi Kunene 5 WRITERS FROM SOUTHERN AFRICAN Guns Guerrillas in Mozambique Angola Zambia Shall be Free Death detention in Malawi The struggle to become Zimbabwe Publishing
