Moroccan Mirages Agrarian Dreams And Deceptions 1912 1986:

Moroccan Mirages Will Davis Swearingen, 2014-07-14 Morocco's future is threatened politically and economically by a growing agricultural crisis. Will Swearingen locates the roots of this crisis in French dreams for the jewel of their colonial empire. He demonstrates that with disastrous results contemporary Moroccan leaders are fulfilling a colonial vision implementing policies and plans drafted during the protectorate period. Originally published in 1987, The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print-on-demand technology to again make available previously out-of-print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press. These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions. The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905. Moroccan Mirages Will D. The Middle East Ellen Lust, 2019-08-06 Written by a group of well-known experts and researchers who have diligently worked and updated the book since its first edition to include the most important features of State Polity and Governance in Middle East and North Africa. This book is equally useful for instructors and students. Jalil Roshandel, East Carolina University. In the more succinct Fifteenth Edition of The Middle East, editor Ellen Lust brings important new coverage to this comprehensive, balanced, and superbly researched text. In clear prose, Lust and her contributors explain the many complex changes taking place across the region. All country profile chapters now address domestic and regional conflict more explicitly, and all tables, figures, boxes, and maps have been fully updated with the most recent data and information. This best-selling text not only helps readers comprehend more fully the world around them but it also enables readers to recognize and formulate policies that can more successfully engage the Middle East. Give your students the SAGE edge. SAGE edge offers a robust online environment featuring an impressive array of free tools and resources for review, study, and further exploration, keeping both instructors and students on the cutting edge of teaching and learning. Seasonal Workers in Mediterranean Agriculture Jörg Gertel, Sarah Ruth Sippel, 2014-04-03 Over the last three decades, there has been a rapid expansion of intensive production of fresh fruit and vegetables in the Mediterranean regions of south and west Europe. Much of this depends on migrating workers for seasonal labour, including from Eastern Europe, North Africa, and Latin America. This book is the first to address global agro-migration complexes across the region. It is argued that both intensive agricultural production and related working conditions are highly dynamic. Regional patterns have developed from small-scale family farming to become an industrialized part of the global agri-food system, which increasingly depends on seasonal labour. Simultaneously, consumer demand for year-round supply has caused relocations of the industry within Europe; areas of intensive greenhouse production have moved further south and even into North Africa. The authors investigate this Mediterranean agri-food system that transcends borders and is largely constituted by invisible seasonal work. By revealing the story of food commodities loaded with implications of private profit seeking exploitation exclusion and multiple insecurities the book unmasks the hidden costs of fresh food provisioning Three case study areas are considered in detail the French region of Provence a traditional centre of fresh fruit and vegetable cultivation the Spanish Almer a region where intensive production has accelerated dramatically since the 1970s and Morocco where counter seasonal production has recently been expanding The book also includes commentaries that refer to complementary insights on US Mexico Philippines Canada and South Pacific mobilities

Morocco Since 1830 C.R. Pennell,2000 Although the country has returned to roughly its pre colonial boundaries Morocco still suffers from the effects of colonization by France and Spain Its current king like the sultans of the nineteenth century claims legitimacy through his leadership of the Islamic community but there is a long tradition of dissent based on Islamic ideals Morocco s history is also marked by the enduring presence of a large Jewish community

Affluence and Poverty in the Middle East M. Riad El-Ghony,2002-09-11 Affluence and Poverty in the Middle East is an introduction to the political economy of the Middle East focusing on its most salient features persistent poverty and extreme inequality El Ghony analyses the factors influencing the region including its unique historical religious and cultural mix as well as its economic foundations and forms of corruption For each factor he employs case studies drawn from throughout the region from Turkey to Sudan and Morocco to Iran In the final section El Ghony discusses possible solutions to the challenges facing the region including possible uses of a peace dividend and the role of democracy

Drought Follows the Plow Michael H. Glantz,1994-09 People around the globe are becoming increasingly aware that our use of the land has an effect on the environment in which we live Global warming is seen as a major threat to the well being of the world s communities Fear abounds but does anyone really know what is going on Will human activity make things worse In this 1994 book the author examines the relationship between society and climate change With contributions from colleagues in the worst hit areas of the world the author shows how some patterns of land use can make the problems worse increasing the risk of droughts and associated food shortages This book will help scientists and researchers assess our impact on the planet and consider our ability to respond to the consequences of future environmental change

A Century of Foreign Investment in the Third World Michael Twomey,2002-01-04 The late twentieth century has witnessed a dramatic upsurge in foreign direct investment in the Third World Based upon thorough statistical analysis the book presents exhaustive case studies of foreign investment policy in metropolitan countries and of the experiences of host countries throughout Africa Asia and Latin America With a wide geographical and historical focus it also makes an important contribution to current debates on dependency theory

first book to examine the actual impact of physical and social engineering projects in more than fifty countries from a multidisciplinary perspective The book brings together an international team of nearly two hundred authors from over two dozen different countries and more than a dozen different social environmental and engineering sciences Together they document and illustrate with case studies maps and photographs the scale and impacts of many megaprojects and the importance of studying these projects in historical contemporary and postmodern perspectives This pioneering book will stimulate interest in examining a variety of both social and physical engineering projects at local regional and global scales and from disciplinary and trans disciplinary perspectives After the Fact Clifford Geertz,2009-06-30 An unabashedly honest ethnography from a founder of symbolic anthropology reflections on his fieldwork over a period of forty years Brilliant Kirkus Reviews In looking back on four decades of anthropology in the field Geertz has created a work that is a personal history as well as a retrospective reflection on developments in the human sciences amid political social and cultural changes in the world An elegant summation of one of the most remarkable careers in anthropology it is at the same time an eloquent statement of the purposes and possibilities of anthropology s interpretive powers Through the prism of his fieldwork over forty years in two towns Pare in Indonesia and Sefrou in Morocco Geertz adopts various perspectives on anthropological research and analysis during the post colonial period the Cold War and the emergence of the new states of Asia and Africa Throughout he clarifies his own position on a broad series of issues at once empirical methodological theoretical and personal The result is a truly original book one that displays a particular way of practicing the human sciences and thus a particular and particularly efficacious view of what these sciences are have been and should become Geertz charts the transformation of cultural anthropology from a study of primitive people to a multidisciplinary investigation of a particular culture s symbolic systems its interactions with the larger forces of history and modernization Publishers Weekly An elegant almost meditative volume of reflections The New Yorker An engrossing story of a few key moments in American social science during the second half of the twentieth century as Geertz participated in them New York Times Book Review

Markets of Civilization Muriam Haleh Davis,2022-08-08 In Markets of Civilization Muriam Haleh Davis provides a history of racial capitalism showing how Islam became a racial category that shaped economic development in colonial and postcolonial Algeria French officials in Paris and Algiers introduced what Davis terms a racial regime of religion that subjected Algerian Muslims to discriminatory political and economic structures These experts believed that introducing a market economy would modernize society and discourage anticolonial nationalism Planners politicians and economists implemented reforms that both sought to transform Algerians into modern economic subjects and drew on racial assumptions despite the formally color blind policies of the French state Following independence convictions about the inherent link between religious beliefs and economic behavior continued to influence development policies Algerian president Ahmed Ben Bella embraced a specifically Algerian socialism founded on Islamic principles while French technocrats saw Algeria as a testing ground for development projects elsewhere in the Global South Highlighting the entanglements of race and religion Davis demonstrates that economic orthodoxies helped fashion understandings of national identity on both sides of the Mediterranean during decolonization

The Theatres of Morocco, Algeria and Tunisia Khalid Amine, Marvin Carlson, 2011-11-01 Modern international studies of world theatre and drama have begun to acknowledge the Arab world only after the contributions of Asia Africa and Latin America Within the Arab world the contributions of Algeria Tunisia and Morocco to modern drama and to post colonial expression remain especially neglected a problem that this book addresses

Integrated Groundwater Management Anthony J Jakeman, Olivier Barreteau, Randall J Hunt, Jean-Daniel Rinaudo, Andrew Ross, 2016-08-05 The aim of this book is to document for the first time the dimensions and requirements of effective integrated groundwater management IGM Groundwater management is a formidable challenge one that remains one of humanity s foremost priorities It has become a largely non renewable resource that is overexploited in many parts of the world In the 21st century the issue moves from how to simply obtain the water we need to how we manage it sustainably for future generations future economies and future ecosystems The focus then becomes one of understanding the drivers and current state of the groundwater resource and restoring equilibrium to at risk aquifers Many interrelated dimensions however come to bear when trying to manage groundwater effectively An integrated approach to groundwater necessarily involves many factors beyond the aquifer itself such as surface water water use water quality and ecohydrology Moreover the science by itself can only define the fundamental bounds of what is possible effective IGM must also engage the wider community of stakeholders to develop and support policy and other socioeconomic tools needed to realize effective IGM In order to demonstrate IGM this book covers theory and principles embracing 1 an overview of the dimensions and requirements of groundwater management from an international perspective 2 the scale of groundwater issues internationally and its links with other sectors principally energy and climate change 3 groundwater governance with regard to principles instruments and institutions available for IGM 4 biophysical constraints and the capacity and role of hydroecological and hydrogeological science including water quality concerns and 5 necessary tools including models data infrastructures decision support systems and the management of uncertainty Examples of effective and failed IGM are given

Throughout the importance of the socioeconomic context that connects all effective IGM is emphasized Taken as a whole this work relates the many facets of effective IGM from the catchment to global perspective Resurrecting the Granary of Rome Diana K. Davis,2007-09-11 Publisher description Polity And Society In Contemporary North Africa I. William Zartman,William Mark Habeeb,I William Zartman,2019-06-04 In the twenty five years since the last comprehensive book on state and society in North Africa was published the nations of the Maghrib have undergone profound social political and economic changes The region has for example experienced one of the highest population growth rates in the world accompanied by a dramatic increase in migration t Water in the Macro Economy Hynd Bouhia,2018-04-27 This title was first published in 2001 Providing a new methodology to analyze the fundamental interrelationship between the sustainable management of a country s water resources and the formulation of effective strategies for socio economic development this book captures the complex nature of water and its effect on a macro economy Retirement Migration to the Global South Cornelia Schweppe,2022-03-16 This book examines the increasing evidence of international retirement migration IRM to countries of the Global South IRM to countries of the Global South points to the increasing global interconnectedness of aging in relatively affluent countries and raises critical questions about its interrelations with global inequalities This book provides a critical analysis of these global interrelations and their intertwinements with global inequalities and addresses the complex and multi layered dimensions and implications of this development It highlights the ambiguous everyday lives of retirement migrants in the countries of destination and the severe impacts on the destination countries that are marked by processes of recolonization and the reproduction enhancement and reconfiguration of social inequalities The growing retirement industry that capitalizes on retirement migration exploiting global differences and structural disadvantages of countries in the Global South is another integral part of this book
