Being Mortal Atul Gawande, 2014 In Being Mortal Gawande examines his experiences as a surgeon as he confronts the realities of ageing and dying in his patients and in his family as well as the limits of what he can do And he emerges with story that crosses the globe and history exploring questions that range from the curious to the profound What happens to people's teeth as they get old Did human beings really commit senicide the sacrifice of the elderly Why do the aged so dread nursing homes and hospitals How should someone give another person the dreadful news that they will die This is a story told only as Atul Gawande can penetrating people's lives and also the systems that have evolved to govern our mortality Those systems he observes routinely fail to serve or even acknowledge people's needs and priorities beyond mere survival And the consequences are devastating lives families and even whole economies But as he reveals it doesn't have to be this way Atul Gawande has delivered an engrossing tale of science history and remarkable characters in the vein of Oliver Sacks
