R. Willison,1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries Death Sentences Garrett Stewart,1984 This is a book about terminals and boundaries mortality and closure the infinitesimals of style and the finite limits of representational language about least and last things together It is a book to start with about three vast and familiar facts of life and art death content and form Only by their particular triangulation in the genre of prose fiction do they mark out the hypothesis of the present study that death in fiction is the fullest instance of form indexing content is indeed the moment when content comprising the imponderable of negation and vacancy can be found dissolving to pure form Death in narrative yields by yielding to sheer style University of California Union Catalog of Monographs Cataloged by the Nine Campuses from 1963 Through 1967: Authors & titles University of California (System). Institute of Library Research,University of California, Berkeley,1972 The American Novel of War Wallis R. Sanborn, III,2012-10-16 In song verse narrative and dramatic form war literature has existed for nearly all of recorded history Accounts of war continue to occupy American bestseller lists and the stacks of American libraries This innovative work establishes the American novel of war as its own sub genre within American war literature creating standards by which such works can be classified and critically and popularly analyzed Each chapter identifies a defining characteristic analyzes existing criticism and explores the characteristic in American war novels of record Topics include violence war rhetoric the death of noncombatants and terrain as an enemy Studies in the Short Fiction of Mahfouz and Idris Mona Mikhail, 1992-05 In this comparative approach to the works of two major contemporary Egyptian writers Mona Mikhail identifies existentialism as a major force in their work Her close examination of the images and metaphors that recur in the short fiction of those two writers shows strong affinities with the works of Ernest Hemingway and Albert Camus concentrating on a central preoccupation with the theme of death as a constant in the works of all four writers Mikhail shows how Mahfouz and Idris not only successfully incorporate myth and folklore but also draw upon the rich heritage of classical Arabic Literature as a source for their work
