Reproduction of the original The City of God by Aurelius Augustine The City of God Aurelius Augustinus (santo),2012
Along with his Confessions The City of God is undoubtedly St Augustine s most influential work
In the context of what begins as a lengthy critique of classic Roman religion and a defense of Christianity Augustine touches upon numerous topics including the role of grace the original state of humanity the possibility of waging a just war the ideal form of government and the nature of heaven and hell
But his major concern is the difference between the City of God and the City of Man one built on love of God the other on love of self One cannot but be moved and impressed by the author s breadth of interest and penetrating intelligence

The City of God, Books VIII-XVI Saint Augustine,2008-09 This volume continues the translation of St Augustine s monumental work The City of God a product of his vast erudition
Three books in particular viz 8 9 and 10 reveal Augustine s grasp of the tenets of the Platonists Peripatetics and Cynics
The greater part of this continuation however is concerned with Augustine s treatment of theological and scriptural topics
There is no strictly logical sequence however and numerous digressions intervene
In the course of books 11 and 16 he finds occasion to discuss among many other topics the creation of angels and their nature demons and evils the age of the earth and of the human race death and dying and the purpose of marriage
From the discussion of such topics he passes easily to comments on the Hebrew and Greek texts of the Bible the accuracy of the Septuagint and Latin translations the discrepancies among various texts
As a product of his times Augustine shares the opinion that Hebrew may be the oldest and perhaps most common language before the Tower of Babel incident recorded in Scripture
Most of Augustine s treatment of scriptural passages is concerned with
