The Ballad of the Sad Cafe - Carson McCullers Harold Bloom, 2009 A collection of critical essays on McCullers fictional work The ballad of the sad cafe Carson McCullers in the Twenty-First Century Alison

Graham-Bertolini, Casey Kayser, 2016-10-26 The contributors to this volume use diverse critical techniques to identify how Carson McCullers writing engages with and critiques modern social structures and how her work resonates with a twenty first century audience The collection includes chapters about McCullers fiction autobiographical writing and dramatic works and is groundbreaking because it includes the first detailed scholarly examination of new archival material donated to Columbus State University after the 2013 death of Dr Mary Mercer McCullers psychiatrist and friend including transcripts of the psychiatric sessions that took place between McCullers and Mercer in 1958 Further the collection covers the scope of McCullers canon of work such as The Heart Is a Lonely Hunter 1940 The Member of the Wedding 1946 and Ballad of the Sad Caf 1943 through lenses that are of growing interest in contemporary literary studies including comparative transatlantic readings queer theory disability studies and critical animal theory among others Sacred Groves and Ravaged Gardens

Louise Westling, 2008 In Sacred Groves and Ravaged Gardens Louise Westling explores how the complex difficult roles of women in southern culture shaped the literary worlds of Eudora Welty Carson McCullers and Flannery O Connor Tracing the cultural heritage of the South Westling shows how southern women reacted to the violent false world created by their men a world in which women came to be shrouded as icons of purity in atonement for the sins of men Exposing the actual conditions of women s lives creating assertive protagonists who resist or revise conventional roles and exploring rich matriarchal traditions and connections to symbolic landscapes Welty McCullers and O Connor created a body of fiction that enriches and complements the patriarchal version of southern life presented in the works of William Faulkner John Crowe Ransom Allen Tate and William Styron Look Abroad, Angel Jedidiah Evans, 2020-02-01 Born in Asheville North Carolina

Thomas Wolfe 1900 1938 was one of the most influential southern writers widely considered to rival his contemporary William Faulkner who believed Wolfe to be one of the greatest talents of their generation His novels including Look Homeward Angel 1929 Of Time and the River 1935 and the posthumously published The Web and the Rock 1939 and You Can t Go Home Again 1940 remain touchstones of U S literature In Look Abroad Angel Jedidiah Evans uncovers the global Wolfe reconfiguring Wolfe s supposedly intractable homesickness for the American South as a form of longing that is instead indeterminate and expansive Instead of promoting and reinforcing a narrow and cloistered formulation of the writer as merely southern or Appalachian Evans places Wolfe in transnational contexts examining Wolfe s impact and influence throughout Europe In doing so he de territorializes the response to Wolfe s work revealing the writer as a fundamentally global presence within American literature Strange Bodies Sarah Gleeson-White, 2003-02-26 This study adapts Mikhail

Bakhtin s theory of the grotesque as well as gender and psychoanalytic theory to the major works of the southern writer Carson McCullers The author argues that McCullers work has too often suffered under the pall of narrow gothic interpretations American Playwrights Since 1945 Philip Kolin, 1989-01-23 This is a study of the state of research on and history of performances of 40 American playwrights including major mainstream ethnic and regional playwrights The essays list their published and unpublished plays as well as their other works document the performances identify bibliographies biographies critical studies and analyses of the plays and discuss the critical reception The volume deals with production histories covering critics actors directors and theater companies that have contributed as much to theater as the playwrights themselves It also discusses original screenplays and identifies writing on younger playwrights on whom research has just begun ISBN 0 313 25543 1 66 00 For use only in the library New York Court of Appeals.
