Mosaics In Istanbul:

Mosaics in Istanbul Fatih Cimok, 2001 A fully illustrated guide to the outstanding historical mosaics of Istanbul It features 123 color pictures showing 68 mural or floor mosaics from famous historical buildings and sites including the Great Palace Hagia Sophia and the Istanbul Archeological Museum along with descriptive text The Mosaics and Frescoes of St. Mary Pammakaristos (Fethiye Camii) at Istanbul Hans Belting, Cyril A. Mango, Doula Mouriki, 1978 Mosaics of Istanbul Fatih Cimok, 2010 Mosaics of Hagia Sophia, Istanbul Natalia Teteriatnikov, Dumbarton Oaks, 1998 Mosaics, Empresses and Other Things in Byzantium Liz James, 2024-08-01 This volume consists of 15 articles published between 1991 and 2018 It falls into three sections reflecting different areas of Liz James's interests The first section deals with light and colour and mosaics four articles considering light and colour in mosaics and the making of mosaics as well as the question of what it means to define mosaics as Byzantine are reprinted The second brings together four pieces on empresses their relationships with female personifications and the Mother of God their roles in founding and refounding buildings and their employment as ciphers by some authors Finally seven papers cover a range of topics what monumental images of saints in churches might have been for what the differences between relics and icons might have been how captions to images can be misleading why touch was an important sense how words can sometimes just be decorative rather than for reading why the materiality of objects makes a difference There is also a brief section of additional notes and comments which add to update and reflect on each piece now in 2024 Mosaics Empresses and Other Things in Byzantium will be of interest to scholars and students alike interested in material culture the depiction of regal women and the use of relics and icons in the Byzantine Empire Mosaics in the Medieval World Liz James, 2017-10-05 In this book Liz James offers a comprehensive history of wall mosaics produced in the European and Islamic middle ages Taking into account a wide range of issues including style and iconography technique and material and function and patronage she examines mosaics within their historical context She asks why the mosaic was such a popular medium and considers how mosaics work as historical documents that tell us about attitudes and beliefs in the medieval world The book is divided into two parts Part I explores the technical aspects of mosaics including glass production labour and materials and costs In Part II James provides a chronological history of mosaics charting the low and high points of mosaic art up until its abrupt end in the late middle ages Written in a clear and engaging style her book will serve as an essential resource for scholars and students of medieval mosaics Mosaics of the Greek and Roman World Katherine M. D. Dunbabin, 1999 This book provides a comprehensive account of mosaics in the ancient world from the early pebble mosaics of Greece to the pavements of Christian churches in the East Separate chapters in Part I cover the principal regions of the Roman Empire in turn in order to bring out the distinctive characteristics of their mosaic workshops Questions of technique and production of the role of mosaics in architecture and of their social functions and implications are treated in Part II The book discusses both well known works and recent finds and balances consideration of exceptional masterpieces against standard workshop production Two main lines of approach are followed throughout first the role of mosaics as a significant art form which over an unbroken span illuminates the evolution of pictorial style better than any comparable surviving medium and secondly their character as works of artisan production closely linked to their architectural context Materials for the Study of the Mosaics of St. Sophia at Istanbul Cyril A. Mango, 1962 The Cambridge Companion to Constantinople Sarah Bassett, 2022-03-17 The collected essays explore late antique and Byzantine Constantinople in matters sacred political cultural and commercial

Hagia Sophia and the Byzantine Aesthetic Experience Nadine Schibille, 2016-04-22 Paramount in the shaping of early Byzantine identity was the construction of the church of Hagia Sophia in Constantinople 532 537 CE This book examines the edifice from the perspective of aesthetics to define the concept of beauty and the meaning of art in early Byzantium Byzantine aesthetic thought is re evaluated against late antique Neoplatonism and the writings of Pseudo Dionysius that offer fundamental paradigms for the late antique attitude towards art and beauty These metaphysical concepts of aesthetics are ultimately grounded in experiences of sensation and perception and reflect the ways in which the world and reality were perceived and grasped signifying the cultural identity of early Byzantium There are different types of aesthetic data those present in the aesthetic object and those found in aesthetic responses to the object This study looks at the aesthetic data embodied in the sixth century architectural structure and interior decoration of Hagia Sophia as well as in literary responses ekphrasis to the building The purpose of the Byzantine ekphrasis was to convey by verbal means the same effects that the artefact itself would have caused A literary analysis of these rhetorical descriptions recaptures the Byzantine perception and expectations and at the same time reveals the cognitive processes triggered by the Great Church The central aesthetic feature that emerges from sixth century ekphraseis of Hagia Sophia is that of light Light is described as the decisive element in the experience of the sacred space and light is simultaneously associated with the notion of wisdom It is argued that the concepts of light and wisdom are interwoven programmatic elements that underlie the unique architecture and non figurative decoration of Hagia Sophia A similar concern for the phenomenon of light and its epistemological dimension is reflected in other contemporary monuments testifying to the pervasiveness of these aesthetic values in early Byzantium

The Conservation and Presentation of Mosaics: At What Cost? Jeanne Marie Teutonico, Leslie Friedman, Aïcha Ben Abed, Roberto Nardi, 2017-09-01 In recent years funding for the conservation of cultural heritage has become increasingly difficult to obtain and this trend shows no sign of changing significantly in the foreseeable future The twelfth triennial meeting of the International Committee for the Conservation of Mosaics held in Sardinia in October 2014 focused on the theme of cost broadly considered relating specifically to the preservation and presentation of the world s mosaic heritage This handsome abundantly illustrated volume provides a comprehensive record of the conference The volume s sixty seven papers and posters comprising contributions from more than one hundred leading experts in the field reflect the conference s principal themes cost methods of survey and documentation conservation and management education and training backing materials and techniques presentation and display and case studies Papers are presented either in English French or Italian there are abstracts in English and either French or Italian for all entries The volume will be of interest to conservators site managers and others responsible for conserving the mosaic heritage especially in these challenging times Weaving in

Crete Rebecca J. Sweetman,2013-05-31 This book examines the rich corpus of mosaics created in Crete during the Roman and Late Antique eras It provides essential information on the style iconography and chronology of the material as well as discussion of the craftspeople who created them and the technologies they used The contextualized mosaic evidence also reveals a new understanding of Roman and Late Antique Crete It helps shed light on the processes by which Crete became part of the Roman Empire its subsequent Christianization and the pivotal role the island played in the Mediterranean network of societies during these periods This book provides an original approach to the study of mosaics and an innovative method of presenting a diachronic view of provincial Cretan society Constantinople Ken Dark,Ferudun

Özgümüş,2013-11-29 Istanbul Europe s largest city became an urban centre of exceptional size when it was chosen by Constantine the Great as a new Roman capital city Named Constantinople after him the city has been studied through its rich textual sources and surviving buildings but its archaeology remains relatively little known compared to other great urban centres of the ancient and medieval worlds Constantinople Archaeology of a Byzantine Megapolis is a major archaeological assessment of a key period in the development of this historic city It uses material evidence contemporary developments in urban archaeology and archaeological theory to explore over a thousand years of the city s development Moving away from the scholarly emphasis on the monumental core or city defences the volume investigates the inter mural area between the fifth century land walls and the Constantinian city wall a zone which encompasses half of the walled area but which has received little archaeological attention Utilizing data from a variety of sources including the Istanbul Rescue Archaeology Project created to record material threatened with destruction the analysis proposes a new model of Byzantine Constantinople A range of themes are explored including the social economic and cognitive development Byzantine perceptions of the city the consequences of imperial ideology and the impact of self organization brought about by many minor decisions Constantinople casts new light on the transformation of an ancient Roman capital to an Orthodox Christian holy city and will be of great importance to archaeologists and historians Sultanahmet, Istanbul's Historic Peninsula Pinar Aykaç,2022-01-05 This book explores how the museum concept has expanded beyond the boundaries of a single building into the historic city itself through musealization Articulating the musealization of historic cities as a specific urban process the book here presents a study of the transformation of the Sultanahmet district on Istanbul s historic peninsula which has been the major focus of planning conservation and museological studies in Turkey since the 19th century as the public face of the city The author aims to offer empirically grounded and context specific insight into the role of museums in the regeneration of historic cities Musealization as an urban process varies in different geographical cultural and ideological contexts and across different time periods By discussing the Sultanahmet district as a specific context of yet another city subjected to the musealization process this book provides further insights into this important global phenomenon The Mosaics of St. Sophia at Istanbul Byzantine Institute of America,Thomas Whittemore,1933 The Directory of Museums & Living Displays Kenneth Hudson,Ann Nicholls,1985-06-18 The Mosaics of St. Sophia at Istanbul: The mosaics of the southern vestibule by Thomas Whittemore Byzantine Institute of America,Thomas Whittemore,1933
