Moscow Trefoil Анна Андреевна Ахматова, Осип Мандельштам, David Watt Ian Campbell, Rosemary Dobson, 1975 English Accents Christiana Payne, 2018-01-18 In the century following the foundation of the Royal Academy in 1768 British art had an international reputation prints spread knowledge of the work of British artists around the globe and it was widely seen as the product of a modern commercial society and much admired by artists as diverse as Goya in Spain Delacroix in France and Bierstadt in America In recent years scholars working on this period have become increasingly aware of the international context of their subject but there has been no systematic analysis of the reception of British art abroad This collection of essays looks at the uses made of the paintings of Reynolds Hogarth Lawrence and their contemporaries on the continent of Europe and in the colonies and ex colonies of Australia and America The authors go beyond the simple issue of influence to consider how ideas and artistic conventions originating in the British Isles were adapted appropriated or resisted in these new environments In the process some surprising views of British art emerge demonstrating how a multi faceted view from the outside can correct and enrich the narrative produced within a national school and revealing some of the important connections that are obscured when art is studied as it so often is within narrow Classics for the Masses Pauline Fairclough, 2016-05-28 Musicologist Pauline Fairclough explores national boundaries the evolving role of music in shaping the cultural identity of the Soviet Union in a revelatory work that counters certain hitherto accepted views of an unbending unchanging state policy of repression censorship and dissonance that existed in all areas of Soviet artistic endeavor Newly opened archives from the Leninist and Stalinist eras have shed new light on Soviet concert life demonstrating how the music of the past was used to help mold and deliver cultural policy how undesirable repertoire was weeded out during the 1920s and how Russian and non Russian composers such as Mozart Tchaikovsky Wagner Bach and Rachmaninov were canonized during different distinct periods in Stalinist culture Fairclough's fascinating study of the ever shifting Soviet musical political landscape identifies 1937 as the start of a cultural Cold War rather than occurring post World War Two as is often maintained while documenting the efforts of musicians and bureaucrats during this period to keep musical channels open between Russia and the West Poets of Modern Russia Peter France, 1982 A serious and detailed study of modern Russian poetry aimed at readers with little or no Russian Reflections on Stalinism J. Arch Getty, Lewis H. Siegelbaum, 2024-06-15 Reflections on Stalinism distills decades of historical thought and research bringing together twelve senior scholars of Soviet history who began their careers during the Cold War to examine their views of Stalinism They present insights into the role of personality in statecraft the social underpinnings of dictatorship and state terrorism historians attachments to their subjects historical causality the applicability of Marxist categories to Soviet history the relationship of Soviet history to post Soviet Russia and more Essays address the transformation of a peasant country into a superpower and the causes and scale of domestic bloodshed Reflections on Stalinism ultimately tackles an age old question

Waiting for the Muse: Poems of Anna Akhmatova Frances Laird, 2021-09-14 Waiting for the Muse Poems of Anna Akhmatova presents new translations of the work of this great Russian poet set in the context of her life Akhmatova saw the source of her creativity as the appearance to her of the Muse the embodiment of poetic inspiration In the poems written over her lifetime from the early love lyrics to poems of resistance during the Stalinist Terror to poems of remembrance as her life neared its end her conception of the Muse changed with the circumstances of her life The Muse first appeared as an unpredictable young woman then the classical figure of Erato then a woman who stood beside her in the prison lines then a cruel taskmaster Akhmatova herself became the Muse for other Russian poets Ultimately Akhmatova concluded that the Muse may have been the torment she had been forced to suffer Rosemary Dobson, 2000 This collection of essays pays tribute to acclaimed Australian poet Rosemary Dobson whose papers are held in the National Library of Australia The book features essays by Elizabeth Lawson Paul Hetherington and David McCooey A selection of Dobson's poems highlight her Creative Lives Penelope Hanley, 2009 Henry Lawson Miles Franklin Henry Handel Richardson diversity and artistry Kenneth Slessor Eleanor Dark Christina Stead Kylie Tennant Patrick White Thomas Keneally Mem Fox From Realism to the Silver Age Margaret Samu, 2014-06-01 This volume of thirteen essays presents rigorous new research by western and Russian scholars on Russian art of the nienteenth and early twentieth centuries Over More than three decades after the publication of Elizabeth Valkenier's pioneering monograph Russian Realist Art this impressive collection showcases the latest methodology and subjects of inquiry expanding the parameters of what has become an area of enormous intellectual and popular appeal Major artists including Ilia Repin Valentin Serov and Wassily Kandinsky are considered afresh as are the Peredvizhnik and Mir iskusstva movements and the Abramtsevo community The book also breaks new ground to embrace subjects such as Russian graphic satire and children's book illustration as well as stimulating aspects of patronage and display Collectively the essays include a range of approaches from close textual readings to institutional critique They also develop major themes inspired by Valkenier's work among them the emergence and evolution of cultural institutions the development of aesthetic discourse and artistic terminology debates between the Academy of Arts and its challengers art criticism and the Russian press and the resonance of various forms of nationalism within the art world These and other questions engage multiple disciplines those of art history Slavic Russian studies and cultural history among others and promise to fuel a vibrant and ascendant field Guide to the Collections National Library of Australia, 1910

Montaging Pushkin Alexandra Smith, 2006 Montaging Pushkin offers for the first time a coherent view of Pushkin s legacy to Russian twentieth century poetry giving many new insights Pushkin is shown to be a Russian forerunner of Baudelaire Furthermore it is argued that the rise of the Russian and European novel largely changed the ways Russian poets have looked at themselves and at poetic language that novelisation of poetry is detectable in the major works of poetry that engaged in a creative dialogue with Pushkin and that polyphonic lyric has been achieved Alexandra Smith locates significant examples of Pushkin's cinematographic cognition of reality suggesting that such dynamic descriptions of Petersburg helped create a highly original animated image of the city as comic apocalypse which followers of Pushkin appropriated very successfully even as far as the late twentieth century Montaging Pushkin will be of interest to all students of Russian poetry as well as specialists in literary theory European studies and the history of ideas Smith's thesis is both startling and original that Pushkin for all his Mozart like fluidity and perfection can be productively read as a poet of pain and violence His reflex was to respond to the totalizing authoritative public landscape of his era with an equally severe but specifically private individualizing disciplined set of demands on the Poet The recurring attention that later generations have paid toward those aspects of Pushkin's life and texts governed by the private right to resist or to initiate violence his duel his struggles with the bureaucracy his failed pursuit of service with honour suggest that this mythologeme is among the most productive in Pushkin s astonishing legacy CARYL EMERSON A Watson Armour III University Professor of Slavic Languages and Literatures Chair of the Slavic Department Professor of Comparative Literature at Princeton University Smith's innovative study offers a wonderful analysis of how cinematographic editing and polyphony are detected in Russian twentieth century poetry It views Pushkin as a reference obligee of contemporary urban poetry VERONIQUE LOSSKY Professor Emeritus of Russian Literature at the Universite de Paris Sorbonne IV International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa Publications, 2004-08-02 The 13th edition of the International Who s Who in Poetry is a unique and comprehensive guide to the leading lights and freshest
