English for academic purposes

: learning english through the web Barahona Fuentes, Claudia; Arnó Macià, Elisabet; 2001 This is a virtual elective course for university students who need to use English in their academic work This means that this subject is not related to a particular degree course engineering biology law etc but it aims to help students develop their language learning skills and at the same time to foster extensive practice in language use with the Internet as the basic learning tool Therefore this is an instrumental course which is essentially practical and emphasizes communication rather than language study It differs from a traditional language course in that it has been designed basically as a tool to help students learn to learn English That is to say the syllabus is not based on specific language content graded in terms of difficulty but it is composed of a series of practical activities to encourage students to learn English effectively and independently by choosing materials suited to their level of English and to their learning style For this reason this course can be taken by students with different levels of English as long as they are familiar with the basic structures of the language and can more or less communicate in English

Common Mistakes Made by Esl Learners Using Arabic as Reference Language Dr. M. Solaiman Ali, Dr. Bibi Bakarally, Prof. Omar S. Aburizaiza, Dr. Heinz F. Tengler, 2013-02-06 Purpose and Scope This text has been produced to alert learners of English using Arabic as L1 to the most typical problem areas that tend to hinder their progress as they endeavor to overcome native language interference in the process of growing into the target language The functions of capitalization and syntax have received special emphasis The analytical perspective takes precedence over its pedagogical counterpart Learner Focus The primary readership is expected to grow beyond Arabic speakers per se and is most likely to include learners using Farsi Urdu or Turkish as L1 In addition even a broad spectrum of learners using reference languages with various different alphabets e g Bengali Hangul Hebrew Hindi Japanese Mandarin will find the text useful to a considerable extent Appendices The exercises included in the three appendices are ambitiously written and intended to reveal to the learner the formidable amount of lexical material that will have to be internalized on the road to solid proficiency ESL instructors teaching Arabic speakers are aware of the difficult and time consuming effort involved in the acquisition of vocabulary
