The Prince of Death J. R. Runnels, 2025-05-30 The metallic tang of blood filled Porter s nostrils a scent that clung to the back of his throat like a bitter cough He knelt beside Mikhail Volkov s body the man s vacant stare fixed on the peeling paint of the warehouse ceiling The stillness of death was a stark contrast to the violent chaos that had just unfolded He had just killed Aleksandr s younger brother outb of what he claimed was self defense The true threat lay in Aleksandr Volkov s Russian Mafia Crime Boss s response The whispers of The Prince of Death weren t mere rumors they were a chilling premonition Porter had touched the hornet s nest and now the hornets were swarming He was no longer just an FBI agent he was a marked man a target for one of the world s most lethal assassins The protection detail assigned to Porter and his family was substantial a testament to the agency s fear of Volkov s wrath Armed agents shadowed their every move their presence a constant reminder of the danger they were in Porter s home was transformed into a fortress every window reinforced every door guarded But even with the heavy security a sense of unease permeated their lives The fear was palpable a silent companion that lurked in the shadows in the rustle of leaves in the creak of floorboards

Where Is God? William Jannen,2011-02-18 The monotheist God evolved in the Jewish tradition and was adopted by Christianity Islam and Mormonism in turn unknowable and ineffable Religious writers have told us for thousands of years that this God is beyond all human comprehension How can we know if a God is out there Even if such a God exists scripture claims that it means death even to look upon him How then can we come to know God Pagan polytheists had no such problem Their world was full of Gods They often appeared in human form and interacted with human beings They could be unpredictable and had to be handled carefully Monotheism replaced all that with God that is a complete mystery He cannot be found He cannot be seen He cannot be understood by human minds If that is what religion has come to we may as well face the fact that we are alone in the universe We shall have to learn to live with that There s nothing out there
