Bruschweiler-Stern,1998-12-03 As you prepare to become a mother you face an experience unlike any other in your life Having a baby will redirect your preferences and pleasures and most likely will realign some of your values As you undergo this unique psychological transformation you will be guided by new hopes fears and priorities In a most startling way having a child will influence all of your closest relationships and redefine your role in your family s history The charting of this remarkable new realm is the subject of this compelling book Renowned psychiatrist Daniel N Stern has joined forces with pediatrician and child psychiatrist Nadia Bruschweiler Stern and journalist Alison Freeland to paint a wonderfully evocative picture of the psychology of motherhood At the heart of The Birth of a Mother is an arresting premise Just as a baby develops physically in utero and after birth so a mother is born psychologically in the many months that precede and follow the birth of her baby The recognition of this inner transformation emerges from hundreds of interviews with new mothers and decades of clinical experience Filled with revealing case studies and personal comments from women who have shared this experience this book will serve as an invaluable sourcebook for new mothers validating the often confusing emotions that accompany the development of this new identity In addition to providing insight into the unique state of motherhood the authors touch on related topics such as going back to work fatherhood adoption and premature birth During pregnancy mothers to be talk about morning sickness and their changing bodies and new mothers talk about their exhaustion the benefits of nursing or bottle feeding and the dilemma of whether or when they should return to work And yet they can be strangely mute about the dramatic and often overwhelming changes going on in their inner lives Finally with The Birth of a Mother these powerful feelings are eloquently put into words Sex and the Sacred Daniel A. Helminiak,2006 This is an examination of the spiritual dimension of human sexuality in a way that is free of religious affiliation but still open to traditional religion and a belief in God The author looks at the relationship between spirituality and sexuality from both a humanistic and more familiar Christian point of view The Dissociative Mind in Psychoanalysis Elizabeth Howell,Sheldon Itzkowitz,2016-02-05 The Dissociative Mind in Psychoanalysis Understanding and Working With Trauma is an invaluable and cutting edge resource providing the current theory practice and research on trauma and dissociation within psychoanalysis Elizabeth Howell and

Sheldon Itzkowitz bring together experts in the field of dissociation and psychoanalysis providing a comprehensive and forward looking overview of the current thinking on trauma and dissociation The volume contains articles on the history of concepts of trauma and dissociation the linkage of complex trauma and dissociative problems in living different modalities of treatment and theoretical approaches based on a new understanding of this linkage as well as reviews of important new research Overarching all of these is a clear explanation of how pathological dissociation is caused by trauma and how this affects psychological organization concepts which have often been largely misunderstood The Dissociative Mind in Psychoanalysis will be essential reading for psychoanalysts psychoanalytically oriented psychotherapists trauma therapists and students

A Desire for Women Suzanne Juhasz,2003 Annotation An exploration of women s desire for women Our Lady of Everyday Life María Del Socorro Castañeda-Liles,2018 For Mexican Catholic women in the United States devotion to Our Lady of Guadalupe La Virgen is a necessary aspect of their cultural identity In this masterful ethnography Mar a Del Socorro Casta eda Liles considers three generations of Mexican origin women between the ages of 18 and 82 She examines the Catholic beliefs the women inherited from their mothers and how these beliefs become the template from which they first learn to see themselves as people of faith She also offers a comprehensive analysis of how Catholicism creates a culture in which Mexican origin women learn how to be good girls in a manner that reduces their agency to rubble Through the nexus of faith and lived experience these women develop a type of Mexican Catholic imagination that helps them challenge the sanctification of shame guilt and aguante endurance at all cost This imagination allows these women to transgress strict notions of what a good Catholic woman should be while retaining life giving aspects of Catholicism This transgression is most visible in their relationship to La Virgen which is a fluid and deeply engaged process of self awareness in everyday life

Revival: An Outline of Psychology (1968) Willam McDougall,2018-05-08 The time has gone by when any one man could hope to write an adequate text book of psychology The science has now so many branches so many methods so many fields of application and such an immense mass of data of observation is now on record that no one man can hope to have the necessary familiarity with the whole But even when a galaxy of learning and talent shall have written the text book of the future there will still be need for the book which will introduce the student to his science which will aim at giving him at the outset of his studies a profitable line of approach a fruitful way of thinking of psychological problems and a terminology as little misleading as possible The present volume is designed to render these services Human Computer Interaction
