of articles representing different perspectives and topics related to the general theme Women and Death from different periods and parts of Europe as well as the Middle East and Asia i.e. areas where through the ages there have been a constant interaction and discourse between a variety of people often with different ethnic backgrounds. The studies illustrate many parallels between the various societies and religious groupings despite of many differences both in time and space. The theme death is mostly seen from what have been regarded as the geographical margins of society as well as concerning the people involved women. Thus the articles most of them presenting original material from areas which are not very known for English readers offer new perspectives on the processes of cultural changes. The collection has important ramification for current research surrounding the shaping of a European identity, the marketing of regional and national heritages. In connection with the present day aim of connecting the various European heritages and developing a vision of Europe and its constituent elements that is both global and rooted, the work has great relevance. One may also mention the new international initiative on intangible heritage spearheaded by UNESCO.

IN SEARCH OF AN IDENTITY SOUMEN MITRA, 2023-10-13 This book is based on an unpublished M Phil Dissertation submitted to the Centre for Historical Studies Jawaharlal Nehru University New Delhi in 1988. At that time it was probably the first work of its kind exploring the conjunction between the popularity of football in colonial Calcutta and the trajectories of indigenous nationalism, communalism and sub regionalism. While subsequent years have seen a renewed interest in the theme of sporting enthusiasm in British India, the narrative delineation of popular football in Calcutta cannot ignore the historical processes which have shaped it.

Unveiling Desire Devaleena Das, Colette Morrow, 2018-01-16 In Unveiling Desire Devaleena Das and Colette Morrow show that the duality of the fallen saved woman is as prevalent in Eastern culture as it is in the West specifically in literature and films Using examples from the Middle to Far East including Iran India Pakistan Bangladesh Thailand Japan and China this anthology challenges the fascination with Eastern women as passive abject or sexually exotic but also resists the temptation to then focus on the veil geisha sati or Muslim women s oppression without exploring Eastern women s sexuality beyond these contexts The chapters cover instead mind body sexual politics patriarchal cultural constructs the anatomy of sex and power in relation to myth and culture denigration of female anatomy and gender performativity From Persepolis to Bollywood and from fairy tales to crime fiction the contributors to Unveiling Desire show how the struggle for women s liberation is truly global

Pagan Portals - The Fallen Women of Mythology Lady Haight-Ashton, 2024-09-27 Women have traditionally been written out of history But throughout ancient myths stories and legends there is a power in rediscovering the experiences of the many fallen women who have been hidden from the annals of the past Portrayed to us as enigmatic Goddesses devout saints scandalous sinners and infamous biblical whores their storylines of inequity were scorned or in many instances disregarded altogether to gather the dust of antiquity They are the hidden gems of the ancient world and it is time to awaken their voices For within every account of a fallen woman whether Divine or human there is another very fascinating side to their story

The 'Real' Ramakrishna (As I Have Come to Know Him as Ramakrishna's Child) Dr. Siddhartha Ganguli, 2024-09-05 It is an almost impossible task to know to understand the REAL Ramakrishna The Paramhansa was gracious enough to expose his REAL Self to some who deserved Quotes from one of Sri Sri Ramakrishna s closest devotees The author who is at present the only unparalleled scholar in the domain of Ramakrishna related literature has looked at the Avatar as if using all available measurement tools A very special feature of the present work of the author is My Thoughts on the Father s Day where the author establishes most logically and rationally that most biological parents have limitations in making us understand the meaning and purpose of birth and life on this planet We do need Spiritual Parents to guide us through The author has most strongly felt that Ramakrishna is his Spiritual Father Those who have never been exposed to the REAL Ramakrishna are likely to think him mad being a witness to his diverse sports leela The author has used his meticulous researching skill to bring to light the REAL Ramakrishna and the manifold facets of his super extraordinary personality many of which have remained undiscovered by even the most well known Ramakrishna scholars both Indian and foreign The author through the most innovative seven chapters of the book has concluded that the REAL Ramakrishna is not mad it is those who think and call him mad are mad
