Mother Küsters Goes To Heaven:

Mother Küsters goes to heaven, 2007 Screening the Red Army Faction Christina Gerhardt, 2018-07-12 Screening the Red Army Faction Historical and Cultural Memory explores representations of the Red Army Faction RAF in print media film and art locating an analysis of these texts in the historical and political context of unfolding events In this way the book contributes both a new history and a new cultural history of post fascist era West Germany that grapples with the fledgling republic s most pivotal debates about the nature of democracy and authority about violence its motivations and regulation and about its cultural afterlife Looking back at the history of representations of the RAF in various media this book considers how our understanding of the Cold War era of the long sixties and of the RAF is created and re created through cultural texts

The Apartment Complex Pamela Robertson Wojcik, 2018-09-13 From the bachelor pad that Jack Lemmon s C C Baxter loans out to his superiors in Billy Wilder s The Apartment 1960 to the crumbling tenement in a dystopian Taipei in Tsai Ming liang s The Hole 1998 the apartment in films and television series is often more than just a setting it can motivate or shape the narrative in key ways Such works belong to a critical genre identified by Pamela Robertson Wojcik as the apartment plot which comprises specific thematic visual and narrative conventions that explore modern urbanism s various forms and possibilities In The Apartment Complex a diverse group of international scholars discuss the apartment plot in a global context examining films made both within and beyond the Hollywood studios The contributors consider the apartment plot s intersections with film noir horror comedy and the musical addressing how different national or historical contexts modify the apartment plot and how the genre s framework allows us to rethink the work of auteurs and identify productive connections and tensions between otherwise disparate texts Contributors Steven Cohan Michael DeAngelis Veronica Fitzpatrick Annamarie Jagose Paula J Massood Joe McElhaney Merrill Schleier Lee Wallace Pamela Robertson Wojcik

The New German Cinema Caryl Flinn, 2004 This study of New German cinema identifies different styles of historical remembrance in which music participates It concentrates on how listeners are urged to interact with difference including Germany s difficult past rather than try to master or get past it The A to Z of German Cinema Robert C. Reimer, Carol J. Reimer, 2010-04 Outlining the richness of German film The A to Z of German Cinema covers mainstream alternative and experimental film from 1895 to the present through a chronology introductory essay appendix of the 100 most significant German films a bibliography and hundreds of cross From Self-fulfilment to Survival of the Fittest Ewa Mazierska, 2015-01-01 Contrary to the assumption that Western and Eastern European economies and cinemas were very different from each other they actually had much in common After the Second World War both the East and the West adopted a mixed system containing elements of both socialism and capitalism and from the 1980s on the whole of Europe albeit at an uneven speed followed the neoliberal agenda This book examines how the economic systems of the East and West impacted labor by focusing on the representation of work in European cinema Using a Marxist perspective it compares the situation of workers in Western and Eastern Europe as represented in both auteurist and popular films including those of Tony Richardson Lindsay Anderson Jean Luc Godard Andrzej Wajda Du an Makavejev Jerzy Skolimowski the Dardenne Brothers Ulrich Seidl and many others

A Companion to German Cinema Terri Ginsberg, Andrea Mensch, 2012-02-13 A Companion to German Cinema regards the shifting terrain of German filmmaking and film studies against their larger social contexts with twenty two newly commissioned essays by well established and younger scholars in the field While several of these focus on classic topics such as Weimar cinema Fifties cinema New German Cinema and its legacy and Holocaust film the collection is distinguished by its focus on new developments and the innovative light they may shed on earlier practices A Companion to German Cinema includes essays on Berlin Film Neue Heimat Film New Comedy post Wall documentaries the post Wende RAF genre and Rabenmutter imagery as well as on the persistently overlooked and under theorized Indianerfilme post AIDS documentaries sexploitation films and new multicultural and transnational films produced in Germany under the auspices of the European Union Organized into three movements representing the significance of these developments for their aesthetic theorization A Companion to German Cinema challenges its readers to address critical gaps in the field with the aim of opening it further onto new terrains of intellectual engagement

New York Magazine, 1977-04-18 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea

The Politics and Poetics of Cinematic Realism Hermann Kappelhoff, 2015-08-11 Hermann Kappelhoff casts the evolution of cinema as an ongoing struggle to relate audiences to their historical moment Appreciating cinema's unique ability to bind concrete living conditions to individual experience which existing political institutions cannot he reads films by Sergei Eisenstein and Pedro Almod var by the New Objectivity and the New Hollywood to demonstrate how cinema situates spectators within society Kappelhoff applies the Deleuzian practice of thinking in images to his analysis of films and incorporates the approaches of Jacques Rancière and Richard Rorty who see politics in the permanent reconfiguration of poetic forms This enables him to conceptualize film as a medium that continually renews the audiovisual spaces and temporalities through which audiences confront reality Revitalizing the reading of films by Visconti Fassbinder Kubrick Friedkin and others Kappelhoff affirms cinema's historical significance while discovering its engagement with politics as a realm of experience

Historical Dictionary of German Cinema Robert C. Reimer, Carol J. Reimer, 2019-07-15 The History of German film is diverse and multi faceted This volume can only suggest the richness of a film tradition that includes five distinct German governments Wilhelmine Germany the Weimar Republic the Third Reich the Federal Republic of Germany West Germany and the German Democratic Republic East Germany's as well as a reunited

Germany two national industries Germany and Austria and a myriad of styles and production methods Paradoxically the political disruptions that have produced these distinct film eras as well as and the natural inclination of artists to rebel and create new styles allow for construction of a narrative of German film Disjuncture generates distinct points of separation and yet also highlights continuities between the ruptures This second edition of Historical Dictionary of German Cinema contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 200 cross referenced entries on directors actors films cinematographers composers producers and major historical events that greatly affected the direction and development of German cinema This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about German cinema

Reel Women Jane Sloan, 2007-03-26 In the last several decades the number of films featuring female protagonists has increased significantly Many of these films reflect the vast cultural and sociological changes that have taken place since the early 1960s highlighting not only a wide spectrum of female characters depicted onscreen but the creative work of women behind the camera as well In Reel Women An International Directory of Contemporary Feature Films about Women media librarian Jane Sloan has assembled an impressive list of more than 2400 films from nearly 100 countries that feature female protagonists Each entry includes a brief description of the film and cites key artistic personnel particularly female directors producers and screenwriters involved in its production Reel Women also contains a critical survey in which Sloan charts the changes women have undergone both on screen and off as moviemaking and audience sensibilities have evolved in the last forty plus years Listing many more films on the subject of women than can be found in any other source this reference brings together important titles from area studies and genre markets along with titles associated with women's cinema and feminist film In addition to title and actor indexes the book contains a subject index that provides detailed access to place names historical characters time periods and storylines as well as the backgrounds religious racial and ethnic of the main characters This directory is an ideal reference tool for researchers studying the evolution of female characters in films around the world from Afghanistan to Zimbabwe It is also a resource for casual viewers who are looking for films that reflect the diversity of women's roles that can be found in independent and national cinemas as well as commercial blockbusters

Male Subjectivity at the Margins Kaja Silverman, 2017-09-25 Through the examination of a range of literary and cinematic texts from William Wyler's classic The Best Years of Our Lives to the novels of Henry James Silverman offers a bold new look at masculinities which deviate from the social norm

Visual Culture Norman Bryson, Michael Ann Holly, Keith Moxey, 2013-03-15 We can no longer see much less teach transhistorical truths timeless works of art and unchanging critical criteria without a highly developed sense of irony about the grand narratives of the past declare the editors who also coedited Visual Theory Painting and Interpretation 1990 The field of art history is not unique in finding itself challenged and enlarged by cultural debates over issues of class ethnicity nationality sexual orientation and gender Visual Culture assembles some of the foremost scholars of cultural studies and art history to explore new critical approaches to a history of representation seen as something different from a history of art
