My Mother's Land Broderick Dena Olayinka (author), 1901      What My Mother and I Don't Talk About Michele Filgate, 2020-08-11 You will devour these beautifully written and very important tales of honesty pain and resilience Elizabeth Gilbert New York Times bestselling author of Eat Pray Love and City of Girls from fifteen brilliant writers who explore how what we don't talk about with our mothers affects us for better or for worse As an undergraduate Michele Filgate started writing an essay about being abused by her stepfather It took her more than a decade to realize that she was actually trying to write about how this affected her relationship with her mother When it was finally published the essay went viral shared on social media by Anne Lamott Rebecca Solnit and many others This gave Filgate an idea and the resulting anthology offers a candid look at our relationships with our mothers Leslie Jamison writes about trying to discover who her seemingly perfect mother was before ever becoming a mom In Cathi Hanauer's hilarious piece she finally gets a chance to have a conversation with her mother that isn't interrupted by her domineering but lovable father Andr Aciman writes about what it was like to have a deaf mother Melissa Febos uses mythology as a lens to look at her close knit relationship with her psychotherapist mother And Julianna Baggott talks about having a mom who tells her everything As Filgate writes Our mothers are our first homes and that's why we're always trying to return to them There's relief in acknowledging how what we couldn't say for so long is a way to heal our relationships with others and perhaps most important with ourselves Contributions by Cathi Hanauer Melissa Febos Alexander Chee Dylan Landis Bernice L McFadden Julianna Baggott Lynn Steger Strong Kiese Laymon Carmen Maria Machado Andr Aciman Sari Botton Nayomi Munaweera Brandon Taylor and Leslie Jamison

Russell Banks Kevin T. McEneaney, 2010-06-16 This book provides comprehensive up to date commentary and critical guidance on the writings of Russell Banks Despite being a globally successful writer who has been published for over 30 years and is credited with two successful movies based on his work there is but one prior study of Russell Banks's work in English which is now nearly a decade old Russell Banks In Search of Freedom offers the only modern complete commentary on his work and establishes Banks as one of the leaders in the postmodern neorealist tradition of American fiction This critical guide contains a brief biography of Banks describing the details of his life that shaped his philosophies plot themes and settings such as New England and the Caribbean Russell Banks then illustrates how Banks moved beyond his working class origins and explored problems in race communication sexual and family relations religion popular culture landscape and more recently the upper class The final chapter explains Banks's unique vision of American history and liberty

Mother Jones Magazine, 1997-05 Mother Jones is an award winning national magazine widely respected for its groundbreaking investigative reporting and coverage of sustainability and environmental issues      U.S. Women Writers and the Discourses of Colonialism, 1825-1861 Etsuko Taketani, 2003 An overdue examination of widely marginalized writings by women of the American antebellum period U S Women Writers presents a new model for evaluating U S relations and interactions with foreign countries in the colonial and postcolonial periods by examining the ways in which women writers were both proponents of colonialization and subversive agents for change Etsuko Taketani explores attempts to inculcate imperialist values through education in the works of Lydia Maria Child Sarah Tuttle Catherine Beecher and others and the results of viewing the world through these values as reflected in the writings of Harriet low Emily Judson and Sarah hale Many of the texts Taketani uncovers from relative obscurity illuminate the American attitude toward others whether Native American African American or Asian She not only sheds lights on the life of the writers she examines but she also situates each writer s works alongside those of her contemporaries to give the reader a clear picture of the cultural context

The Author Etsuko Taketani is associate professor of English in the Institute of Modern Languages and Cultures at the University of Tsukuba Japan Her articles have appeared in American Literary History Children s Literature Melville Society Extracts and other publications

The New Orleans of Fiction James A. Kaser, 2014-07-29 The importance of New Orleans in American culture has made the city s place in the American imagination a crucial topic for literary scholars and cultural historians While databases of bibliographical information on New Orleans centered fiction are available they are of little use to scholars researching works written before the 1980s In The New Orleans of Fiction A Research Guide James A. Kaser provides detailed synopses for more than 500 works of fiction significantly set in New Orleans and published between 1836 and 1980 The synopses include plot summaries names of major characters and an indication of physical settings An appendix provides bibliographical information for works dating from 1981 well into the 21st century while a biographical section provides basic information about the authors some of whom are obscure and would be difficult to find in other sources Written to assist researchers in locating works of fiction for analysis the plot summaries highlight ways in which the works touch on major aspects of social history and cultural studies i e class ethnicity gender immigrant experience and race The book is also a useful reader advisory tool for librarians and readers who want to identify materials for leisure reading particularly since genre juvenile and young adult fiction as well as literary fiction are included

Fathers and Mothers in Literature Henk Hillenaar, Walter Schönau, 1994 Many people as a child dream of having other parents a gentler mother a kinder or stronger father a more illustrious family According to our secret dreams were not most of us born sons or daughters of a king a president a champion Freud termed this the Family Romance We all carry these secret scenarios in ourselves Usually they are long forgotten but nevertheless remain alive in the stories we tell ourselves and relate to others Therefore the Family Romance is one of the keys to the understanding of literature The French literary critic Marthe Robert developed a fundamental theory of Freud In 1972 she presented in her publication Origins of the Novel a new method to analyse the novel and to understand its history Her study offers a proof of the relevance of Freud s views and it invites us to expand on its ideas and suggestions It is in this perspective that the authors of this volume write about the historical and mythical figures Mary Medea Electra Kaspar Hauser and Sir Gawain Other articles are devoted to the Family Romance in the works of the following authors Barthes Beckett Camus Drieu la Rochelle Faulkner Flaubert Goethe Goll Jutta Heinrich Gombrowicz Greene Kafka L vy Modiano Petronius Sartre Vigny

Toward the Geopolitical Novel Caren Irr, 2013-12-17 Caren Irr's survey of more than 125 novels outlines the dramatic resurgence of the American political novel in the twenty first century She explores the writings of Chris Abani Susan Choi Edwidge Danticat Junot Diaz Dave Eggers Jeffrey Eugenides Aleksandar Hemon Hari Kunzru Dinaw Mengestu Norman Rush Gary Shteyngart and others as they rethink stories of migration the Peace Corps nationalism and neoliberalism revolution and the expatriate experience Taken together these innovations define a new literary form the geopolitical novel More cosmopolitan and socially critical than domestic realism the geopolitical novel provides new ways of understanding crucial political concepts to meet the needs of a new century

The Concise Oxford Companion to African American Literature William L. Andrews, Frances Smith

Foster, Trudier Harris, 2001-02-15 A breathtaking achievement this Concise Companion is a suitable crown to the astonishing production in African American literature and criticism that has swept over American literary studies in the last two decades. It offers an enormous range of writers from Sojourner Truth to Frederick Douglass from Zora Neale Hurston to Ralph Ellison and from Toni Morrison to August Wilson. It contains entries on major works including synopses of novels such as Harriet Jacobs's Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl, Richard Wright's Native Son and Lorraine Hansberry's A Raisin in the Sun. It also incorporates information on literary characters such as Bigger Thomas, Coffin Ed Johnson, Kunta Kinte, Sula, Peace, as well as on character types such as Aunt Jemima, Brer Rabbit, John Henry, Stackolee and the trickster. Icons of black culture are addressed including vivid details about the lives of Muhammad Ali, John Coltrane, Marcus Garvey, Jackie Robinson, John Brown and Harriet Tubman. Here too are general articles on poetry, fiction and drama, on autobiography, slave narratives, Sunday School literature and oratory as well as on a wide spectrum of related topics. Compact yet thorough, this handy volume gathers works from a vast array of sources from the black periodical press to women's clubs, making it one of the most substantial guides available on the growing, exciting world of African American literature.

Black on Black John Cullen Gruesser, 2021-05-11 Black on Black provides the first comprehensive analysis of the modern African American literary response to Africa from W. E. B. Du Bois's The Souls of Black Folk to Alice Walker's The Color Purple. Combining cutting-edge theory, extensive historical and archival research and close readings of individual texts, Gruesser reveals the diversity of the African American response to Countee Cullen's question "What is Africa to Me." John Gruesser uses the concept of Ethiopianism, the biblically inspired belief that black Americans would someday lead Africans and people of the diaspora to a bright future, to provide a framework for his study. Originating in the eighteenth century and inspiring religious and political movements throughout the 1800s, Ethiopianism dominated African American depictions of Africa in the first two decades of the twentieth century, particularly in the writings of Du Bois, Sutton Griggs and Pauline Hopkins. Beginning with the Harlem Renaissance and continuing through the Italian invasion and occupation of Ethiopia, however, its influence on the portrayal of the continent slowly diminished. Ethiopianism's decline can first be seen in the work of writers closely associated with the New Negro Movement, including Alain Locke and Langston Hughes, and continued in the dramatic work of Shirley Graham, the novels of George Schuyler and the poetry and prose of Melvin Tolson. The final rejection of Ethiopianism came after the dawning of the Cold War and roughly coincided with the advent of postcolonial Africa in works by authors such as Richard Wright, Lorraine Hansberry and Alice Walker.

The Novels of Linus T. Asong Emmanuel Doh, 2023-09-30 This study is the first critical examination of the novels of Linus T. Asong, a sharp, compelling and brutally insightful storyteller, sometimes comical yet with a knack for the distraught, disturbing and macabre, in his throbbing capture and portrayal of society as it functions or as it fails to function. Asong's novels bring to the fore an unexpected enormous array of characters whose physical appearances and habits are depictions made concrete by potent imagistic words deployed not only to evoke vividness and plausibility but more specifically to peek into the soul and mental uprightness of persons and society Hence they demonstrate the response of the oppressed exploited and abused in the face of dysfunctionality social and cultural violations and deviations In this light the novels are revealed to serve both as testimonies and critiques of the times in which Asong lived This study therefore offers insights into one of the most prolific novelists of Southern Cameroons origins as well as modern trends in African literature

A Companion to American Literature Susan Belasco, Theresa Strouth Gaul, Linck Johnson, Michael Soto, 2020-04-03 A comprehensive chronological overview of American literature in three scholarly and authoritative volumes A Companion to American Literature traces the history and development of American literature from its early origins in Native American oral tradition to 21st century digital literature This comprehensive three volume set brings together contributions from a diverse international team of accomplished young scholars and established figures in the field Contributors explore a broad range of topics in historical cultural political geographic and technological contexts engaging the work of both well known and non canonical writers of every period Volume One is an inclusive and geographically expansive examination of early American literature applying a range of cultural and historical approaches and theoretical models to a dramatically expanded canon of texts Volume Two covers American literature between 1820 and 1914 focusing on the development of print culture and the literary marketplace the emergence of various literary movements and the impact of social and historical events on writers and writings of the period Spanning the 20th and early 21st centuries Volume Three studies traditional areas of American literature as well as the literature from previously marginalized groups and contemporary writers often overlooked by scholars This inclusive and comprehensive study of American literature Examines the influences of race ethnicity gender class and disability on American literature Discusses the role of technology in book production and circulation the rise of literacy and changing reading practices and literary forms Explores a wide range of writings in multiple genres including novels short stories dramas and a variety of poetic forms as well as autobiographies essays lectures diaries journals letters sermons histories and graphic narratives Provides a thematic index that groups chapters by contexts and illustrates their links across different traditional chronological boundaries A Companion to American Literature is a valuable resource for students coming to the subject for the first time or preparing for field examinations instructors in American literature courses and scholars with more specialized interests in specific authors genres movements or periods

Something about the Author Adele Sarkissian, 1987-12 A collection of autobiographical essays written by prominent authors and illustrators of books for children and young adults

Mobility and Corporeality in Nineteenth- to Twenty-First-Century Anglophone Literature Jaine Chemmachery, Bhawana Jain, 2021-05-19 Mobility and Corporeality in 19th and 21st Century Anglophone Literature Bodies in Motion aims at exploring the intersection of literary mobility and body studies in Anglophone literature from the 19th century to the 21st century Corporeal mobility includes a variety of mobile bodies that have long been othered and marginalised due to issues pertaining to gender disability race and class Yet there is a relative lack of academic work on it despite the fact that Anglophone literature has increasingly portrayed the circulation of characters objects and information since the 19th century echoing the many types of mobility that have occurred through processes of colonisation decolonisation and globalisation This book therefore discusses the ways in which literatures produced in the English speaking world challenge normative depictions of bodies on the move and reconceptualise them by making corporeality an essential feature of movement across the world

Story for a Black Night Clayton Bess, 2004 An African father tells his son about the disaster that followed the night a baby with smallpox was abandoned in his family s house
