Woman's Work in the Far East ,1915      The Youngest Mothers Gillian Schofield,1994 A study investigating the experience of young women who become pregnant while of school age and decide to keep their babies A review of the literature concludes that negative images of young mothers predominate The group of young mothers studied have more diverse experiences than normally represented Contains chapters on becoming pregnant and making a decision the experience and long term consequences of motherhood family reactions the baby s father and services available for school age mothers      Public Relations and Religion in American History Margot Opdycke Lamme,2014-02-18 Winner of The American Journalism Historians Association Book of the Year Award 2015 This study of American public relations history traces evangelicalism to corporate public relations via reform and the church based temperance movement It encompasses a leading evangelical of the Second Great Awakening Rev Charles Grandison Finney and some of his predecessors early reformers at Oberlin College where Finney spent the second half of his life leaders of the Woman s Christian Temperance Union and the Anti Saloon League of America and twentieth century public relations pioneer Ivy Ledbetter Lee whose work reflecting religious and business evangelism has not yet been examined Observations about American public relations history icon P T Barnum whose life and work touched on many of the themes presented here also are included as thematic bookends As such this study cuts a narrow channel through a wide swath of literature and a broad sweep of historical time from the mid eighteenth century to the first decades of the twentieth century to examine the deeper and deliberate strategies for effecting change for persuading a community of adherents or opponents or even a single soul to embrace that which an advocate intentionally presented in a particular way for a specific outcome prescriptions as it turned out not only for religious conversion but also for public relations initiatives      Using Literature in the Middle Grades Joy F. Moss,1994 Contains outlines for literature units for the middle grades that focus on a single literary theme      The Story Behind Harper Lee's To Kill a Mockingbird Bryon Giddens-White,2007 Provides a background for Harper Lee s famous novel by looking at relevant biographical details about her life and providing historical details that place the story in context with a literary analysis of the novel      Laurence Yep Katherine Lawrence,2003-12-15 Discusses life and work of the popular children s author including his writing process and methods inspirations a critical discussion of his books biographical timeline and awards      The Diary of Elizabeth Lee Colin Pooley,Siân Pooley,Richard Lawton,2019-02-15 Personal diaries provide rare glimpses into those aspects of the past that are usually hidden from view Elizabeth Lee grew up on Merseyside in the late nineteenth century She began her diary at the age of 16 in 1884 and it provides an unbroken record of her life up to the age of 25 in 1892 Elizabeth s father was a draper and outfitter with shops in Birkenhead and throughout the period of the diary

Elizabeth lived at home with her family in Prenton However she travelled widely on both sides of the Mersey and her diary provides an unusually revealing picture of middle class life that begins to challenge conventional views of the position of young women in Victorian society The book includes a detailed introduction to and analysis of the diary together with a glossary relating to key people in the diary and maps of the localities in which Elizabeth lived her everyday life There have been a number of diaries published relating to ordinary people but most accounts were written retrospectively as life histories by people who eventually gained some degree of fame or prominence in society This very rare first hand account provides a unique insight into adolescent life in Victorian Britain     In Perfect Timing Peter Caddy,2013-04-07 Peter Caddy gave himself completely and unconditionally to life embracing it with zest courage and delight There was nothing otherworldly about Peter He was a man of action who thoroughly enjoyed taking on a challenge the greater the better Whether serving in the wartime RAF climbing the Himalayas in Tibet managing a luxury hotel on spiritual principles or running a New Age community he climbed every mountain God put in front of him He married five times and fathered six children As a consequence his life reads like an adventure novel it is a ripping good yarn which is all the more powerful because it is true     Hissing Cousins Marc Peyser,Timothy Dwyer,2016-03-08 A Richmond Times Dispatch Best Book of the Year When Theodore Roosevelt became president in 1901 his beautiful and flamboyant daughter was transformed into Princess Alice arguably the century s first global celebrity Thirty two years later Alice s first cousin Eleanor moved into the White House as First Lady The two women had been born eight months and twenty blocks apart in New York City spent much of their childhoods together and were far more alike than most historians acknowledge But their politics and personalities couldn t have been more distinct Democratic icon Eleanor was committed to social justice and hated the limelight Republican Alice was an opponent of big government who gained notoriety for her cutting remarks The cousins liked to play up their rivalry in the 1930s they even wrote opposing syndicated newspaper columns and embarked on competing nationwide speaking tours When the family business is politics winning trumps everything Lively intimate and stylishly written Hissing Cousins is a double biography of two extraordinary women whose entwined lives give us a sweeping look at the twentieth century in America     The Virginia Plutarch Philip Alexander Bruce,1929     Motherhood in the Media Barbara Barnett,2016-02-19 This book examines contemporary media stories about women who kill their children By analyzing media texts motherhood blogs and journalistic interviews the book seeks to understand better maternal violence and the factors that lead women to harm their children The central thesis of this book is that media practices have changed dramatically during the past 50 years as has society s views on appropriate feminine behavior yet definitions of characteristics of good mothers remain largely defined by 1950s sit coms Victorian ideals and Christian theology The book contends that in spite of media saturation in American society and the media s increased opportunities to tell complex and nuanced stories news media narratives continue to situate maternal violence as rare unfathomable and unpredictable The news media's shift in focus from public service to profit making industry has encouraged superficial coverage of maternal violence as reporters look for stories that sell not stories that explain Motherhood blogs in contrast offer an opportunity for women to tell their own stories about motherhood based on experience Interviews with journalists offer insights into how the structure of their jobs dictates media coverage of this intimate form of violence
