My Parents Go On A Trip:

As You Go Alvin Reid, 2014-02-27 Today's students long for a rich meaningful faith. They want something more than a moral code and therapeutic worship that leaves them unsatisfied and uninspired. Speaker, author, and evangelism professor Alvin L. Reid reveals a key to capturing students' hearts for life: a missional youth ministry. Through practical teaching and powerful application tools, discover how giving teens a grander purpose and vision and encouraging them to see all of life as a mission field transforms their faith, their lives, and the world.

Canadian at Heart Claudia Bauder, 2025-05-08 In her gripping autobiography spanning continents, countries, and cultures, Claudia Bauder describes the eventful and unusual lifestyle which her family led in the 1960s and 70s at a time when flights overseas were an exception and moving across the ocean was almost unthinkable. Due to the father's employer, this German family moved abroad several times: from Germany to South America to the USA back to Germany to Canada, seemingly effortlessly. The family's lifestyle was characterized by new beginnings and farewells, coping with a new language, adapting to cultural customs, and the feeling of being a foreigner. Finally, they move to Canada, and over the seven years there, Canada feels like the country they wish to call home. Then, a stroke of fate changes their lives completely. The story tells of comical situations, misunderstandings, but also of overcoming enormous challenges, changes, and prejudices that all family members were faced with. A book full of tears of joy and despair in equal measure. Experience or count how many times the suitcases were packed, whether just for a short trip or again for a completely new chapter in life. An extraordinary family story awaits you.

Locally Laid Lucie B. Amundsen, 2017-02-28 How a Midwestern family with no agriculture experience went from a few backyard chickens to a full-fledged farm and discovered why local chicks are better. When Lucie Amundsen had a rare night out with her husband, she never imagined what he'd tell her over dinner: that his dream was to quit his office job with benefits and start a commercial-scale pasture-raised egg farm. His entire agricultural experience consisted of raising five backyard hens, none of whom had yet laid a single egg. To create this pastured poultry ranch, the couple scrambles to acquire nearly two thousand chickens, all named Lola. These hens, purchased commercially, arrive bereft of basic chicken instincts, such as the evening urge to roost. The newbie farmers also deal with their own shortcomings, making for a failed inspection and intense struggles to keep livestock alive, much less laying, during a brutal winter. But with a heavy dose of humor, they learn to negotiate the highly stressed no-man's-land known as Middle Agriculture. Amundsen sees firsthand how these midsized farms, situated between small-scale operations and mammoth factory farms, are vital to rebuilding America's local food system. With an unexpected passion for this dubious enterprise, Amundsen shares a messy, wry, and entirely educational story of the unforeseen payoffs and frequent pitfalls of one couple's ag adventure and many, many hours spent wrangling chickens.
