Living Without Him Minerva Khajuria, 2024-10-30. A year into their marriage, Minerva loses her husband to COVID-19, making her a widow at thirty-two and shattering her entire existence. The death triggers harrowing memories of past tragedies: the punishing death of her father, the unexpected deaths of her uncles soon after, and her mother's battles with mental illness. They all come together to haunt her, leaving her at a tragic crossroads. Who has she been all this while, and who is she now? Can she find it in herself to move on with her life? Should she? Alone and lost in the world, all she is left with is her relentless, all-consuming grief. Beginning with the tumultuous month when the virus seized her family and the subsequent struggle to save her husband, to going on a journey to unearth a long-buried part of herself that can maybe learn to live with all of it, Living Without Him is a deeply felt memoir about one woman's search for meaning and purpose after tremendous loss and a heartfelt meditation on the unique shades of grieving and recovery. A New Old Spirituality? Tone Stangeland Kaufman, 2017-07-11. How do pastors live their spiritual lives, both as private persons and as professionals? How can their spirituality be characterized and understood? Drawing on in-depth interviews with Norwegian clergy as well as literature from the fields of Christian spirituality, practical theology, congregational studies, and the sociology of religion, this book offers a nuanced understanding of clergy spirituality. Tone Stangeland Kaufman identifies three locations and sources of spiritual nurture for pastors the ministry itself vocational spirituality daily life everyday spirituality and spiritual practices located at the margins of daily life intentional spirituality The participants in this study engage in classic Christian practices yet approach them in a subjective and new way that also potentially revitalizes their spiritual lives Hence the author makes the case that their spirituality can aptly be described as a new old spirituality The book also seeks to nuance Paul Heelas's and Linda Woodhead's Spiritual Revolution claim and thus engages in the broader spirituality vs religion discourse A New Old Spirituality is an exciting example of how qualitative empirical research can be used in creative ways to make a practical theological argument It is a book for scholars students and practitioners

Barron, Michael E. Despite the generally positive findings of prior research with respect to consumer attitudes toward credit insurance several open questions remain of interest to policy makers specifically the question of whether coercion is involved in the sale of the insurance Consumer Attitudes Toward Credit Insurance addresses these outstanding issues It presents a profile of who is currently being served by the credit insurance market as well as the reasons borrowers purchase the product and their experience with the offer of credit insurance at point of sale
