Nadar: 50 Photographies de Ses Illustres Contemporains André Barret, 1975 Nadar: Collection Michel Et Michèle Auer Maria Morris Hambourg, Françoise Heilbrun, Philippe Néagu, 1995 Nadar whose real name was Felix Tournachon 1820 1910 was a conspicuous even astonishing presence in nineteenth century France Engaging and quick witted he invented himself over and over as a bohemian writer a journalist a romantic utopian a caricaturist a portrait photographer a balloonist an entrepreneur a prophet of aeronautics The name Nadar was on everyone's lips Today it is Nadar's photography that is remembered His sitters who were often his friends included the great men and women of his time Dumas Rossini Baudelaire Sarah Bernhardt Daumier Berlioz George Sand Delacroix Nadar's legendary name has been attached not only to his original photographs but to reprints copies and a great deal of studio work For that reason this volume exactly reproduces some one hundred photographs from the years 1854 60 the period of his earliest and finest photography allowing viewers to become familiar with the subtle light and balanced velvety tones that distinguish Nadar's original work Accompanying the photographs are essays that shed new light on the many facets of Nadar Visions/revisions Nigel Harkness, 2003 The essays in this volume contribute diversely towards a revision and a reconceptualization of nineteenth century France with many adopting interdisciplinary methodologies attentive to the interplay between literature history art popular and high culture politics and science "A Dream of Stone" Michael D. Garval, 2004 With democratization of fame in the wake of the French Revolution writers enjoyed ever greater celebrity status But in nineteenth century France the availability and perceived impermanence of such renown cheapened it and prompted longing for enduring fame exemplified by monuments commemorative sculptural or architectural works helping a nation in flux define itself its past and anticipated future Within this cultural climate there evolved an ideal of great writers and their work as immortal that envisioned literary greatness through the metaphor of monuments and monumentality study draws upon wide ranging evidence from journalism to poetry caricature to statuary Focusing on the lives work and fame of Honore de Balzac George Sand and Victor Hugo it uncovers the salient features and traces the rise and fall of this monumentalizing vision of literary greatness largely forgotten today yet so central to nineteenth century French culture North Carolina State University Faking Death Penny Cousineau-Levine, 2003 In Faking Death Penny Cousineau Levine examines the work of over 120 Canadian photographers revealing important aspects of Canadian identity and imagination Contrasting Canadian photography with American and European traditions she shows that Canadian photographers are often preoccupied with a place that is elsewhere a doubling and duality that also occurs in Canadian literature film and political life Subverting the documentary tradition and other stylistic idioms for their own distinctive ends Canadian photographers exhibit an ambivalent preoccupation with death and dying bondage and entrapment Cousineau Levine argues that this is characteristically a faked death that expresses a collective Canadian wish for a symbolic passage to national maturity Faking Death includes 16 colour reproductions and 150

duotones by artists such as Raymonde April Jeff Wall Lynne Cohen Charles Gagnon Evergon Michel Lambeth Thaddeus Holownia Geoffrey James Genevi ve Cadieux Shelley Niro Diana Thorneycroft Jin me Yoon Ian Wallace and Ken Lum By bringing together this many Canadian works Faking Death provides a compelling visual introduction to one of Canada s most vibrant and internationally recognized artistic media It is an invaluable tool for curators artists teachers students and scholars in art history fine arts Canadian studies film communications literature and cultural studies The Portraits of Hector Berlioz Gunther Braam,2003 Photography and Literature Eric Lambrechts,Luc Salu,1992 Photography and Literature An International Bibliography of Monographs covers the period 1839 1991 It is arranged alphabetically by author photographer with numerous cross references to editors compilers illustrators translators etc It lists some 3 900 titles in about twenty languages and includes books exhibition catalogues dissertations and special issues of magazines Art Books Wolfgang M.
