Other Mind Of Europe Goethe As A Scientist:

The Other Mind of Europe J. P. Singh Uberoi, 1984 This unique work provides a new reading of Goethe's oft neglected scientific work in botany and optical physics arguing that Goethe's non standard or Paracelsian conception of scientific method is an important and relevant alternative to the orthodox scientific tradition The author examines both Goethe's sources and critics from fields as diverse as physics philosophy and occultism

Goethe and Patriarchy James Simpson, 2017-12-02 This book traces the history of a complex sexual fantasy which features recurrently in Goethe's writings from his days as a student in Leipzig to the final years as Europe's most celebrated living poet Simpson shows how the young man's fantasy of innocent sexuality became an increasingly troubled one during the poet's first decade in Weimar Goethe began to recognize in it a submerged element the incestuous roots of desire Triggered by this discovery Goethe's imagination becomes increasingly analytic and diagnostic and startlingly prefigures the work of Freud Yet paradoxically Goethe's insight leads him to a triumphant reassertion of an innocent sexuality purged of those elements he identifies as diseased Central to Goethe and Patriarchy is a new account of the genesis of the first part of Faust which is shown to contain a record of Goethe's changing attitudes to human sexuality In particular Simpson is the first critic to demonstrate that the Gretchen episode is a deliberate Kontrafaktur of the patriarchal idyll of the Song of Songs The book explores numerous other Goethe texts and casts entirely new light on his creative imagination

The End of the Cognitive Empire Boaventura de Sousa Santos, 2018-07-16 In The End of the Cognitive Empire Boaventura de Sousa Santos further develops his concept of the epistemologies of the South in which he outlines a theoretical methodological and pedagogical framework for challenging the dominance of Eurocentric thought As a collection of knowledges born of and anchored in the experiences of marginalized peoples who actively resist capitalism colonialism and patriarchy epistemologies of the South represent those forms of knowledge that are generally discredited erased and ignored by dominant cultures of the global North Noting the declining efficacy of established social and political solutions to combat inequality and discrimination Santos suggests that global justice can only come about through an epistemological shift that guarantees cognitive justice Such a shift would create new alternative strategies for political mobilization and activism and give oppressed social groups the means through which to represent the world as their own and in their own terms

Anthropological Journeys Meenakshi Thapan, 1998 This collection of papers raises methodological issues and questions concerning the traditional nature of anthropology and addresses current issues and debates in sociology and social anthropology The essays in this volume by well known anthropologists take up these and other issues arising out of their own fieldwork experience The result is a rigorous and deeply moving analysis that leads to an unlearning of inappropriate and insensitive methods that obscure rather than explain the lives of people

Decolonising the University Boaventura de Sousa Santos, 2018-04-18 At each particular historical moment the university appears as a heavy and rigid structure resisting changes whereas throughout time it has actually undergone profound transformation. Often such changes have been drastic and almost always provoked by factors external to the university be they of a religious, political or economic nature. This book explores the nature and dynamics of the transformation that the university is undergoing today. It argues that some of the projects of reform currently under way are so radical that the question of the future of the university may well turn into the question of whether the university has a future. A specific feature of this inquiry is the realisation that questioning the future of the university involves questioning its past as well.

The Science of Empire Zaheer Baber, 1996-05-16. In Science, Civilization and Empire in India. Zaheer Baber analyzes the social context of the origins and development of science and technology in India from antiquity through colonialism to the modern period. The focus is on the two-way interaction between science and society: how specific social and cultural factors led to the emergence of specific scientific, technological, knowledge systems and institutions that transformed the very social conditions that produced them. A key feature is the author's analysis of the role of pre-colonial trading circuits and other institutional factors in transmitting scientific and technological knowledge from India to other civilizational complexes. A significant portion represents an analysis of the role of modern science and technology in the consolidation of the British empire in India.

Empire of Knowledge Vinay Lal, 2002-10-20. During the media frenzy over the Millennium celebrations, there was hardly any mention of the fact that for the majority of the world, there was no Millennium at all. This linear understanding of time is a specifically Western and Christian concept. This is just one of many examples that Vinay Lal uses to demonstrate that nearly every idea which we take for granted in the West is part of a politics of ideas. Oppression is usually associated with class struggle and other forms of economic monopoly. Lal looks beyond this, deconstructing the cultural assumptions that have emerged alongside capitalism to offer a devastating critique of the politics of knowledge at the heart of all powerbroking. Other topics examined are the concept of development, which has provided a mandate for surreptitious colonisation, and the idea of the nation-state, something we have lived with for no more than two centuries yet is accepted without question. Linking this to the emergence of international governance through the United Nations, the US and imperial economic bodies such as the IMF and WTO, Lal explains how such universalism came to dominate the trajectory of Western thought.

Globalization and Social Change Johannes Dragsbaek Schmidt, Jacques Hersh, 2003-10-04. An innovative and forward-looking volume which challenges conventional thinking regarding the inevitability of globalisation. Essential reading for those interested in the development of and the potential alternatives to globalisation.

Social Healing Ananta Kumar Giri, 2023-06-22. Social Healing draws on a transdisciplinary approach, bringing sociology, philosophy, psychology and spirituality together to understand health, social suffering and healing in our contemporary world. It shows how we can transform the present discourse and reality of social suffering by multi-dimensional movements of social healing. The author argues for the need for a new art of healing in place of the dominant and pervasive technology and politics of killing. It discusses manifold creative theories and practices of healing in self, society and the world, as well as new movements in social theory philosophy and social sciences which deploy creative methods of art and performance in healing our psychic and social wounds It explores the spiritual social ethical and political dimensions of health and healing This pioneering work will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of social theory sociology politics philosophy and psychology Sociology of Rationality Soumyajit Patra,Tattwamasi Paltasingh,2024-11-15 This book is a socio historical analysis of rationalism as a world view that guides many of our actions in concrete everyday life and as a philosophy that guides our epistemological understanding of the reality around us It explores the multifaceted manifestations of the idea in the Enlightenment philosophy modern sociological theorising and post structural standpoints The volume also critiques rationality from feminist subaltern and postcolonial perspectives Finally it delves into the multi layered sociological significances of rationalisation of different domains of life Transdisciplinary in scope and with essays by foremost scholars in the field this volume will be a major intervention across the humanities and the social sciences It will be of interest to students and researchers in sociology anthropology history philosophy gender studies political science cultural anthropology education and religious studies

Genres of Modernity Dirk Wiemann,2008 Genres of Modernity maps the conjunctures of critical theory and literary production in contemporary India The volume situates a sample of representative novels in the discursive environment of the ongoing critical debate on modernity in India and offers for the first time a rigorous attempt to hold together the stimulating impulses of postcolonial theory subaltern studies and the boom of Indian fiction in English Combining close readings of literary texts from Salman Rushdie to Kiran Nagarkar with a wide range of philosophical sociological and historiographic reflections Genres of Modernity is of interest not only for students of postcolonial literatures but for academics in the fields of Cultural Studies at large BOOK JACKET Women, Knowledge, and Reality Ann Garry,Marilyn Pearsall,2015-07-17 This second edition of Women Knowledge and Reality continues to exhibit the ways in which feminist philosophers enrich and challenge philosophy Essays by twenty five feminist philosophers seventeen of them new to the second edition address fundamental issues in philosophical and feminist methods metaphysics epistemology and the philosophies of science language religion and mind body This second edition expands the perspectives of women of color of postmodernism and French feminism and focuses on the most recent controversies in feminist theory and philosophy The chapters are organized by traditional fields of philosophy and include introductions which contrast the ideas of feminist thinkers with traditional philosophers The collected essays illustrate both the depth and breadth of feminist critiques and the range of contemporary feminist theoretical perspectives Aboriginal Environmental Knowledge Catherine Laudine,2016-09-17 Whilst there are popular ideas about which champion Aboriginal environmental knowledge many of these are based more on romantic notions than on any detailed understanding of what might be the content of this knowledge This book is based on a grounded and broad assessment of less well known details of Aboriginal knowledge and provides both a great deal of detail and a new assessment of rituals and practices Aboriginal environmental knowledge is examined here as an integrated source of both religious and scientific knowledge An important finding is that Aboriginal environmental knowledge also includes knowledge about education for attitudes considered appropriate for survival Though evidence for this is readily available in the literature it has not been part of current depictions of Aboriginal environmental knowledge Contours of South Asian Social Anthropology Swatahsiddha Sarkar,2022-04-28 This book presents a conceptual and methodological framework to understand South Asia by engaging with the practices of sociology and social anthropology in India and Nepal It provides a new imagination of South Asia by connecting historical political religious and cultural divides of the region Drawing from the experiences of Indian and Nepali social anthropology the book discusses the presence of Nepal studies in Indian social anthropology and vice versa It highlights Nepal or South Asia as a subject for social anthropological research and stresses on pluriversal knowledge production through regional scholarship dialogic social anthropology South Asian episteme post Western social anthropology and the decolonisation of disciplines In exploring the themes and problems of doing social anthropology in Nepal by Indian scholars the book assesses the scope of developing the South Asian social anthropological worldview It explains why social anthropological and sociological inquiry in India has failed to surpass its focus beyond the territorial limits of the nation state The book examines the issues of methodological nationalism and social anthropological research tradition in South Asia By using the Saidian framework of travelling theory and Bhabra s idea of connected sociologies it shows how social anthropology can develop disciplinary crossroads within South Asia This book will be of interest to students teachers and researchers of South Asian studies anthropology sociology social anthropology South Asian sociology cultural anthropology social psychology area studies cultural studies Nepal studies and Global South studies

Science Studies Meets Colonialism Amit Prasad,2022-10-06 The field of science and technology studies has long critiqued the idea that there is such a thing as a universal and singular Science that exists independently of human society interpretation and action However the multiple significant ways in which colonial legacies impact and shape this project have often remained out of sight at the edges of the discipline In this important book Amit Prasad seeks to rectify this erasure demonstrating that problematic idealized imaginaries of science scientists and the scientific realm can be traced back to the birth of modern science during European colonialism Such visions of science and technology have undergirded the imagination of the West and thus of its others constructing hierarchies of technological innovation and scientific value but also unexpectedly leaving society vulnerable to contemporary threats of misinformation and conspiracy theories as has been strikingly evident during the COVID 19 pandemic Far from being an indictment of STS this rigorous book seeks to highlight such concerns to make STS engage more carefully with issues of colonialism and thus to enable readers to understand the rapidly changing global topography of science and technology today and into the future The Semiotic Web 1987 Thomas A. Sebeok,Jean Umiker-Sebeok,2010-10-06 No detailed description available for The Semiotic Web 1987 JSL ,2005 Clinical Counselling in Context John Lees,2014-02-25 In the light of the current professionalization of counselling

Clinical Counselling in Context examines the hypothesis that counselling theory and practice is altered by the specific organizational context in which it takes place the consequence of which is that context is an important force for therapeutic change It also argues that with careful professionalization and a well thought out academic base counselling can be a sophisticated activity which is not just the poor neighbour of psychotherapy

My Life as a Quant Emanuel Derman,2016-01-11 In My Life as a Quant Emanuel Derman relives his exciting journey as one of the first high energy particle physicists to migrate to Wall Street Page by page Derman details his adventures in this field analyzing the incompatible personas of traders and quants and discussing the dissimilar nature of knowledge in physics and finance Throughout this tale he also reflects on the appropriate way to apply the refined methods of physics to the hurly burly world of markets

Africanizing Anthropology Lyn Schumaker,2001-07-12 An innovative cultural study of a major site of British anthropology done with methods from the history of science detailing the development of methods practices and work culture in the colonial context
