Gardner Holland,2015-07-11 Excerpt from Our Army Nurses Interesting Sketches Addresses and Photographs of Nearly One Hundred of the Noble Women Who Served in Hospitals and on Battlefields During Our Civil War Orators find sources of eloquence in considering the part which woman played in our Civil War Their strongest praise cannot reach too high We all know full well what a background of encouragement sympathy and actual aid the women of the North furnished they held back their deepest wishes lest they should be considered selfish cheered long weary hours with patriotic songs and organized through villages and towns to carry on the work of the Sanitary Commission But there were other women who went forth on the perilous path of real service in the war They were sunshine at the edge of battlefields voices of solace in hospital sufferings In ways beyond the power of the chaplains they served the dying receiving last messages and brightening the last hours of many a boy in blue The privations and dangers which these noble characters endured called for a fortitude equal in man respects to the valor of the soldier The army nurse was obliged to respond to duty at all times and in all emergencies She could not measure her time sleep or strength She was under orders to serve to the fullest What remarkable experiences fell to the lot of these women are somewhat revealed in the following pages I am gratified to see this collection of narratives all aglow with the vivid light of our great war About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
