20143868 Paschen V. United States of America ,1932 Boardinghouse Women Elizabeth S. D. Engelhardt, 2023-11-03
In this innovative and insightful book Elizabeth Engelhardt argues that modern American food business caretaking politics sex travel writing and restaurants all owe a debt to boardinghouse women in the South From the eighteenth century well into the twentieth entrepreneurial women ran boardinghouses throughout the South some also carried the institution to far flung places like California New York and London Owned and operated by Black Jewish Native American and white women rich and poor immigrant and native born these lodgings were often hubs of business innovation and engines of financial independence for their owners Within their walls boardinghouse residents and owners developed the region s earliest printed cookbooks created space for making music and writing literary works formed ad hoc communities of support tested boundaries of race and sexuality and more Engelhardt draws on a vast archive to recover boardinghouse women s stories revealing what happened in the kitchens bedrooms hallways back stairs and front porches as well as behind closed doors
