It's the Journey not the Destination. Values in Life and Business. , Lest We Lose Love Scherto Gill,2023-04-18 Few are aware that since antiquity there has always been the philosophy of love at the core of Western culture It articulates what makes life meaningful and worthwhile and how we can live a good life together through an ethic of love This book fills this significant gap not only reconnecting the reader with such important wisdom and more crucially also reorienting our socio economic institutions and collective actions towards more loving and caring and more concerned with the qualities of our lived experiences By re discovering the gifts of love we may challenge the existing systemic dehumanisation and draw from knowledge and understanding already present in our culture This is timely because the global crises we are facing are catastrophic especially when it comes to climate change Therefore we must respond from a place of love rather than fear Whether it is reducing the use of fossil fuels lowering greenhouse emission choosing the right food to eat or advocating for structural transformation our concerted endeavours start with an appropriate appreciation of the nature of our well being which includes the planet s well ness This book highlights a clear pathway forward to ensure collective healing and co flourishing with nature we must practise the art of loving

For the Love of Beauty Arthur Pontynen, 2017-07-05 For most of the last century the methodology of art history has followed a positivist approach emphasizing form and style fact and history as the means of studying works of art By contrast the philosophical pursuit of truth once central to the fine arts and humanities has largely been abandoned In For The Love of Beauty Arthur Pontynen offers a searching and ambitious critique of modern aesthetic practice that aims to restore the pursuit of the knowledge of reality Being to its rightful place Pontynen begins by addressing the question of why the pursuit of truth be it called Dao

Dharma God Logos Ideal etc is no longer acceptable in academic circles even though it has been intrinsic to the purpose of art at most times and in most cultures Lacking the pursuit of truth of some degree of knowledge of what is true and good the humanities necessarily lack intellectual and cultural grounding and purpose Fields of study such as philosophy music art and history are therefore trivialized and brutalized Pontynen s focus on the study of the visual arts details the how the denial of purpose and quality in modernist and postmodernist aesthetics has denied art any possibility of transcending entertainment therapy or propaganda In place of the established narratives Pontynen offers a counter narrative based on a cross cultural pursuit of the good the true and the beautiful He recognizes that substantively different cultural traditions exist and that the truth claims of each may be valid in whole or in part He shows how the history of art parallels the intellectual history of Western culture and how these parallels affect both aesthetics and ethics Pontynen engages with those elements of modernist and postmodernist thought that might be true His purpose is not simply to deny their validity but to engage a viewpoint that does not privilege the notion of a purposeless cosmos For the Love of Beauty will be of interest
