Absolute within the relative and mutable things of this world The opening poem situates the poet beneath an endless sky of stars and dark emptiness But dear God all I want is to be here my tiny anguish and my joy a moment s notice an equivalent cry The book divides into four sections Canticle Complaint Confession and Compline Like the Psalms the poems praise with one voice then turn to note human failure error and injustice They contemplate the ways of desire then enter the mission of solitude turning from social practice to meditative practice summoned into pain and darkness by an intrepid joy Traditionally one who makes an icon does so in an attitude of contemplation the finished icon uniting image and spirit in a presence that challenges and confronts the one who stands before it Evidence has the force of both data and document but it also includes the evidence of things not seen In this rich and powerful collection Gibson uses both icon and evidence to probe the human heart its entanglements and its freedom
